At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of July 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament intituled "An Act to amend the law relating to contagious or infectious diseases in cattle and other animals," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time to continue, or to renew if expired, all or any of the provisions in the first part of that Act contained, for such time as shall be specified in such Order:

And whereas it is provided in the eleventh section of the said Act, which section is in the first part thereof, that Part I of the said Act shall continue in force until the fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and no longer, unless continued or renewed by Order of Her Majesty in Council:

And whereas it is provided in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act as follows:—

Slaughter of Diseased Animals.

"12. Every Local Authority shall cause all animals affected with the cattle plague within its district to be slaughtered, and shall, by way of compensation for every animal so slaughtered, pay to the owner thereof such sum not exceeding twenty pounds, and not exceeding one half of the value of the animal immediately before it was affected with the cattle plague, as to such Local Authority may seem fit.

"13. Every Local Authority shall cause every animal that has died of cattle plague, or has been slaughtered in consequence of being affected with cattle plague within its district, to be buried as soon as possible, in its skin, in some proper place, and to be covered with a sufficient quantity of quicklime or other disinfectant, and with not less than six feet of earth.

"14. Every Local Authority shall, within its district, cause the yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, to be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and all hay, straw, litter, dung, or other articles that have been used in or about any such animal to be burnt or otherwise destroyed; and no fresh animal shall be admitted into any yard, shed, stable, field, or other premises in which any animal affected with cattle plague has been kept while affected by the disease, or has died or been slaughtered, until the expiration of thirty days after the cleansing and disinfecting of such premises, in pursuance of this Act; and every Local Authority shall direct the disinfecting the clothes of, and the use of due precautions by Inspectors, Cattle Overseers, and others in contact with animals affected by the cattle plague, with a view to prevent the spreading of contagion.

"15. A Local Authority may, if it thinks fit, cause to be slaughtered any animal that has been in the same shed or stable, or in the same herd or flock, or in contact with any animal affected with the cattle plague within its district; and the owner of any animal so slaughtered may either dispose of the carcase on his own account, with a licence from some Officer appointed in that behalf by a Local Authority, or may require the Local Authority to dispose of the same; in which case such Local Authority shall pay to the owner thereof, by way of compensation, such sum, not exceeding twenty-five pounds, as may equal three-fourths of the value of the animal slaughtered: Provided always, that the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, may reserve animals (ordered to be slaughtered as aforesaid) for the purpose of experimental treatment.

"16. The Local Authority may require the value of any animal slaughtered under this Act to be ascertained by Officers of the Local Authority or by arbitration, and generally may impose conditions as to evidence of the slaughter and value of the animals slaughtered: Provided that no compensation shall in any case be paid in respect of any animal found affected with cattle plague in a market or on a highway, or in respect of any animal which has been moved or otherwise dealt with in contravention of this Act, or any Order of a Local Authority made in pursuance thereof."

And whereas by Orders of Her Majesty in Council, the last bearing date the eleventh day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the provisions of the above recited sections of the first part of the said Act were continued in force beyond the said fifteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six: and whereas it is considered expedient that the same be further continued:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the power vested in Her by the said Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said recited provisions contained in the twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth sections of the first part of the said Act shall continue in force on and after the said first day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, until the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 26th day of July 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that "Her Majesty may, by "and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from "time to time reduce all or any of the dues for "the time being payable in respect of existing or "future light-houses, buoys, or beacons, for the "time being, under the management of the "General Lighthouse Authorities" therein mentioned (that is to say, the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation):

"And may also, by and with the like advice, "from time to time increase or vary any of such "dues, so that no dues payable in respect of any "lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, existing at the time "when the said Act came into operation, should "be made to exceed the amount which had at "any period previous to such time been received "in respect thereof, or to which the said dues "might, during any part of such period as last "aforesaid, lawfully have been raised."

And whereas by an Order in Council made in pursuance of the said Act on the 1st of November 1864, Her Majesty approved of certain new consolidated tables of light duties, together with certain abatements, regulations, and exemptions contained therein, and in such tables it is directed that until Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, may see fit otherwise to determine, there should be allowed to every person paying such tolls as are specified in the said tables, an abatement or discount upon the amount payable by him of sixty per cent. in the case of every over-sea vessel, and of every coasting vessel. And whereas, by various Orders in Council since made in pursuance of the said Act in respect of certain new lights, certain tolls have been directed to be paid for over-sea vessels and for coasting vessels respectively, subject to the abatement or discount of sixty per cent. and the regulations and exemptions mentioned in the said new consolidated table of light duties. And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that the abatement or discount on the amount of the tolls hereinbefore referred to shall be varied in manner hereinafter mentioned, Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and of every other power enabling Her in this behalf, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to determine and direct that on and after the first day of October one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the abatement or discount to be allowed upon the amount of tolls specified in the said new tables of consolidated light duties mentioned in the said Order in Council of the 1st day of November 1864, and upon the amount of tolls specified in the said other Order in Council hereinbefore referred to, shall, in the case of every over-sea vessel and of every coasting vessel, be fifty-five per cent. and no more.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a notice as to the ingress and egress of ships at the ports of Gravosa, Traste, Budua, and the port of war of Cattaro.

