*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 23, 1866.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Lisbon, announcing the following Regulations of the Lisbon Board of Health:—

By Decree of the 23d ultimo Southampton, Liverpool, and Llanelly, were declared to be ports infected with cholera since the 14th of July; and the English ports in the English and Irish Channels to be only suspected ports from that date;

By Decree of the 27th of July last all the ports in England and Ireland were declared to be suspected ports, with the exception of the three above mentioned; viz.,—Liverpool, Southampton, and Llanelly, which still continued to be infected;

By Decree dated the 3d of August the Board of Health declare that the ports in Scotland are not included in the number of those declared to be suspected of cholera, by the above-mentioned Decree of the 27th of July; and

By Decree of the 6th of August no quarantines, whether they be classed as rigorous or precautionary, imposed upon vessels arriving from any ports either infected with or suspected of cholera, shall be accepted as such, unless they are undergone at the port of Lisbon.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 23, 1866.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Decree issued by the Italian Government, and rectifying certain errors in the tables of new import and export duties in the Italian Tariff which appeared in the London Gazette of the 17th instant:—

WE, Eugene of Savoy-Carignan, Lieutenant-General, &c., by virtue of the authority delegated to us, &c., &c., seeing that in the tables annexed to the Decree of July 14, 1866, there are some incomplete or inaccurate indications which require to be explained or rectified. On the proposal of the Minister of Finance, have ordained as follows:—

ART. 1. Coffee, pepper, and pimento are charged with the duty indicated in Table A. of the Decree of July 14, by the gross weight, as at present.

The words "as above," with follow the words "Tissues of cotton, bleached, of the weight," refers likewise to the number of threads indicated above.

ART. 2. In Table B., for the quintal (100 kilogrammes), the ton (1,000 kilogrammes), is to be substituted as the unity of weight for the articles mentioned below, the denomination of which, and the duty chargeable on them, shall be stated in the following rectified manner:—

| | Fcs. | Centimes. |
|---|---------|-----------|
| Iron ore | the ton | 0 20 |
| Copper ore | " | 5 90 |
| Lead ore (" arcifoglio ," galena, carbonates and sulphates of lead), containing 50 per cent, or more, of pure lead | " | 5 00 |

We ordain that the present Decree, sealed with the Seal of the State, be inserted, &c., &c.

ON an Application by PETITION by THE MAGISTRATES AND COUNCIL OF THE ROYAL BURGH OF PERTH to the Sheriff of the County,—he, the said Sheriff, has given the following Judgment, vizt. :—

Perth, 24th August 1866.

And the Sheriff having now extended the Boundaries of the said Burgh, annexes the Districts within the extended Boundaries to the existing Wards into which the said Burgh is at present divided, and fixes and re-arranges the said Wards as follows, vizt. :—The FIRST WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the River Tay at the east end of the High Street, and proceeding along that Street westward to the High Street Port, and from thence proceeding southward and eastward by South Methven Street, the South Crescent, and Canal Street, to the River Tay, at the east end of Canal Street, and from thence northward by the River Tay to the first-mentioned place at the east end of the High Street: The SECOND WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the east end of Canal Street, and proceeding along that Street, the South Crescent, and South Methven Street, westward and northward to the High Street Port, from thence along the High Street westward to the north end of the New Row, from thence along the New Row southward to County Place, from thence along York Place and the Glasgow Road, westward to the Toll Bar at the Powder Magazine, from thence along the southern boundary of the Extended Royalty to the Friar-ton Pier and Friar-ton Island, and from thence northward to the south side of the Railway Bridge, from thence along the south side of the Railway Bridge westward to the Mainland, from thence along the river northward to the place first-mentioned at the east end of Canal Street: The THIRD WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the River Tay at the east end of the High Street, and proceeding along that street westward to the end of the Old Guard Vennel, from thence proceeding along the Old Guard Vennel to the north end thereof, from thence proceeding westward to the south end of Curfew Row, from thence proceeding along Curfew Row and North Port northward to the west end of Charlotte Street, from thence proceeding along Charlotte Street to the west end of the Perth Bridge on the River Tay, and from thence southward to the place first above-mentioned at the east end of the High Street,—and also of all the territory within the Extended Royalty lying on the east side of the River Tay: And the FOURTH WARD to consist of the territory lying within a line commencing at the west end of the Bridge on the River Tay and proceeding along Charlotte Street westward to the north end of the North Port Street, from thence proceeding southward along the North Port and Curfew Row to Mill Street, from thence along Mill Street eastward to the north end of the Old Guard Vennel, from thence southward along the Old Guard Vennel to the south end thereof, from thence along the High Street westward to the north end of the New Row, from thence along the New Row southward to County Place, from thence proceeding westward along York Place and the Glasgow Road to the Toll Bar at the Powder Magazine, from thence proceeding northward along the line of the Extended Boundary till it reaches the point at the northern Boundary of the Burgh on the right bank of the River Tay, and from thence proceeding southward along the River Tay to the Bridge over the Tay,—and also of all the territory, being Royalty and within the Parliamentary Boundaries of the Burgh, not included in any of the other Wards: Declaring that the Boundaries of the said Wards shall be understood to run along the middle of the streets, roads, and river by which they are described to be bounded, except where the contrary is particularly mentioned,—the said Wards are laid down and delineated on the Plan docketted and signed by the Sheriff as relative hereto; and the Sheriff declares the number of Councillors to be elected for each Ward to remain as at present, vizt., seven for the First Ward, and six for each of the Second, Third, and Fourth Wards, and the order of their election to remain as at present: And the Sheriff directs that his Deliverance on the Petition be published as a Notice once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in each of the next two successive weeks in the three Newspapers published in the said Burgh,—all in terms of "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862," and "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Supplemental Act, 1865."

JOHN TAIT.
