act of one of the parties, to be compensated for in favour of the other party, by a payment of 0 fr. 50 cent. per day and per ton burthen of the ship employed. This payment will commence from the day after that on which the simple stipulated time, as determined by paragraph two of the present regulations, shall have expired.

Sec. 6. If the demurrage is prolonged beyond a period equal in duration to the original stipulated time, the rate of compensation will be increased from 50 cent. to 75 cent. for all the prolonged time.

Sec. 7. The indemnities provided above are payable daily and in advance.

Sec. 8. The delay cannot give rise to an action for damages on either side, unless demanded in due form of law.

SHIPPING CARGO.

Sec. 9. Embarcations are subject to all the regulations above enumerated. The merchandise to be shipped must be handed over to the master of the vessel upon the edge of the quay.

ARTICLE II. The conditions contained in these regulations will come into force, as "usages" adopted for the use of the Port of Algiers, on and after the 1st October next.

All local decrees and regulations concerning the police of the port and the quays, embarcation and disembarcation, are hereby annulled in all points in which they differ from the rules abovementioned.

ARTICLE III. This Decree, inserted in the "Official Bulletin of Government Acts" and in the "Moniteur de l'Algérie, will be communicated by the Préfet of the Department to the Chamber and the Tribunal of Commerce of Algiers. It will in addition to this be addressed to all the Chambers of Commerce at the ports of the French Empire, and to the representatives of the European Maritime Powers at Algiers.

(C. 1246.)

Board of Trade, Whitehall, September 10, 1868.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a translation of a Decree which was inserted in the "Madrid Gazette" of the 1st instant, and which contains the following Order to the Governors of the Maritime provinces, and to the Captain-General of Ceuta:—

"Cases of Asiatic cholera not having re-
"appeared in the ports of England where they "had previously occurred, and the state of the "public health of that country having improved,
"vessels coming from thence will, for the present,
"be subjected to three days' quarantine of observ"ation, provided that their bills of health, and
"the occurrences on board during the voyage, do
"not excite suspicion."
