TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES BLAIR, Brewer and Merchant in Stonehaven.

AT a Meeting of the Creditors held upon the 20th November last, John Law, writer in Stonehaven, was chosen trustee on the sequestrated estate, and his appointment has been since confirmed by the Court of Session—The Sheriff of Kincardineshire has fixed Saturday the 20th December next, and Saturday, 3d January next, within the house of John Milne, vintner at Mill of Stonehaven, at 12 o'clock mid-day, for the public examination of the bankrupt.

The Creditors are requested to meet within the house of the said John Milne, on Monday the 5th January next, at 12 o'clock mid-day, to instruct the trustee relative to the management and recovery of the estate; and to produce their grounds of debt with oaths of verity thereon, in the hands of the trustee, betwixt and the 22d of August next, being ten months from the date of the sequestration, otherwise the creditor neglecting, will have no share in the first distribution of the bankrupt estate.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN MACDONALD, late Drover in Dalnandug of Lochaber.

THE Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said John Macdonald, has made up a second state and scheme of division of the effects of the said John Macdonald, with a general state of the affairs of the bankrupt, which will lie in the hands of Alexander Macdonnell, writer in Inverness, until the 13th day of January 1801, being the first lawful day after the termination of two years from the date of the sequestration, on which day he requests the creditors to meet in the house of Mrs Robert Eyles, vintner in Inverness, to receive their dividends, and consider of the propriety of disposing of the outstanding debts.
Inverness, December 6, 1800.
