

- John Smith, of 36, Robert Street, Chelsea, and 111, Drury Lane, both in Middlesex, late licensed victualler, now gentleman's servant.
- Charles Chapman, of 224, Edgware Road, Paddington, Middlesex, milliner.
- Richard Crafer, of 4, Davis's Terrace, North Street, Whitechapel, Middlesex, out of business, previously of 156, Tooley Street, Surrey, undertaker.
- William Burbidge, of the Kenley Hotel, Coulsden, near Croydon, Surrey, licenced victualler and trainer of race horses.
- Edward Frederick Gedge, of 1, Hadley Street, Kentish Town, pickle and sauce warehouseman, previously of 5, Elisha Villas, and 2, Haveland Villas, both in Acton, previously of 93, Graham Road, Dalston, and Rotherfield Street, Islington, commercial traveller, previously of Rufford's Buildings, Islington, pickle and sauce warehouseman, previously of Richmond Cottages, London Fields, Hackney, and Kingsland Road, Kingsland, and Downham Road, Islington, commercial traveller, and formerly of 7, Noel Street, Islington, all in Middlesex, clerk to a provision merchant.
- William Henry Langton, of 6, Grove Vale, East Dulwich, Surrey, and 7, Lothbury, London, clerk to a financial company.
- George Suckling, of Richmond Villa, Shakespear Road, late of Alfred Villa, Grove Road, both in Acton, Middlesex, builder.
- Thomas Bishop, of the Wheatsheaf Inn, Titchmarsh, near Thrapstone, Northampton, butcher and publican.
- John Bright, of 4, Compton Mews, Brunswick Square, cab driver, formerly of 9, Compton Mews aforesaid, both in Middlesex, cab proprietor.
- Richard Wallington Tilley, of 16, St George's Place, Knightsbridge, previously of 2, Pomona Place, King Street, West Hammersmith, both in Middlesex, commercial traveller.
- William Fletcher White, formerly of 3, Peel Terrace, Falkner Square, Liverpool, Lancaster, afterwards of 82, Upper Gloucester Place, Middlesex, then of 18, Midvale Road, Jersey, and now of 8, Bedford Street, Tottenham Court Road, Middlesex, late corn merchant, but now of no occupation.
- Thomas Brunt, of 6, Albert Terrace, Upper Holloway, commercial clerk, previously of 25, Twyford Street, Caledonian Road, both in Middlesex, grocer and provision dealer.
- Robert Whiting Butcher, of Amptill, Bedford, grocer.
- George Jenkins, of Clievley, near Newbury, Berks, smith.
- Matthew Corkett, late of Thornborough, but now of Nash, both in Buckingham, publican, and cattle, sheep, and pig dealer.
- Ebenezer Messum White, formerly of 12, Leslie Street, now of 9, Cross Street, Eastbourne, Sussex, joiner and builder.
- John Harriott, late of the Bull's Head, 101, Tottenham Court Road, licensed victualler, then of 5, High Street, Islington, out of business, and now of 79, Charlotte Street, Fitzroy Square, all in Middlesex, traveller to an ale brewer.
- Thomas Abbott Dyer, of 5, Gill Street, previously of 1, Jamaica Place, and 2, Shepherd's Terrace, all in Limehouse, Middlesex, carpenter, now a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, Whitecross Street, London, (in formâ pauperis).
- George Edward Hirst, of 39, Arlington Square, Islington, Middlesex, previously of 21, Martin's Lane, Cannon Street, London, and of the Square, Halifax, York, commission agent, now a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, Whitecross Street, London, (in formâ pauperis).
- Walter Reynolds Mitton, of 133, Franchise Street, Andover Road, Hornsey Road, Holloway, prior thereto of 23, Allen Road, Stoke Newington, and 24, Durham Road, Seven Sisters Road, all in Middlesex, marine store dealer, now a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, Whitecross Street, London, (in formâ pauperis).
- Sosthènes Henri Henrionnet, of 217, Euston Road, previously of 1, Charlotte Street, Middlesex Hospital, both in Middlesex, commission agent, a prisoner for debt in the Debtors' Prison for London and Middlesex, London, (in formâ pauperis).
- Joseph Marsh Blacklock, formerly of the King's Arms Hotel, then and now of Catherine Cottage, Pemberton Road, both in East Moulsey, Surrey, superannuated clerk in Her Majesty's War-Office.
- George Horne, of Dunstable and Luton, both in Bedford, straw plait dealer.
- Charles Adams, of Bromley, Kent, builder and beerhouse keeper.
