

- George Bowman and Richard Muncey, of Water Newton, Huntingdon, millers, trading under the style or firm of G. Bowman & Co.
- Obadiah Griffith Bullen, of 17, Gracechurch Street, London, ship and insurance broker, trading with Francis William Bullen, under the style or firm of Bullen & Co.
- Alfred Cooper, formerly of 36, Union Street, Borough, baker, now of 17, North Street, Saint George's Road, Peckham, both in Surrey, out of business.
- Robert Glyn, of Princess Street, resident porter in Her Majesty's Stationery Office, formerly of 31, Parker Street, both in Westminster, Middlesex, warehouseman in Her Majesty's Stationery Office.
- Samuel Charles Waller, of the Dover Castle, Little Surrey Street, Blackfriars, Surrey, publican.
- Charlotte Mack, late of 8, Black Horse Alley, Fleet Street, London, previously of 10, Edward Street, Kingsland Road, Middlesex, previously of 8, Black Horse Alley aforesaid, previously of 6, Fleming Street, Kingsland Road aforesaid, lady's maid, out of employ, but now a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, London.
- John Phillips, of the Greyhound Inn, Southminster, Essex, innkeeper and rag merchant, formerly of Bishop's Stortford, Herts, rag merchant.
- Abraham Levy, of 8, Artillery Street, Bishopsgate, Middlesex, wholesale and retail tailor, draper, and trimming seller.
- Henry Frederick Stokes, of 19, Elizabeth Terrace, Liverpool Road, Islington, Middlesex, journeyman compositor.
- Benjamin Harris, late of the Old King and Queen, 105, Newington Butts, licensed victualler, but now of 15, Kennington Oval, both in Surrey, out of business.
- James Ayres Snelling, of 1, Tudor Road, Kingston Hill, Surrey, builder's clerk, late of 4, Brook Green Terrace, Hammersmith, Middlesex, builder.
- Sarah Griggs, of 13, Wellington Street, Woolwich, Kent, corn chandler.
- James Sydney, formerly of 6, then of 4, Bevis Marks, Saint Mary Axe, and now of 35, Pentonville Road, Middlesex, attorney's clerk.
- Edward Kempton, formerly of 40, Brook Street, Ratcliff, Middlesex, carrying on business of a licensed victualler at the King's Arms, now at 6, George Street, Camberwell, Surrey.
- John Pomphrey, (and not John Pourphrey as previously advertized,) of 5, Bank Buildings, Hastings, Sussex, tea grocer.
- George Coles, of the Avenue, King Street, Southsea, Hants, slater and brickburner.
- Daniel Offley, the elder, David Offley, the younger, and Daniel Offley, the younger, of Victoria Ironworks, Moxley, Wednesbury, and of the Grove Works, Smethwick, both in Stafford, ironmasters.
- Henry Jones and James Millward, the younger, of the Clarendon Hotel, Birmingham, Warwick, and Exchange Street, Wolverhampton, Stafford, wine and spirit merchants, and ale and porter dealers.
- William Heely, of Birmingham, Warwick, manufacturer's clerk, formerly chain and nail manufacturer at Birmingham aforesaid.
- Samuel Cliff Rose, of Sedgley and Tipton, Stafford, iron manufacturer.
- John Rogers, of Market Place, Ross, Hereford, saddler.
- Francis George Hare, of 23, Broad Street, Birmingham, Warwick, out of business, employment, or occupation.
- Llewellyn Lewis, of Dinas, Llantrissant, Glamorgan, coal contractor and coal merchant, lately carrying on business with William Lewis at Cefn Crib, Trevechia, Monmouth, as coal merchants, under the style or firm of W. & L. Lewis.
- James Thomas, of 12, Sydenham Terrace, Grosvenor Road, St Paul, Bristol, baker and fly proprietor.
- Thomas Francis Stentiford, of Torquay, Devon, builder and grocer.
- Thomas Binns, Edwin Tickler, and John Binns, all of Kirton-in-Lindsey, Lincoln, corn millers and corn factors, trading under the style or firm of Thomas Binns & Company.
- Thomas Dean, at Wellington Terrace, North Egremont, Chester, and Lancaster Buildings, Liverpool, Lancaster, hop merchant and cotton and general dealer, sometimes engaged in joint adventures with James Simmons, under the style or firm of Dean & Simmons, previously of Britannia Buildings, Fenwick Street, hop merchant and cotton and general dealer, and formerly of Adelphi Bank Chambers, both in Liverpool aforesaid, corn and hop dealer, carrying on business with John Yates under the style or firm of Dean & Yates, and lately residing at Leigh, Lancaster.
