WHITEHALL, May 28, 1863.

The following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To Her Most Gracious Majesty QUEEN
VICTORIA.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal subjects, the Bishop of London and the Clergy of the cities of London and Westminster, humbly approach your Majesty with deep respect for your Majesty's person and office. Interested like all other of your Majesty's subjects in whatever tends to promote your Majesty's personal happiness and to secure the stability of the Throne, we desire to express to your Majesty our thankfulness for the auspicious union of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess whose character gives such bright hopes of domestic happiness and public usefulness. While as churchmen we especially revere your Majesty in the great position which Providence has assigned to the Sovereign of these realms in reference to the Established Church, we have been accustomed, in common with all our fellow-countrymen, now for many years to look to your Majesty and the Royal Family as the centre of social life for the whole community, and to acknowledge with thankfulness the example which your Majesty and the revered Prince Consort have given of pure family happiness, and of a life devoted to the best interests of the whole Nation; we rejoice that this example is so likely to be reflected in the children of the Royal House as one after another they become heads of families.

During the last sixteen months we have deeply sympathised with your Majesty in your sorrows; we have not failed to offer up our prayers to the God of all comfort that He would be pleased of His goodness to sustain and strengthen your Majesty under the bereavement He has sent; and now we thank Him for the prospect this happy union affords that your Majesty will not be left desolate during the remaining years of a life which we pray may be long preserved. We rejoice that your Majesty should receive abundantly the great comfort and consolation which parents derive from the sight of the well-being of the children whom they love.

Signed on behalf of the Bishop of London and the Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster,