- William Charles Fenn, of Bushey, formerly at the Railway Tavern, New Barnet, both in Hertford, licensed victualler, now out of business.
- Edward Corke, formerly of 27, Hanover Street, Gravesend, Kent, dissenting minister, and of 206, New Kent Road, Surrey, trading with Edward Perham Herbert and Henry William Dunn, under the style or firm of Herbert, Dunn, & Co., house and estate agents, then of 31, Thurston Road, Lewisham, Kent, carrying on business with Daniel Wright, under the style or firm of Corke & Wright, glass manufacturers, and now of 15, Holland Grove, Brixton, Surrey, in no occupation.
- Richard Hodgson, of 19, previously of 21, Goulbourne Road, Upper Westbourne Park, Middlesex, carpenter and builder, now a journeyman carpenter.
- Thomas Parnell Bailey, of 7, Park Road, Grosvenor Park, Camberwell, Surrey, grocer.
- Samuel Lenox, of 2, Creswick Row, Addington Row, Bow, Middlesex, and carrying on business at 10, Cullum Street, London, commission agent.
- John Corbett, of the Greyhound Hotel, Stockwell Street, Greenwich, Kent, licensed victualler.
- John Perrior, formerly of Wylie, then of Shrewton, both in Wilts, grocer and shoemaker, and now of 4, Clarendon Street, Clarendon Square, Middlesex, out of business.
- Henrique Borges de Castro, formerly carrying on business as a wine and spirit merchant at Villa Nova de Gaya, Oporto, afterwards carrying on business under the style and firm of Gurton & Company, at 17, Northumberland Street, Strand, and at 36, Crutched Friars, under the style of Borges de Castro & Company, and at 52 and 54, South John Street, Liverpool, under the style of the Wine Shippers' Association.
- James Ladd, of Queen's Road, Twickenham, Middlesex, painter and builder.
- Robert Clark, of 5, Crawford Street, and late of Brunel Street, trading with James Edward Hollow, both in Canning Town, Essex, builder.
- John Farmer, of Ironbridge, Salop, builder and cement manufacturer.
- John Wilford, of Victoria Crescent, Burton-on-Trent, Stafford, yeast merchant.
- Henry Harris, of Shipston-on-Stour, Worcester, corn and coal merchant, and commission agent, carrying on business there with Henry F. Walford, under the style or firm of Harris & Walford, coal merchants.
- Thomas Jordan Gittins, of Bridgnorth, Salop, tobacconist and hairdresser.
- Edwin Rowley and Thomas Whittingham, of North Road, Burslem, Stafford, builders and contractors.
- Edward Michelson, residing at 326, Pershore Road, Edgbaston, and carrying on business at 6, Upper Priory, Birmingham, both in Warwick, woollen, linen, and general warehouseman.
- Lewis Emanuel, at 98, Smallbrook Street, Birmingham, Warwick, pawnbroker's assistant.
- Charles Emanuel, at 98, Smallbrook Street, Birmingham, Warwick, pawnbroker's assistant.
- John Fairley, of 37, Chapel Fields, Coventry, watch manufacturer.
- Herbert Walter Platt, late of Manorbier, Pembroke, a prisoner for debt in the Gaol at Haverford west Castle.
- John Hutchins, of Sydenham Road, formerly of Carlton Villa, Redland Road, both in Bristol, out of business.
- William Heane, of Forest Lodge, Cinderford, Gloucester, surgeon.
- Henry Courteen, formerly of the Upper George Inn, Westgate Street, Gloucester, commercial traveller, publican, commission agent, and builder's foreman.
- Samuel Illingworth, of Hightown, York, schoolmaster.
- Thomas Birdsall, of Scarborough, milliner, and formerly of Brotherton, both in York, willow merchant.
- John Gilbank, of Raskelfe, York, farmer and potato merchant.
- Frederick William Jacomb, of Huddersfield, York, shareholder of Humber Iron Works Company, in liquidation, solicitor and attorney.
- Joseph Hardy, of Sheffield, York, tailor, outfitter, and general dealer.
- Robert William Morris, of 43, Nash Grove, Scotland Road, Liverpool, Lancaster, joiner, late a prisoner for debt in the Liverpool Borough Gaol at Walton, Lancaster.
- Robert Reed and Agnes Reed, of 3, Oxtou Road, Birkenhead, Chester, milliners, trading under the firm of Agnes Reed, the said Robert Reed also the manager of a public-house.
- George Ladmore, of 26, Nile Street, and also of 33, Cornhill, (late Mason Street,) both in Liverpool, Lancaster, shipwright and block maker.
- Francis Pearson, of Rosedale, York, butcher.