COLONIAL OFFICE, DOWNING STREET,

June 23, 1869.

THE Queen having taken into Her Royal consideration the Statutes of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, bearing date the 31st day of January 1851, and made under the authority of the Letters-Patent passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bearing date the 31st day of December 1850, the operation of which Statutes had theretofore been limited to Natives of the then United States of the Ionian Islands, or of Malta, and to such other Persons as should be distinguished as therein mentioned, in connection with the said Islands, or with Malta, or with Her Majesty's Service in the Mediterranean, and being desirous of making such alterations in the said Statutes as will enable Her Majesty to reward such Natural-born Subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as may be persons of Conspicuous Merit, or may have rendered Important Services to the Crown within or in connection with any of Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions, has been graciously pleased, in pursuance and in exercise of the power vested in Her as Sovereign and Chief of the said Most Distinguished Order, to repeal the aforesaid Statutes.

And Her Majesty has been graciously pleased by certain Statutes bearing date the 4th day of December 1868, to ordain that the said Order shall thenceforth as theretofore be Styled and Designated in all Acts, Proceedings, and Pleadings, as the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George: And that it shall as theretofore consist of the Sovereign, a Grand Master, and Three several Classes of Knights Grand Cross, Knights Commanders, and Companions.

And to ordain that Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, Kings and Queens Regnant of this

United Kingdom, are, and for ever shall be Sovereigns and Chiefs of the said Order, and that a Prince of the Blood Royal, being a Descendant of His late Majesty King George the First, or such other Exalted Personage as Her Majesty, Her Heirs, and Successors, may thereafter appoint, shall hold and enjoy the Office of Grand Master of the Order, who shall be the First or Principal Knight Grand Cross of the same, and that Field-Marshal His Royal Highness George William Frederick Charles, Duke of Cambridge, K.G., Commander-in-Chief of the Forces, be Grand Master of the Order:—

And to ordain that the First Class or Knights Grand Cross shall not exceed Twenty-five in number: And that the Second Class or Knights Commanders shall not exceed Sixty in number: And that the Third Class or Companions shall not exceed One hundred in number, it being competent to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to appoint any Person actually holding the Office of Governor in any of Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions to be an Extra Member of either the First or the Second Classes until a vacancy therein should occur:

And to ordain that the Persons to be admitted into the Order shall be such Natural-born Subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as may have held or should thereafter hold High and Confidential Offices within any of Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions, or such other Natural-born Subjects of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as may have held or should thereafter hold High and Confidential Offices, or may render Extraordinary and Important Services to Her Majesty, as Sovereign of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in relation to any of Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions, or who may become eminently distinguished therein by their Talents, Merits, Virtues, Loyalty, or Services, or who then were or thereafter might be appointed Officers of the Order.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to ordain that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, by virtue of the powers to Her and Them reserved in and by the aforesaid Letters-patent, to increase the Numbers of any of the said Classes, and to assign a Place in any such Class to any Person whom Her Majesty might think fit to admit into the same.

And to ordain that the following Officers should be appointed to the Order:—A Secretary and Registrar, a King of Arms, and Officers of Arms attendant on the Order, of such number and resident in such places as Her Majesty from time to time might think fit to appoint; together with other matters set forth in the said Statutes.

Her Majesty has further been graciously pleased, in pursuance of the Statutes aforesaid, to make the following appointments to the said Order:

To be an Ordinary Member of the First Class or Knights Grand Cross of the said Order:—

The Right Honourable Viscount Monck, late Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, and Captain-General and Governor-in-Chief of the Island of Prince Edward.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,

June 28, 1869.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Law passed by the Parliament of the North German Confederation, imposing a stamp tax on bills of exchange; which will come into force on 1st January 1870.

This stamp tax will be reckoned at the standard of 30 thalers, with the subdivision into 30 groschen per thaler, and will be imposed as follows, according to the amount of the bill:—

	Sgr.
For the sum of 50 thalers or less ...	1
" 50 to 100 thalers ...	1½
" 100 to 200 " 	3
" 200 to 300 " 	4½

and so on for each further sum of 100 thalers—1½ silver groschen more, any portion of 100 thalers to be reckoned as a full 100.

The following are exempted from the stamp tax:—

1. Foreign bills drawn on foreign countries and only payable in foreign countries.
2. Home bills drawn on a foreign country, only payable in a foreign country and either at sight or at latest within ten days after the date of drawing, in the case where they are sent back direct to a Foreign country by the drawer.

For the payment of the tax to the Federal Treasury, all persons who take part in the circulation of the bill of exchange within the territory of the Confederation are jointly liable.