TRANSLATION.

Imp. R. Command of Brigade of General Morhammer.

MOST VALUED SIR,

WITH reference to a (verbal) communication made to you by the Central Port and Health Office, in consequence of a telegraphic request made by me, I have the honour to make known the dispositions which His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, Commander-in-Chief and Lieutenant-General Baron Philippovick, has issued in order to regulate during the war the ingress of ships into the ports of Gravosa, Traste, Budua, and into the port of war of Cattaro.

Every merchant ship of larger size, that is to say from brigs upwards, and every steamer entering into the port of Gravosa, whether by day or by night, will be obliged by the battery of Lapad to stop in the canal of Calumatio, and, until pratique is received from the Harbour Office of Gravosa, will not be permitted to enter the port. The ingress into the Bocche di Cattaro is permitted only in the day-time. Merchant vessels, from brigs upwards, and all steamers, must always enter between the Punta d'Ostro and Fort Mumiela, and never by the other mouth, that is to say between Fort Manuela and La Punta d'Arza.

Such ships ought thence always to bear direct for Megline. Ingress to Cattaro is prohibited to every ship at night. At the port of Traste by day and by night ingress is prohibited to larger vessels, i.e., to brigs upwards and to steamers.

Entrance to Budua is prohibited during the night.

Entrance by day is prohibited at Plasamano, Tasi, and Malakuka, until vessels have received pratique in the Health Office of Budua.

Entrance into these three ports is prohibited by night, as at Budua.

Cattaro, 1st July 1866.

And whereas further powers are given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 85, for giving further facilities for the transmission of letters by post, and for the regulating the duties of postage thereon, and for other purposes relating to the Post-office.

And whereas certain powers are also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by another Act of Parliament made and passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, chapter 27, for amending the laws relating to the stamp duties on newspapers, and for providing for the transmission by post of printed periodical publications.

And whereas a Convention hath been lately made and concluded between the General Post-office of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the General Post-office of the Kingdom of Portugal, for the purpose of improving the postal service between the United Kingdom and Portugal; and it is expedient for the better carrying out of the same that certain regulations should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned and contained.

UPSET PRICE REDUCED.

VALUABLE AND DESIRABLE ESTATE IN ROXBURGHSHIRE FOR SALE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, within the Sale-rooms of Messrs Cay & Black, 65, George Street, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 19th day of September 1866, at One o'clock Afternoon,—

THE LANDS AND BARONY OF HADDEN, situated in the Parish of Sprouston, and County of Roxburgh, extending to 1,208 imperial acres, of first-class Arable Land, and 74 acres of thriving Plantation.

These Lands are part of one of the finest agricultural districts in the South of Scotland, and from their singular compactness (being nearly square), and picturesque situation, they form one of the most desirable Estates that has been in the market for many years.

The Estate is Let at present in Two Farms, called HADDEN and NOTTYLERS, the leases of which expire at the term of Whitsunday next, 1867, and the separation of the crop of that year from the ground. During the present leases a large sum has been expended on drainage, and at their expiry a very considerable rise of rent is confidently expected.

The Property is within five miles of the town of Kelso, and the Carham Station of the North-Eastern Railway is upon the Estate. From various parts of the Property a commanding view of the beautiful and interesting Vale of the Tweed can be obtained, and there are several sites peculiarly eligible for a Residence. The mildness of the climate and the salubrity of the district are well known. The timber in the vicinity of the sites is admirably adapted for ornamental purposes.

There is an abundance of Lime of good quality upon the Lands, which may be worked to great advantage, either for the Estate, or for Sale, the Lime Rock being close to the Railway Station.

The Wood in the Plantations on the Property is chiefly Scotch Fir, mixed with some Spruce and Larch. It might be thinned with great advantage, and to considerable profit. The Woods as a whole have been valued at upwards of £4,400.

The district is regularly hunted by the Duke of Buccleuch and the Earl of Wemyss' Foxhounds. The Estate is well stocked with all kinds of Low Country Game, and is surrounded by the preserved grounds of the Duke of Buccleuch and the Duke of Roxburghe.

The Estate is intersected with excellent roads. There is an Episcopalian Chapel at Carham, close to the property, and the Parish Church of Sprouston is within two miles.

The Lands are held of the Crown in blench farm, for payment of One Penny Scots, in lieu of the old ward duties. The Land-tax has been redeemed. Upset Price, £64,000.

For further particulars apply to Messrs D. M. & H. Black, W.S., 21, St Andrew Square, Edinburgh, in whose hands are the title-deeds and articles of roup; or to Messrs G. & J. Oliver, Writers, Hawick.
