Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 4, 1864.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Decree published in the Prussian Official Gazette, according a provisional reduction for six months of the dues levied in Prussian ports on foreign vessels.

The increase of the port dues on foreign, incoming and out-going ships having cargoes on board,—the so-called extraordinary flag-dues,—appointed by the Order in Council of the 20th June 1822, is suspended from to-day for the space of six months.

Ships which may enter a Prussian harbour within the above six-monthly period, will not be affected by this Decree if they remain after the expiration of that period.
