FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER—Feb. 24. 1801.

THIS day the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molineux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that the Lords, authorised by virtue of his Majesty's Commission for declaring his Royal assent to several acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commissions being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal assent to the said act, was read accordingly, and the Royal assent given to

An act to repeal an act made in the last session of Parliament, intituled an act to prevent, until the sixth day of November one thousand eight hundred and one, and from thence to the end of six weeks from the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the manufacturing of any fine flour from wheat or other grain, and the making of any bread solely from the fine flour of wheat; and to repeal an act passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of his present Majesty for permitting bakers to make and sell certain sorts of bread, and to make more effectual provision for the same; and to indemnify millers and other persons who have dressed, fold, or used any meal or flour of a finer description than allowed by the said act.

ADMIRALTY OFFICE—March 3, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Gardner, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels on the coast of Ireland, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated at Cork, the 22d ultimo.

SIR,

I HEREWITH enclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the copy of a letter which I received yesterday afternoon from Captain Twysden, of his Majesty's ship Revolutionnaire, giving an account of his having captured the Moucheron French brig privateer, belonging to Bourdeaux, mounting 16 guns, and 130 men.

I am, &c.

GARDNER.

[Price Sixpence.]

Revolutionnaire, at Sea, 16th Feb. 1801.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that early this morning, I captured the French brig privateer Moucheron, belonging to Bourdeaux, mounting sixteen guns, twelve and six pounders, and one hundred and thirty men, out twenty days from Passage, but had only made one capture, the William brig of London, from St Michael's, loaded with fruit.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THO. TWYSDEN.

Right Honourable Lord Gardner,
Admiral of the Blue, &c.

Extra of a Letter from the Hon. Captain Robert Stopford of his Majesty's ship Excellent, in Quiberon Bay, to Earl St Vincent, the 23d Feb. 1801.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint your Lordship, that on the night of the 20th inst. I sent the boats of the Excellent to endeavour to bring off a cutter and a sloop which were at anchor near the point of Quiberon; unfortunately, that same evening, after dark, a large chaffe mance with troops on board, going to the island of Belle-Isle, had taken her station close to the above vessels, the resistance which the boats met with was consequently much greater than there was at first reason to expect. This circumstance did not, however, prevent Lieutenant Church (having the command of the boats) from making the attack upon the chaffe mance, in which he gallantly persevered, till being wounded himself, and two men killed in his boat, he was obliged to retire; the other boats under the command of Messrs. Crawford and Manning, (midshipmen,) resolutely boarded and succeeded in bringing off the cutter called L'Arc, an armed vessel in the service of the Republic, commanded by an Ensigne de Vaisseau, and employed as convoy to and from Belle-Isle; this vessel had also on board a detachment of troops, who were made prisoners, and who made the vessel's force much superior to that of the assailants.

R. STOPFORD

Copy of a Letter from Mr Humphrey Gibson, Master of the Lord Nelson Private Ship of War, to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated Plymouth Sound, Feb. 28, 1801.

SIR,

Be pleased to inform the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 26th inst. at three P. M. being between the Isle of Wight and Portland, a lugger hove in sight to leeward, with a large sail in chase of her; conceiving I might cut her off, I instantly bore away in a direction for that purpose, and, after a chase of four hours, had the good fortune to effect it, and being about to board her, she struck her colours. On taking possession of her, I found her to be the Espoir lugger privateer, Monsieur Alexis Basset, Commander, mounting 14 carriage guns, with 75 men, had sailed only two days before from St Maloes, and had taken nothing. The sail in chase proved to be his Majesty's frigate L'Oiseau, Lord Augustus Fitzroy, Commander, which came up as we were exchanging prisoners. None killed or wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

HUMPHREY GIBSON.
