FOREIGN OFFICE, March 12, 1867.

(General, No. 5.)

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received, from Her Majesty's Consul at Geneva, a Despatch, of which the following is an extract :—

" Geneva, March 9, 1867.

" The Cantonal laws positively require the production of passports, or some other certificate, in order to obtain permits of residence in any of the Swiss Cantons; the only persons exempted from the above law are travellers passing through the country, or who may be residing for a few days only in the hotels.

" I have the honour to enclose the text of the Cantonal law on permits of residence."

Extract of Inclosure.

" (Law of June 16, 1866.)

" ART. 1er. Toute personne, sans distinction d'âge, de sexe, et de condition, non ressortissant au Canton et y résidant, est soumise à l'obligation de prendre un permis personnel de séjour, ou de domicile, soit d'établissement.

" Le prix de chaque permis est fixé à un franc cinquante centimes par année et par personne, payable d'avance sans fractionnement.

" Les mineurs domiciliés chez leur père ou leur mère sont dispensés de ce paiement jusqu'à l'âge de dix-sept ans.

ART. 2. Tout permis, quel que soit le terme pour lequel il aura été accordé, expire de plein droit, le jour où les papiers déposés par ou pour le non-ressortissant cessent d'être réguliers."

REGIMENTAL DEBTS ACT, 1863.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department holds in his hands for distribution amongst the next of kin of each of the deceased Soldiers named in the List hereunder written, the sum of money set opposite to each name.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to the "Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the Soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his Regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should not these particulars, furnished by the applicant, agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased Soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then, within three calendar months, the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the Clergyman, or one of the Churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further Lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the Notice in which the deceased Soldier's name appeared.

Dated this 15th day of March 1867.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
