WHITEHALL, August 6, 1863.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for Presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, in Synod assembled, desire to approach your Majesty to offer our loyal and hearty congratulations on the Marriage of your Majesty's Royal son, the Prince of Wales, with Her Royal Highness the Princess Alexandra of Denmark.

Deeply sympathizing, as we did, with your Majesty in that sad event which cast so heavy a gloom over your Royal House, and over the whole Nation, we now no less warmly sympathize with your Majesty in the joy and gladness which a marriage so auspicious, and so full of promise of future happiness, must bring to your heart. In your people's joyous welcome of the beautiful and amiable bride of your Royal son, your Majesty may view the expression of the Nation's feelings in any event which can contribute towards the happiness of your Majesty or that of your Royal children. In that welcome was embodied an expression of your people's affection for their beloved Queen.

May the King of Kings long preserve your Majesty to your family and people, and may you be spared to see your Children's children, and Peace upon the Israel of God.

Signed in Synod, by the authority and in the name of the Bishops of the Episcopal Church in Scotland, on the 14th day of July 1863, at Perth.
