

by Drummond Street, and on the west by South Bridge Street; 2d, the lands and buildings bounded on the west by South Bridge Street, on the south by Infirmery Street, on the east by the lane called Robertson's Close, and on the north by a line parallel to, and distant at all points, thirty yards or thereabouts northward from the face of the buildings on the north side of and fronting Infirmery Street between South Bridge Street and Robertson's Close; 3d, the building called the New Jerusalem Church, or Infirmery Street Hall, bounded on the south by Infirmery Street, and on the west by Robertson's Close aforesaid; 4th, the building called the Phrenological Museum, and ground attached thereto, on the west side of the buildings on the west side of the street called the Pleasance, and lying between the property belonging to and occupied by the Corporation on the south, and the building and ground called Heriot's Schools on the north; and 5th, the buildings and ground extending from Drummond Street on the south to or near to the Cowgate on the north, lying between the said street called the Pleasance on the east, and the property belonging to and occupied by the Corporation and the building and ground fourth above described, and the said building and ground called Heriot's Schools on the west; all which lands and buildings are situate within Lady Yester's and West Kirk [otherwise Saint Cuthbert's] Parishes, and the Royal Burgh, City, County of the City, and County of Edinburgh.

The proposed diversion or alteration of Infirmery Street is intended to commence at a point about twenty yards northward from the centre of that street where it now joins South Bridge Street, and to terminate at a point in Infirmery Street, opposite or nearly opposite the south-west corner of Lady Yester's Church, and such diversion or alteration, together with the lands, houses, and other buildings which may be taken for the purposes thereof, and the existing site of the portions of Infirmery Street, South Niddry Street, Robertson's Close, and High School Yards, which may be appropriated as aforesaid, will be and are situate within the said Lady Yester's Parish and the Royal Burgh, City, County of the City, and County of Edinburgh.

It is intended by the said Bill to incorporate therewith all or some of the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860," and "The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," and also to amend "The Edinburgh Roads and Streets Act, 1862," "The Edinburgh Police Act, 1848," and "The Edinburgh Police Amendment Act, 1854."

It is also intended by the said Bill to take power to alter, divert, and stop up all such streets, lanes, passages, sewers, water and gas pipes, and telegraphic apparatus as it may be necessary or expedient to alter, divert, or stop up for or in connection with the purposes aforesaid, or any of them, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with the Corporation, and with the lands, houses, buildings, streets, lanes, and other property hereinbefore mentioned, and other rights and privileges, which might in any manner interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and to confer all powers, rights, and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting those objects or in relation thereto.

Plans describing the lands, houses, and other buildings and portions of streets and lanes intended to be taken or acquired and appropriated for the purposes aforesaid, and describing also the line or situation of the intended diversion or alteration of Infirmery Street, and the lands, houses, and other buildings in or through which such diversion or alteration is to be made, and within the limits of deviation intended to be applied for in respect thereto; and sections showing the intended levels of the said diversion or alteration, together with a Book of Reference to the said Plans, containing the names of the owners, or reputed owners, lessees, or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the said several lands, houses, and buildings; and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November 1868, be deposited for public inspection in the respective offices in Edinburgh of the Principal Sheriff Clerk for the County of Edinburgh, and of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of the City of Edinburgh, and of the Town-Clerk of the said Royal Burgh of Edinburgh; and also with the Schoolmaster, or, if there be no Schoolmaster, with the Session-Clerk of each of the said Parishes respectively, at the usual place of abode of such Schoolmaster or Session-Clerk.

Printed Copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 23d day of December next.
