

- Edmund Parrott Elliott, trading in and under the name of Edmund Green, formerly of 97, Regent Street, Lambeth Walk, and at 50, Henry Street, Kennington, both in Surrey, comedian and commercial traveller, and sometime manager of the Garrick Theatre, Leman Street, Whitechapel, Middlesex.
- Alexander Prince and Alexander Charles Montague Prince, of 4, Trafalgar Square, Charing Cross, Middlesex, patent and commission agents.
- William Paul Homes, of 26, Morton Road, Islington, assistant to a boot and shoe manufacturer, prior thereto of 15, Compton Street, Brunswick Square, and 41, Leman Street, Whitechapel, all in Middlesex, boot and shoe manufacturer.
- Frederick William Thomas, (sued and committed also as F. Thomas,) late of Keston, near Bromley Common, Kent, and 6, Adam Street, Adelphi, London, bill discounter and financial agent.
- George David Eckert, (sued and known as David Eckert,) of 7, Bear Street, Leicester Square, Middlesex, baker, a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, London, (in formâ pauperis).
- Francis Gauntlett, formerly of Southsea, Hants, builder and brick manufacturer, then of 46, Cornwall Road, Westbourne Grove, Middlesex, and Lower Norwood, Surrey, shipowner, now of the Holme, Nuthurst, near Horsham, Sussex, manager of a farm.
- Henry Hearn, of 149, Ebury Street, Pimlico, Middlesex, hairdresser and retailer of beer.
- Charles Wisher, of 22, Pitt Street, Commercial Road, Peckham, Surrey, builder.
- William Smith, late of Colchester, innkeeper and farmer, and now of Frating, both in Essex, farmer.
- John Thomas Ellis, of 4, Somerset Place, High Street, Merton, Surrey, grocer and cheesemonger.
- Peter Albrecht, of 78, Cornwall Road, formerly of 20, Lower Marsh, both in Lambeth, Surrey, and late of 13, Hawkins Street, and 6, Lower Oxford Street, Mile End, both in Middlesex, baker.
- Alfred Timpson, of the Salmon and Ball public-house, 32, Lamb Street, Spitalfields, Middlesex, licensed victualler.
- Henry Hollis, of 93, Brooks Street, Commercial Road East, Middlesex, grocer.
- Moses Philips, of Aldershot, Southampton, watchmaker, jeweller, and silversmith.
- Charles Cornes, of 70, King Street, previously of 4, Brook Green Terrace, both in Hammersmith, Middlesex, carpenter and joiner.
- John Beale, of the Collierne Arms, Richmond Road, West Brompton, Middlesex, builder and tavern keeper.
- Nathaniel Sewell, of Seabridge Farm, near Newcastle-under-Lyme, Stafford, farmer and cattle dealer.
- Robert Hickman, of Vernon House, Great Malvern, Worcester, tailor and woollen draper.
- Abraham Billson, of North Street, Rugby, and formerly of Birmingham, both in Warwick, grocer and provision dealer.
- William Wiltshire, late of the Alexandra Hotel, Alfred Street, innkeeper and soda-water manufacturer, but now of Railway Parade, both in Weston-super-Mare, out of business.
- Henry Jones Baker, of 143, Temple Street, and 1, Nelson Place, both in Clifton, Bristol, and residing at the Lawn, Fishponds, Gloucester, saddler and harness manufacturer.
- George Hall, of Wormald Green, York, farmer and horse dealer.
- John Whitwam, of Milnesbridge, near Huddersfield, York, flock merchant, trading under the style or firm of Charles Whitwam & Son, lately carrying on business under the said style with Charles Whitwam, deceased.
- Frederick Martin, of Kingston-upon-Hull, nurseryman and seedsman.
- Robert Martin, of and carrying on business at 199, Brownlow Hill, Liverpool, Lancaster, contractor and builder.
- James Chesworth, of 10, Geneva Road, Elm Park, Liverpool, Lancaster, and previously of 3, Salem View, Oxtou, Chester, estate agent, builder, and printer.
- Henry Halton, of Hyde, Chester, joiner and builder.
- William Johnson, formerly of Upperby, Cumberland, cattle salesman, then of Glasgow, Scotland, fletcher, and now of Kirk Andrew-on-Eden, Cumberland, cattle salesman and cattle dealer, carrying on the said businesses in copartnership with Robert Campbell of Whitehaugh, near Hawick, Scotland, and also with John Mattinson of Wigton, Cumberland.
- David Long, of Hunstanton, St Edmunds, Norfolk, carpenter and joiner.
- John Ganderton, of 90, Moseley Road, Birmingham, Warwick, fruiterer.
