

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1867.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of October 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels called the "Tasmanian," has lately arrived from the West Indies in the Southampton Water, in the county of Hants, and has been directed to proceed to and remain under quarantine at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the West Indies, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel, and attacked several persons on board thereof, and the said vessel arrived under alarming and suspicious circumstances; and whereas several persons who were on board the "Tasmanian," on her arrival, being all the persons on board the said ship who were known to be or suspected of being affected by the said disease, have since been ordered to be removed to the Quarantine Lazarette or Hulk called the "Menelaus," lying at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the disposition of the other persons remaining on board the said ship:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them, do hereby order

1. That the said vessel, called the "Tasmanian," shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid, until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

2. That the persons now on board the said vessel called the "Tasmanian," not ordered to be removed to the "Menelaus," shall be removed to the ship called the "Parana," or the ship called the "Æolus," unless ordered to remain on board the "Tasmanian" by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton.

3. That the persons so removed on board the "Menelaus" Quarantine Hulk, or who shall hereafter be removed on board the said Hulk, or on board the "Parana," or the "Æolus," and who shall have been on board the "Tasmanian," shall be kept and detained on board the said Hulk, or the "Parana," or the "Æolus," until the said Lords of the Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order (Scotland) of September 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Leith, in the county of Edinburgh, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows:—

All that space occupied by the docks, quays, and buildings, and the west pier, belonging to the Leith Dock Commissioners, and the sheds and road on the west side of the docks between the said docks and the property of the Caledonian Railway Company, in the parish of North Leith, and burgh of Leith, all which space is coloured light brown on the plan of Edinburgh and Leith, deposited at the Privy-Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town-Clerk of the burgh of Leith.

Also the under-mentioned streets or places, namely:—

The road or street called Commercial Street, the Draw-bridge across the harbour of Leith between the east end of Commercial Street and the west end of Bernard Street, the streets and roads called Bernard Street and Baltic Street, the portion of Constitution Street where that street is crossed from Bernard Street to Baltic Street, and the part of the road or street called Salamander Street, extending from Baltic Street to the eastern end of the Leith Public Slaughter-houses, and the said Public Slaughter-houses, which streets or places are coloured dark brown on the plan and copy so deposited as aforesaid ;

And prescribe as follows :—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days : Provided, nevertheless, that foreign cattle may be removed out of the said defined part to the Public Slaughter-house at Edinburgh, for the purpose of being there slaughtered, and for no other purpose, by the following route, namely :—

Along the Caledonian Railway, by the shortest route of that railway, from Leith to the Lothian Road Station of the Caledonian Railway in Edinburgh, thence, by the shortest way, from the southern end of the buildings of the said station through property of the Caledonian Railway Company, across Castle Barns, and along Semple Street, part of Fountain Bridge, and part of Ponton Street, to the Edinburgh Public Slaughter-house ;

And they shall be brought along the said railway, without stopping, in trucks or carriages exclusively set apart or used for the purpose of conveying foreign cattle, and coloured with a red stripe two feet wide all round, to designate them as so appropriated ; and such trucks and carriages shall, after they have been used for the purpose of conveying any cattle to the said Edinburgh Public Slaughter-house, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided by Article 50 of the said Consolidated Order, and if any truck or carriage is at any time used in contravention of any of the provisions of this Article, the Company or person by whom it is so used shall, for each time it is so used, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

2. Cattle, other than foreign cattle, within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive, except in accordance with the proviso for removal to the Public Slaughter-house at Edinburgh hereinbefore contained.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order (Scotland) of September 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Granton, in the county of Edinburgh, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows :—

All that space on the estate of His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch, at Granton, in Edinburghshire, lying between the water forming the West Harbour of Granton, and a line commencing at the said water at a point on the Granton Pier, at the south-western corner of the building called the First Stone Warehouse, and running due east to the central wall of the Granton Pier, thence southward along the central wall of the Granton Pier to the south-eastern corner of the West Harbour, thence westward along the northern boundary of the railway to the old road from Broom Park Cottage to the shore, thence in a north-easterly direction along the eastern boundary of the said road to the south side of the West Harbour of Granton at a point forty yards to the north of the north-eastern corner of the slaughter-house for foreign cattle at Granton, all which space is coloured pink on the plan of part of the estate of His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch, deposited at the Privy Council Office, copies of which are deposited at the offices of the Town-Clerk of the city of Edinburgh and the Clerk of Supply of the county of Edinburgh ;

And prescribed as follows :—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within four days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing, unless they are taken to a licensed market or sale within that defined part within such four days, and they shall be so taken if a market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, but if there is no such licensed market or sale within that defined part, or if no such market or sale is held there within the said period of four days, then all such foreign cattle shall be slaughtered within that defined part within the said period of four days : Provided, nevertheless, that foreign cattle may be removed out of the said defined part to the Public Slaughter-house at Edinburgh, for the purpose of being there slaughtered, and for no other purpose, by the following route, namely :—

Along the Caledonian Railway, by the shortest route of that railway, from Granton to the Lothian Road Station of the Caledonian Railway in Edinburgh, thence, by the shortest way, from the southern end of the buildings of the said station, through property of the Caledonian Railway Company, across Castle Barns, and along Semple Street, part of Fountain Bridge, and part of Ponton Street, to the Edinburgh Public Slaughter-house.

And they shall be brought along the said railway, without stopping, in trucks or carriages exclusively set apart or used for the purpose of conveying foreign cattle, and coloured with a red stripe two feet wide all round to designate them as so appropriated ; and such trucks and carriages shall, after they have been used for the purpose of conveying any cattle to the said Edinburgh Public Slaughter-house, be cleansed and disinfected in manner provided by Article 50 of the said Consolidated Order, and if any truck or carriage is at any time used in contravention of any of the provisions of this Article, the Company or person by whom it is so used shall, each time it is so used, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive, except in accordance with the proviso for removal to the Public Slaughter-house at Edinburgh hereinbefore contained.

WHITEHALL, August 5, 1867.

The Right Honourable Sir William Bovill, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Richard Nation, of No. 4, Orchard Street, Portman Square, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of mora simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Middlesex, also in and for the city and liberties of Westminster, and the city of London.

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act 29 and 30 Vict., cap. 39, sec. 16, that the actual surplus revenue of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, beyond the actual expenditure thereof, for the year ended the 30th day of June 1867, amounted to the sum of two million six hundred and ninety thousand seven hundred and twenty-six pounds nine shillings and fourpence.

The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice that the sum of six hundred and seventy-two thousand six hundred and eighty-one pounds twelve shillings and fourpence, being one-fourth part of the said surplus of two million six hundred and ninety thousand seven hundred and twenty-six pounds nine shillings and fourpence, will be applied under the provisions of the said Act, in the quarter ending the 31st day of December 1867, towards the reduction of the National Debt.

A. Y. SPEARMAN, Comptroller-General.

National Debt Office, October 11, 1867.
