WHITEHALL, May 4, 1863.

The following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty The QUEEN.

THE Dean and Chapter of Westminster humbly beg leave to offer their congratulations to your Majesty on the occasion of the marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

As Ministers of Almighty God in that ancient Church where Sovereigns of England have been crowned during eight hundred years, the Dean and Canons of Westminster have special cause to acknowledge the blessings which He has been pleased to bestow upon this Nation by means of those Monarchs whom his providence has set over it, and particularly by the bright example of your Majesty's reign, which they trust may be long continued in happiness and peace, and they unite in earnest prayer to the King of Kings that He would make the marriage of His Royal Highness to be a source of comfort and joy to your Majesty, and of a rich inheritance of blessings to many future generations of the People committed to your care.

RICHD. C. TRENCH, Dean.

And the following on the same subject: from

- The Mayor, Aldermen, Council, and Inhabitants of the borough of Chippenham.
- The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Ludlow.
- The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Stamford.
- The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Tenby.
