TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1870.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 8th day of November 1870.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Mr Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the thirtieth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869.

2. Article 11 of The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Order of August 1869, shall not apply to foot-and-mouth disease.

3. Where an Inspector finds foot-and-mouth disease to exist in his district, he shall, on the Saturday following, and on the Saturday of every week until the disease has disappeared from his district, make a return to the Local Authority and to the Privy Council, on forms, from time to time specially provided by the Privy Council for that purpose, and shall in such returns furnish all the particulars required by those forms.

KILMARNOCK MUNICIPAL EXTENSION AND IMPROVEMENT.

Extension of Municipal and Police Boundaries of the Burgh of Kilmarnock; Abolition of Commissioners of Police and of Town Improvement Trustees of said Burgh and Town; Transfer of their Jurisdiction and Property to the Corporation; Extension of Jurisdiction of Corporation over Extended Burgh; Alteration of Constitution of Corporation, and of existing Wards for Election of Councillors; Constitution of a Dean of Guild Court; Disjunction of Lands annexed to Burgh from County and Parishes; Provisions as to Municipal Government, Police, and Sanitary Matters; Powers to Amend or Repeal and Consolidate Acts relating to Burgh, &c., and also certain General Acts and certain Resolutions of said Commissioners; New Streets and Improvement of existing Streets; Power for better supplying with Gas and Water the Burgh, &c.; Power to acquire Kilmarnock Gas-Light Company and Kilmarnock Water Company; Dissolution of those Companies; New Water Works; Power to acquire and form Reservoirs for Sanitary and other Purposes; Power to acquire Land for the Formation of a Public Park, and to maintain the same; Extension of power to Levy and to Alter existing Tolls, Rates, Duties, &c.; Power to levy Tolls, Rates, Duties, and Assessments over extended Burgh; and other Purposes.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, by the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burgh of Kilmarnock (herein referred to as the Corporation), and by the Commissioners of Police for the Burgh of Kilmarnock (herein referred to as the Commissioners), for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following powers and purposes (that is to say):—

To extend and define for Municipal and Police, and all or some other purposes (except the Election of Members of Parliament) the limits of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, as the same is at present defined for Police purposes by the Local Act 10 and 11 Victoriae, cap. 207, and by the General Acts 2 and 3 William IV, cap. 65, and 3 and 4 William IV, cap. 77, and to constitute all lands within the extended limits, part of the extended burgh.

The limits of the burgh when extended as proposed (herein called the extended burgh)—the description thereof being subject to the rules of construction laid down in said Act 2 and 3 William IV, cap. 65, sec. 5—will include all the lands and district embraced by the following boundary, (that is to say): From the point, on the south of the Town of Kilmarnock, at which the Kilmarnock Water joins the River Irvine, in a straight line, to a point on the Irvine Road, where the Road to Loanfoot Farm House leaves the same; thence in a straight line to the point at which the Road to Hillhead leaves the Kilmaurs Road; thence in a straight line to a point on the Glasgow Road, where the Road to South and North Knockinlaw leaves the same; thence in a straight line to a point on the Kilmarnock Water, which is distant 75 yards northwards from the point where the Road from Beansburn to Darkpath Toll crosses the Kilmarnock Water; thence in a straight line to the Bridge over the Mill Burn on the Mauchline Road; thence down the Mill Burn to the point at which the same joins the River Irvine; thence in a straight line to the Bellsland Bridge on the Road from Riccarton to Galston; thence in a straight line to the point called With Knowe, at which two Roads meet; thence in a straight line to the Bridge over the Maxholm Burn, on the Ayr Road; thence down the Maxholm Burn to the point at which the same joins the River Irvine; thence down the River Irvine to the point first described, at which the Kilmarnock Water joins the River Irvine.

To abolish the Commissioners of Police of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, whether elected, or nominated ex officio, and the jurisdiction belonging to them, and also to abolish the Trustees nominated or elected under the Acts (local and personal), 42 George III, c. 48, and 53 George III, c. 8 (herein called the Town Improvement Trustees), and to transfer to the Corporation and Magistrates respectively, all the powers and jurisdiction of Police, paving, lighting, watching, and others, now vested in the Commissioners, and to provide that all such powers and jurisdiction shall be vested in and be exercised by the Corporation and by the Magistrates over the extended Burgh; and to transfer to the Corporation all the powers and authorities of the Town Improvement Trustees, and to transfer to, and vest in, the Corporation, subject to all liabilities attaching to the same, all funds, cash, and effects, and all lands, houses, and estates, and property, and all rights and privileges belonging to the Commissioners as Commissioners, or belonging to the Town Improvement Trustees as Trustees, and to substitute in place of the Commissioners, and of the Town Improvement Trustees, the Corporation; and to enable the Corporation to levy the pontage or other dues presently leviable by the Town Improvement Trustees, or to abolish these dues.

