IN PARLIAMENT—SESSION 1868-9.

FERGUSON BEQUEST FUND.

Repeal or Alteration of Existing Deeds; Incorporation of Trustees; Alteration and Regulation of the Purposes of the Trust; Vesting of Property in the Trustees as Incorporated; Management and Administration of the Trust; Power to Make Bye-Laws; Power to Purchase, Hold, and Sell Lands, and to Hold and Administer Property in Trust; Power to Purchase Site or Building, and other Purposes.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (herein called the Bill) to effect all or some of the purposes following (that is to say):—

1. To amend, repeal, or vary in whole or in part the Trust Disposition and Settlement, and Last Will and Testament, of the Deceased John Ferguson, of Cairnbrock (herein called the Truster), dated the Thirteenth day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Three, and Codicil or Deed of Instructions, dated the Twenty-Second day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Five; and Codicil, dated the Twenty-

Fifth day of September, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty-Five (all which Deeds are hereinafter called the Trust Deeds).

2. To incorporate the Trustees acting in virtue and under the terms of the Trust Deeds, or the survivors of them, together with the persons to be from time to time elected or assumed as Trustees, into a body corporate under the name and style of "The Ferguson Bequest Fund," or such other name and style as Parliament may determine (which Fund, and whole objects and purposes thereof, as authorised by the Trust Deeds and the Bill, are herein called the Trust); and to confer upon the Trustees so incorporated (herein called the Trustees), the power to sue, and be sued, to acquire, hold, and transfer Lands, Houses, and other Property, heritable and moveable, real and personal, together with all other rights and privileges of a corporate body.

3. To define, alter, vary, extend, and regulate the objects and purposes of the Trust, and the terms and provisions of the Trust Deeds.

4. To vest in the Trustees, for the purposes set forth in the Trust Deeds and the Bill, all Lands, Heritages, Property, Estate, and Effects, heritable or moveable, real or personal, of or belonging to, or held in trust for or for behoof of the Trust, or by or for the Trustees of the Truster, under or by virtue of the Trust Deeds, under whatever right or title; and to regulate and direct the management and application thereof.

5. To define and regulate the administration of the affairs of the Trust, the powers and duties of the Trustees, the election or assumption of Trustees from time to time, and the remuneration to be allowed to them; the investment of the moneys of the Trust; the calling and holding of Meetings, ordinary and special; the appointment, powers, duties, and remuneration of Officers, and the procedure in the business of the Trust; and to authorise and empower the Trustees, from time to time, to make, annul, modify, or alter Statutes, Bye-Laws, Rules, and Regulations for the aforesaid and all other purposes, in order to the due, proper, and effectual administration of the Trust, and the affairs thereof, in all respects whatsoever.

6. To enable the Trustees to purchase, acquire, and hold, for the purposes of the Trust, Lands and other Property; and to sell, exchange, and convey the same; and for the same purposes to acquire, accept, and hold property conveyed to them by any person, in terms of any conveyances, or of any agreement between such persons conveying and the Trustees; and to purchase and acquire a Building, or otherwise a Site, and to erect a Building thereon, for the transaction of the Business of the Trust; and sell and convey the same, and purchase or erect any other Building for the said purpose, and apply to such purpose such portion of the Moneys of the Trust as may be necessary.

The Bill will vary or extinguish all existing powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions which would in any manner interfere with the objects of the Bill, or the purposes of the Trust; and will confer all powers, rights, privileges, and exemptions which may be necessary or expedient for carrying the same into effect.

Dated this 5th day of November, 1868.

M. S. TAIT,
Superintendent to the Trustees of the said deceased
John Ferguson, Glasgow.
