TUESDAY, AUGUST 25, 1868.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of August 1868.
 By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.
 PRESENT,
 Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
 Mr Hammond.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, relating to sheep brought to Great Britain which come from the provinces of Schleswig or Holstein, or from Hamburg; provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

This revocation shall take effect on Saturday, the twenty-second day of August instant.

ARTHUR HELPS.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 20th day of August 1868.
 By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.
 PRESENT,
 Sir Stafford Northcote, Bart.
 Mr Hammond.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and seven, intituled "An Act to prevent until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty, and to the end of the then session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and from time to time by divers subsequent Acts continued until the first day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, it was (amongst other things) enacted, that it should be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them might seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal, to or from such parts or places as they might designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals, or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals, or of hay, straw, fodder, or other articles likely to propagate infection, and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of that Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary any such Orders or Regulations, and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid, in any such Order or Orders contained, should have the like force and effect as if the same had been inserted in that Act, and that all persons offending against the same should, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding twenty pounds, or such smaller sum as the said Lords or others of Her Majesty's Privy Council might in any case by such Order direct:

And whereas the said Act has been amended and explained by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven, to prevent the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals:"

And whereas a contagious or infectious disorder, known as Variola Ovina, or Sheep Pox, prevails among sheep in Schleswig, Holstein, Holland, and elsewhere on the continent of Europe:

And whereas divers sheep, lately imported from Holland and elsewhere on the continent of Europe into Great Britain, have been found on arrival to be affected or sickening with the said disorder:

And whereas it is expedient to take measures for preventing the said disorder from spreading and being propagated amongst the flocks in Great Britain, and it is necessary for that purpose to make such Order and Regulations as are hereinafter expressed to be hereby made :

Now therefore the Lords of the said Council do hereby order as follows :—

1. All sheep brought to Great Britain from the continent of Europe, and landed in Great Britain, (even although they shall not apparently be suffering from any disorder,) shall, at the option of the consignee or owner of such sheep, either be kept in quarantine in some convenient place to be set apart and appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs for fourteen days from the time when such sheep shall have been landed, (the day of landing being counted as one of such days,) or shall, within four days after they shall have been landed, (such four days being inclusive of the day of landing,) be slaughtered at the place whereat they shall be so landed.

2. The skins, wool, horns, and hoofs of any such sheep which shall be so slaughtered as aforesaid shall, before the same, or any part thereof, shall be sold or otherwise disposed of, be purified or disinfected in such manner and by such means as the said Commissioners of Customs may direct, and no skins, wool, horns, or hoofs of any such sheep shall be sold or otherwise disposed of by any person whatsoever before the same shall have been duly purified or disinfected under the supervision of the said Commissioners of Customs, or some persons or person appointed or nominated by them.

3. The reasonable charges and expenses incurred by the Commissioners in and about detaining the said sheep in quarantine, or otherwise in or about the execution of this Order, or the duties of the said Commissioners thereunder, shall be paid by the owner or consignee of such sheep, and the said sheep or any of them may be detained as security for the payment of such charges and expenses, and in the event of the same not being paid within four days after the same shall have become due, the said sheep, or so many thereof as may be necessary, shall be sold, and after retaining the said charges and expenses, and the costs of sale and keep of the said sheep, the balance realized shall be paid by the Commissioners to the said owner or consignee.

4. Every person guilty of an offence against this Order shall for every such offence incur a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and where acts forbidden by this Order are committed at one and the same time with respect to more than four sheep, each such act shall be deemed to be an offence, and a penalty not exceeding five pounds for each sheep may be imposed in respect of each such offence, and where any such offence is committed with reference to any skin, wool, horns, or hoofs, there shall, in addition to any penalty not exceeding twenty pounds which may be imposed as for an offence against this Order, be imposed a further penalty not exceeding one pound for every half ton in weight of such skins, wool, horns, or hoofs, after the first ton: Provided that the penalty for one offence shall in no case exceed twenty pounds.

5. The word "sheep" shall in this Order include lambs.

6. This Order shall take effect on and after Saturday the twenty-second day of August one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and shall be applicable to Great Britain, and shall continue in force until revoked by the Lords of the Privy Council.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, August 20, 1868.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, the following translation of a Decree of the Royal Swedish Government, prohibiting the importation of certain domestic animals from particular countries into Norway, viz. :—

We, Charles, by the grace of God King of Norway and Sweden, the Goths and Vandals, maketh known :—

In virtue of the Law established in consequence of the noxious and contagious epidemic among domestic cattle, of the 27th February 1866, § 8, it is determined hereby that this import prohibition shall supersede the placard of the 13th January last.

1. It shall be prohibited to import from the Austrian ports, and all Russian ports, with the exception of those of the Arctic Ocean, as well harbours in the White Sea as along the coast of Finland—

- a. Horned cattle (large cattle), sheep, goats, and other ruminating animals, as well as pigs.
- b. Raw parts of these animals, such as raw skins and hides (dried and salted included), unprepared hair, bristles, wool, horn, hoofs, and bone, unsalted or unprepared meat and pork, and unmelted tallow.
- c. Forage; such as grass, hay, and straw.
- d. Cowhouse implements that have been used.

2. It shall also be prohibited from German ports in North or East Sea, as well as from Great Britain, Ireland, Holland, and Belgium, live horned cattle, sheep, and goats.

Hereafter all concerned must conform.

Given at the Stockholm Palace, the 30th July 1868, under our hand and Royal seal, (Signed) CARL.
