WAR-OFFICE, March 10, 1868.

The Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Royal Sign Manual, of which the following is a copy, to inquire into the constitution and practice of Courts-Martial in the Army, and the present system of punishment for military offences :—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor John Wilson Patten, Esquire, Colonel of the Third Royal Lancashire Militia, one of Our Aides-de-Camp, Chancellor of Our Duchy of Lancaster ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Spencer Compton Cavendish (commonly called Marquess of Hartington) ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Charles, Viscount Eversley, Lieutenant-Colonel Commandant in the Hampshire Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry, one of Our Aides-de-Camp, with the rank of Colonel in the Yeomanry ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Lieutenant-General Jonathan Peel ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor John Robert Mowbray, Esquire, Judge Advocate-General of Our Forces ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Thomas Emerson Headlam, Esquire ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Russell Gurney, Esquire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law, Recorder of Our City of London ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Sir James Yorke Scarlett, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-General of Our Forces ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Alfred Hastings Horsford, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Major-General of Our Forces ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Henry Eyre, Esquire, Lieutenant-General of Our Forces ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Samuel Whitbread, Esquire ;

Greeting :

Whereas We have thought it expedient, for divers good causes and considerations, that a Commission should forthwith issue for the purpose of inquiring into the constitution and practice of Courts-Martial in Our Army, and the present system of punishment for military offences. Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your zeal, discretion, and ability, have authorised and appointed, and do hereby presents authorize and appoint you, the said John Wilson Patten, Spencer Compton Cavendish, commonly called Marquess of Hartington, Charles Viscount Eversley, Jonathan Peel, John Robert Mowbray, Thomas Emerson Headlam, Russell Gurney, Sir James Yorke Scarlett, Sir Alfred Hastings Horsford, Henry Eyre, and Samuel Whitbread, or any three or more of you, to be Our Commissioners for making the enquiry aforesaid. And We do hereby authorise and empower you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, to obtain information thereupon, by the examination of all persons most competent by reason of their knowledge, habits, or experience, to afford it; and also by calling for all documents, papers, and records which may appear to you, or any three or more of you, calculated to assist your researches, and to promote the formation of a sound judgment on the subject. And We do hereby require and command you, or any three or more of you, to report to Us, under your hands and seals, with all convenient speed, your opinions in what respects the administration of Criminal Justice in the Army admits of improvement, either as regards the constitution or the practice of Courts-Martial, and what changes or modifications it may be desirable to make in the punishments now applicable to offences committed by the soldier, without danger to the paramount consideration of maintaining discipline and effectually repressing crime in the ranks of the British Army throughout all the various contingencies of military service to which Our troops are necessarily liable. And We will and command, and by these presents ordain, that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment. And We do hereby command all and singular Our Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Mayors, Bailiffs, Constables, Officers, Ministers, and all other Our loving subjects whatsoever, as well within liberties as without, that they be assistant to you and each of you in the execution of these presents. And for your assistance in the due execution of these presents We have made choice of Our trusty and well beloved John Lloyd Wharton, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, to be Secretary to this Our Commission, and to attend you, whose service and assistance We require you to use from time to time as occasion shall require. In witness whereof we have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourselves at the Court at St James's, the tenth day of March in the thirty-first year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,
JOHN S. PAKINGTON.

Heir-at-Law of MARGARET HARRISON, formerly GREEN, and theretofore BRERETON.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the estate of John Harrison, deceased, and of an Act passed in the 7th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act for widening and improving certain streets in the town of Liverpool, and for other purposes," and of an Act passed in the 5th year of the reign of Her Majesty, entitled "An Act to make further provisions for the administration of justice," all persons claiming to be the heirs-at-law of Margaret Harrison, late of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Widow of the said John Harrison, formerly of the same place, Gentleman, deceased, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 4th day of May 1868, to come in and prove their claims, at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir Richard Malins, No. 3, Stone Buildings, Lincoln's Inn, in the county of Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be preemptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Thursday, the 21st day of May 1868, at 12 of the clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

The said Margaret Harrison, who died in or about the month of September 1811, was, before her marriage with the said John Harrison, supposed to have been the widow of one — Green; and it is alleged that by him she had a son named Robert Green, who died in America in her lifetime, leaving two sons named respectively David Russel Green and John Harrison Green. It is believed that the maiden name of the said Margaret Harrison was Margaret Brereton, and that she had an only brother named Randle Brereton, who died, leaving a son, also named Randle Brereton, his heir-at-law, and that the said Randle Brereton the younger died at Glasgow, in or about the year 1819. The property in question is of the estimated value of £3000 or thereabouts.—Dated this 4th day of March 1868.
