Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1867.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 14th day of October 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS one of the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company's vessels called the "Tasmanian," has lately arrived from the West Indies in the Southampton Water, in the county of Hants, and has been directed to proceed to and remain under quarantine at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight, and during and in the course of her voyage from the West Indies, the Yellow Fever, being a dangerous and infectious disease, appeared on board the said vessel, and attacked several persons on board thereof, and the said vessel arrived under alarming and suspicious circumstances; and whereas several persons who were on board the "Tasmanian," on her arrival, being all the persons on board the said ship who were known to be or suspected of being affected by the said disease, have since been ordered to be removed to the Quarantine Lazaretto or Hulk called the "Menelaus," lying at the Motherbank, off the Isle of Wight:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision for the disposition of the other persons remaining on board the said ship:

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them, do hereby order

1. That the said vessel, called the "Tasmanian," shall remain and continue at the Motherbank aforesaid, until the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

2. That the persons now on board the said vessel called the "Tasmanian," not ordered to be removed to the "Menelaus," shall be removed to the ship called the "Parana," or the ship called the "Æolus," unless ordered to remain on board the "Tasmanian" by the Medical Superintendent of Quarantine, at Southampton.

3. That the persons so removed on board the "Menelaus" Quarantine Hulk, or who shall hereafter be removed on board the said Hulk, or on board the "Parana," or the "Æolus," and who shall have been on board the "Tasmanian," shall be kept and detained on board the said Hulk, or the "Parana," or the "Æolus," until the said Lords of the Council, or any two or more of them, shall make further order.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 11th day of October 1867.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order (Scotland) of September 1867, do hereby define the part of the Port of Leith, in the county of Edinburgh, within which foreign cattle may be landed, as follows:—

All that space occupied by the docks, quays, and buildings, and the west pier, belonging to the Leith Dock Commissioners, and the sheds and road on the west side of the docks between the said docks and the property of the Caledonian Railway Company, in the parish of North Leith, and burgh of Leith, all which space is coloured light brown on the plan of Edinburgh and Leith, deposited at the Privy-Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town-Clerk of the burgh of Leith.

Also the under-mentioned streets or places, namely:—

The road or street called Commercial Street, the Draw-bridge across the harbour of Leith between the east end of Commercial Street and the west end of Bernard Street, the streets and roads called Bernard Street and Baltic Street, the portion of Constitution Street where that street is crossed from Bernard Street to Baltic Street, and