- Joseph Helsby, of Garston, Lancaster, joiner and builder.
- Robert James, of 105, Grove Street, and at 39, Leed Street, both in Liverpool, coal merchant, and at Ince, near Wigan, all in Lancaster, under the style or firm of Robert James & Company.
- John Smith Cadman, of 199, Oxford Street, Manchester, Lancaster, grocer and tea dealer.
- Charles Crabtree, of Denton, Lancaster, hat manufacturer.
- Simon Henry Arensberg, of 23, Faulkner Street, Manchester, Lancaster, and 88, Leeds Road, York, general merchant.
- Jonas Barker, late at 34, Albert Street, Shieldfield, and carrying on business at the Imperial Pottery, Ouseburn, both in Newcastle-on-Tyne, as a manufacturer of earthenware.
- Joseph Hutchinson, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, oil merchant and commission agent, trading under the style or firm of Joseph Hutchinson & Co., formerly carrying on business with James Hutchison, late of the same place, deceased, under the style or firm of J. & J. Hutchinson, as oil merchants and commission agents.
- Francis Graham, of the George and Dragon Inn, Rickerge, publican, formerly of 55, Butchergate, both in Carlisle, Cumberland, grocer.
- George Walker, of Mirfield, York, currier.
- George White, late of Carson Row, Crookes, near Sheffield, York, mason and beer-house keeper, at Mrs Ann Lockwood's, of Carson Row, Crookes aforesaid, mason.
- William Hubbard, formerly of the Mermaid Inn, Orchard Street, then of Oak Street, Heeley, but now of 114, Andover Street, Sheffield, all in York, silver plater.
- William Hubbard, formerly of the Mermaid Inn, Orchard Street, publican, then of Oak Street, Heeley, but now of 114, Hanover Street, Sheffield, all in York, silver plater.
- Benjamin Pearman Pryke, formerly of King's Lynn, Norfolk, and now of James' Square, Saint James' Street, Nottingham, whitesmith and bellhanger.
- Reuben Easom, of Middlehill, Nottingham, bonnet front manufacturer.
- George Smith, of 90, Southampton Street, Reading, Berks, butcher.
- Martha Carter, of Castlegate, Elland, Halifax, York, beerseller.
- Samuel Shooter, of Golden Valley, Codnor, Derby, collier.
- James Cooper, of 8, Ascupart Street, Southampton, dealer in coals.
- Charles Betts, formerly of 20, Bridge Street, manufacturer, then of 12, Kerr Street, both in Northampton, clicker, and now a prisoner in the County Gaol of Northampton.
- Alfred William Mundy, of Leeds, York, commission agent.
- John Beckett Guy, of the White Hart Tavern, Park Row, Saint Augustin, Bristol, licensed victualler and commercial traveller.
- Nathaniel Palmer, of 5, Aylburton Place, Regent Road, Bedminster, farm bailiff, formerly of the Glass House Tavern, Avon Street, Saint Philips, both in Bristol, licensed victualler.
- Enoch Stubbs, of Abbey Street, Hanley, Stafford, beerseller and carter.
- William Farrell, of Thomas Street, Runcorn, Chester, joiner and builder.
- David Herd, of Lincoln, out of business, but previously of Glentham, both in Lincoln, draper and grocer.
- Edward Hall, at Coldhurst Street, Oldham, Lancaster, greengrocer, grocer, and carter.
- William Silverwood, the younger, late of Dodworth Lane Head, farm servant, but now of Westburn Terrace, Dodworth Road, both in Barnsley, farm labourer and carter.
- Bernhardt Edward Solberg, of 5, Mount Stuart Square, and 46 and 47, James' Street, both in Cardiff, Glamorgan, ship chandler, and lately carrying on business with Harold Frisk under the style or firm of Solberg & Frisk.
- James Devonport, of East Grinstead, Sussex, railway guard.
- Lewis Evans, of the Prince of Wales' Inn, Commercial Street, Aberdare, previously of the Railway Inn, Treforest, and the Red Cow Inn, Cardiff, all in Glamorgan, licensed victualler.
- William Green and Smith Green, both in Keighley, York, carrying on business as stonemasons and builders under the style or firm of William Green & Son.
- Thomas Brockhill, of Northallerton, York, joiner.
- Charles Spicer, of Bodmin, Cornwall, chemist.
- Moses Jones, residing at Llanrwst, Denbigh, and theretofore at Saint Asaph, Flint, shopkeeper and nailer.
- George Kellitt, of Crowle, Lincoln, joiner and cabinet-maker.