FOREIGN OFFICE, February 15, 1867.

(Quarantine, No. 17.)

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Venice, the Circular, of which the following is a translation, issued by the Central Maritime Government at Trieste:—

(TRANSLATION.)

The yellow fever having broken out in the Island of St Thomas (in the West Indies), the port and sanitary organs are informed thereof, in order that the arrivals from that place may be subjected to the treatment of foul bill of health for yellow fever, established by the Circular, 17th July 1859, No. 1717.

Trieste, 3d February 1867.

The President,

GÖDEL LANNOY.

(145.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 14, 1867.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Constantinople, containing a copy of a note from Aali Pasha, respecting the importation of salt from Sicily to Antivari and Scutari

Sublime Port, January 3, 1867.

The Imperial Government having authorized the disembarkation of salt in the ports of Antivari and Scutari, in Albania, in transit for Montenegro, with a view to facilitate the victualling of that Principality, instructions have been given to the Turkish Consular Agents in Sicily to grant their signature to vessels laden with salt and destined from one or other of these two ports.

This transport of salt having assumed large proportions and given opportunity for certain abuses, measures have been taken to prevent smuggling, and to issue authority to control the transit operations at Antivari and at Scutari destined for Montenegro. These measures ought to consist in the fulfilment of the following formalities:—

1. Captains must hand over to the Consular Agents of the ports of Sicily, from which salt is embarked destined for Antivari and Scutari in Albania, a written engagement to present on their return, to these same Consular Agents, a certificate of direction from the Custom-house officers at Antivari or at Scutari, stating that the quantity of salt freighted upon their vessels and stated in their manifest had been really and truly disembarked in one of those two ports and examined by the Custom-house.

2. Captains, on their return to the Sicilian Ports, are obliged to present this certificate to the Consular Agents, who, on the receipt of this probatory document, will restore them their former engagement.

By means of these measures the Custom-house Officers of Antivari and Scutari will be able to state the amount of salt disembarked in transit, and to ascertain whether this transit right serves as a pretext for the clandestine introduction of salt into the other provinces of the Empire.

Captains, however, who shall not be able to clear themselves, by means of this Custom-house certificate, of the disembarkation of their cargoes of salt in the ports of Antivari and Scutari, will be liable to the penalties inflicted upon offences of smuggling.

(Signed) AALI.
