TRANSLATION.

Imp. R. Command of Brigade of General Morhammer.

MOST VALUED SIR,

WITH reference to a (verbal) communication made to you by the Central Port and Health Office, in consequence of a telegraphic request made by me, I have the honour to make known the dispositions which His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, Commander-in-Chief and Lieutenant-General Baron Philippovick, has issued in order to regulate during the war the ingress of ships into the ports of Gravosa, Traste, Budua, and into the port of war of Cattaro.

Every merchant ship of larger size, that is to say from brigs upwards, and every steamer entering into the port of Gravosa, whether by day or by night, will be obliged by the battery of Lapad to stop in the canal of Calumatio, and, until pratique is received from the Harbour Office of Gravosa, will not be permitted to enter the port. The ingress into the Bocche di Cattaro is permitted only in the day-time. Merchant vessels, from brigs upwards, and all steamers, must always enter between the Punta d'Ostro and Fort Mumiela, and never by the other mouth, that is to say between Fort Manuela and La Punta d'Arza.

Such ships ought thence always to bear direct for Megline. Ingress to Cattaro is prohibited to every ship at night. At the port of Traste by day and by night ingress is prohibited to larger vessels, i.e., to brigs upwards and to steamers.

Entrance to Budua is prohibited during the night.

Entrance by day is prohibited at Plasamano, Tasi, and Malakuka, until vessels have received pratique in the Health Office of Budua.

Entrance into these three ports is prohibited by night, as at Budua.

Cattaro, 1st July 1866.

(Signed) G. MORHAMMER, Major-General.
To the Honourable Consulate of
H. B. Majesty in Ragusa.