- Joseph Dutton, of 13, Guildford Street, Lozells, Birmingham, grocer and provision dealer, formerly of 1, Portland Terrace, Lozells, Aston, schoolmaster, and previously of 2, Belmont Alma Street, Lozells aforesaid, all in Warwick, commission agent and general dealer.
- William Dickinson, of North Collingham, Nottingham, boot and shoe maker.
- John Johnstone, of 7, Glebe Street, Leicester, commission agent.
- George Firn, formerly of 36, Nicholas Street, stone engraver, since of the Fountain Inn, Humberstone Gate, licensed victualler and dealer in tobacco, and now at 7, Gas Street, all in Leicester, journeyman stone engraver.
- James Bennell, late of Colchester, medical botanist, and now of Chelmsford, both in Essex, out of business.
- Robert Smith, now at Coaley, lately at Stroud, both in Gloucester, beerseller and eating-house keeper.
- Mary Williams Sandry, of Saint Austell, Cornwall, dealer in china and boots.
- Frederick Dunn, of the Whittington Inn, Whittington, Kinver, Stafford, innkeeper, and previously of the same place, innkeeper and farmer.
- Thomas Parton, of Stottesdon, Salop, machinist.
- Edward Ward, of Blackburn Road, Bolton, Lancaster, general broker and coal dealer.
- Stephen Pascoe, of Camborne, Cornwall, van proprietor, George Horton, of 170, High Street, Lincoln, hairdresser, perfumer, and dealer in tobacco, fancy goods, and toys.
- Robert Speed, of Fiskerton, Lincoln, farmer and butcher.
- Edwin Shargool, of Stafford, professor and teacher of music.
- James Foster, of Leeds, York, plasterer.
- Charles James Welch, of Wyndham Villa, Springbourne, Christchurch, Southampton, painter.
- William Jacob Saunders, of Ilford Bridges, Stocklinch Magdalen, Somerset, dairyman.
- Benjamin Carman, of Harwich, Essex, cabinetmaker, upholsterer, and paperhanger.
- Edwin Saywell, at William Street, late of Clifford Street, both in New Radford, previously at Wentworth Terrace, Forest Road, lace warper, and formerly of Raleigh Street, all in Nottingham, grocer and lace warper.
- George Wheeler, of Blackgang, Charll, Isle of Wight, Hants, common carrier.
- Joseph Parsons, of 20, Terminus Road, Brighton, Sussex, house and commission agent, sometime in partnership with John Westley Joughin, trading as Parsons & Company, and carrying on business as coal merchants at 64, Queen's Road, Brighton aforesaid.
- Edward Church, of Saint Giles Street, Norwich, draper and hatter, trading under the firm or style of the Coat Shirt Company.
- Daniel Wills, of Rowcliffe Lane, Penrith, Cumberland, potatoe and corn dealer.
- Jeremiah Suffling, of the Earl Grey public-house, High Street, Gorleston, Suffolk, licensed victualler, late fishing-boat owner and fisherman.
- John Thornhill, of Lagland Street, Poole, Dorset, fruiterer and fishmonger.
- Frederick William Schade, of Saint Ann's, Lewes, Sussex, trading as Schade, Kistermann, & Company, at 22, Fenchurch Street, London, and of Oak Lodge, Acre Lane, Brixton, Surrey, general merchant, a prisoner in the Gaol at Lewes, Sussex, (in formâ pauperis).
- Henry Raphael, formerly of 42, Leman Street, Whitechapel, Middlesex, commission agent, and late of Saint Ann's, Lewes, Sussex, a prisoner in the Gaol at Lewes, Sussex, (in formâ pauperis).
- William Thirkettle, formerly of 27, Queen's Gardens, Brighton, Sussex, afterwards at Copenhagen Street, Worcester, and late of 20, Mighell Street, Brighton aforesaid, assistant dentist, a prisoner in the Gaol at Lewes, Sussex, (in formâ pauperis).
- William Sussman, formerly of 2, Green Street, Cheapside, London, then of 33, Castle Street, Holborn, afterwards of 18, Saint Mary Axe, both in Middlesex, merchant, a prisoner in the Gaol at Lewes, Sussex, (in formâ pauperis).
- David Marks and Moses Marks, both of Saint Ann's, Lewes, Sussex, out of business, previously of 376, Edgware Road, Paddington, trading at David Marks & Son, and residing at 46, Clifton Gardens, Maida Vale, previously of 4, Woburn Square, all in Middlesex, general dealers, prisoners in the Gaol at Lewes, Sussex, (in formâ pauperis).
- Thomas Kerslake, of Ottery Saint Mary, Devon, licensed victualler and general merchant.