THE GARTNESS IRON AND STEEL WORKS,

Airdrie, near Glasgow, in the County of Lanark. These Works are distant about two miles from Airdrie, and a short distance from Clarkston Station, and they are in close proximity to the North British Railway.

The Works consist of—

First,—The Gartness Malleable Iron Works, including 18 Puddling Furnaces and Four Mill Heating Furnaces, Forging and Finishing Rolls, with connecting Machinery, and Plant for manufacturing Merchant Bars, Rails, and Angle Iron, and driven by a Horizontal High-Pressure Steam Engine, of 30-inch Cylinder and 6 feet Stroke. There are also Two Patent Steam Hammers.

Second,—The High Moffat Steam and Water Forge, consisting of Three Puddling and Three Scrap Iron Furnaces, with Cranes and a Three-Ton Patent Steam Hammer, capable of producing forgings of 12 tons weight. In the Water Forge the Helve Hammer is driven by a Water Wheel, and Forgings up to 20 cwt. can be easily manufactured. There is One Puddling and One Scrap Iron Furnace, with Crane and necessary Plant, with a recently erected Steel Melting 12-holed Furnace.

Third,—The Low Moffat Forge, driven by Water Power, having a Helve Hammer, Two Scrap Iron Furnaces, with a Crane, and all necessary Plant for manufacturing Forgings up to 30 cwt.

There are 38 Cottages for Workmen, a large Store, as well as a House for a Foreman and a Manager's House, with Stabling, Outhouses, and other accommodation.

Fourth,—The whole Stock of Pig Iron, Scrap Iron, Wood, Tools, and other effects, situate in and about the Works, conform to Inventory thereof.

For further particulars as to the Property and Inventories of the Machinery and Plant, application may be made to Herbert H. Cannan, 8, Wallbrook, London; Messrs Uptons, Johnson & Upton, Solicitors, 20, Austin Friars, London; or to Messrs M'Grigor, Stevenson, & Fleming, Writers, 136, Saint Vincent Street, Glasgow, who will exhibit the Title Deeds and Articles of Sale.
