ADMIRALTY OFFICE, MARCH 31.

Copy of a Letter transmitted by Admiral LUTWIDGE.

SIR, Gannett, Downs, March 29.
 I beg leave to acquaint you, that yesterday, at half past eight P.M. I discovered with Durance, to which I immediately gave chase, and have the pleasure to inform you, that at half past eleven I came up with and captured her close in with the French shore: she proves to be La Vengeance French lugger, of ten three and four two-pounders, manned with forty-three men, commanded by Nicholas Saillard: she sailed from Boulogne on the same morning, and had not made any captures.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ISAAC COTGRAVE.

Secy. Lutwidge, Esq. &c. &c. &c.

NAVY OFFICE.

LONDON, March 24, 1801.

ALL MASTERS on the LIST of the NAVY unemployed, are directed to transmit to this Office, without loss of time, their names and places of abode; and such as consider themselves unfit for service, are to assign the causes, and to send in corroboration thereof, a certificate under the hands of a medical person practising in their neighbourhood, and two respectable inhabitants of the parish in which they reside.

In failure of the above, or on the testimony that shall be produced being held unsatisfactory by the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy, and such Masters should decline taking up any warrant of appointment made out for them, (whereof they will be duly informed), Notice is hereby given, that the Board will order their names to be struck off the List of the Navy.