To extend all existing municipal franchises, and privileges, and immunities, over the extended Burgh, and also to extend and make co-extensive with the extended Burgh the whole powers, jurisdiction, authorities, and functions whatsoever, of the Corporation and of the Magistrates respectively, presently vested in and exercised by them, or vested in and exercised by the Commissioners, or by the Town Improvement Trustees, or which shall be transferred to, or conferred on them by the Bill, and also the jurisdiction and powers of the Dean of Guild Court, and of the Dean of Guild or other similar authority, to be constituted and elected under the powers of the Bill, and also the powers and authorities of all persons holding or hereafter to hold offices under the Corporation or the Magistrates or the Dean of Guild; and to enable the Corporation or Magistrates to act by themselves respectively or jointly with others so authorised to do as Trustees, Commissioners, or Managers of or in respect of any Trust undertakings or charities, in the same manner that they as now constituted have powers to act or as the Bill may define.

To alter the constitution of the present Corporation of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, and to increase and fix for the future the number of the Magistrates and Town Councillors of the extended Burgh, and to make provision for their qualification and election, and as to the qualification, registration, and voting of electors in the extended Burgh; and for the making of a Register of Electors for municipal purposes within the extended Burgh separate from or in addition to the Register used for the election of Members of Parliament for the Burgh of Kilmarnock; and also to provide for the election of officers under the Corporation for carrying out the objects of the Bill, or any of them.

To provide for the constitution of a Dean of Guild Court, and for the election of a Dean of Guild, or other similar authority, by the Corporation or otherwise, and to confer on such Dean of Guild, or other authority, the usual powers exercised by Deans of Guild in Royal Burghs in Scotland, and such other powers and jurisdiction within the extended Burgh as will be defined by the Bill.

To alter the present divisions of the Burgh of Kilmarnock into Wards, for municipal and police purposes, and the boundaries thereof, and to make and constitute new Wards within the Burgh and extended Burgh, and to divide the Burgh as extended, into Wards, as the same shall be defined by the Bill.

To disjoin from the county of Ayr, and from any parish, or from any local Board, the lands and district which are at present situated beyond the limits of the burgh, as at present defined, for Municipal or Police purposes, and which will be included within the extended limits, so far as necessary in reference to municipal and police purposes, and the other purposes of the Bill (but except as regards the election of Members of Parliament), and to exempt such lands from any County or Parochial debts or rates, and from any rate or assessment for any purpose, for which a similar rate or assessment is authorised to be levied by the Corporation within the extended Burgh, and to make all necessary provisions with that end.

To confer on the Magistrates of the extended Burgh the exclusive right and power to grant certificates for enabling parties to obtain Licenses for the sale of exciseable Liquors within the extended Burgh under the Public General Acts passed in the 9th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 58; and in the 16th and 17th years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter 67; and in the 25th and 26th years of Her present Majesty, chapter 35; and to provide for appeals under the said Acts to the Quarter Sessions of the Justices of the Peace of the County of Ayr, or in such other way as shall be provided by the Bill; and also to grant to the Corporation the power by themselves and their Inspectors to put into force within the extended Burgh the Public General Acts in regard to Weights and Measures, passed in the 5th year of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter 74; and in the 6th year of said reign, chapter 12; and the Acts 5th and 6th of William the Fourth, chapter 63; 16 and 17 Vic., cap. 29; 22 and 23 Vic., cap. 56; and 29 and 30 Vic., cap. 82; and to constitute the Corporation the authority for enforcing the provisions of any other Public Act, within the extended Burgh, in lieu of the Commissioners or other authority.

To constitute, and if expedient, to incorporate the Corporation as a Board of Commissioners or Trustees, for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and for carrying the purposes of the same into execution, and to define their powers, rights, and duties, and to enable the Corporation to appoint Committees under them, and to delegate to such Committees the necessary powers for carrying out any matters which the Corporation may think expedient.

To make provision, with respect to the better draining, cleansing, paving, watching, lighting, supplying with water, and for scouring and cleansing the bed of the Kilmarnock Water where it passes through the town of Kilmarnock, and otherwise improving the extended Burgh, and preserving and protecting the health of the inhabitants thereof, and others, and for the definition, prevention, and punishment of offences.

To amend, enlarge, and extend, and make applicable to the Burgh of Kilmarnock, as the same is intended to be extended and governed by the Bill, the powers and provisions of the following Acts, or some of them, or some parts thereof, relating to the Burgh of Kilmarnock, or, if need be, to repeal the said Acts, or some of them, or some parts thereof, and to re-enact and consolidate, with such amendments as may be necessary, such of the provisions thereof as shall be deemed necessary, expedient, or useful, and to provide that the same shall be applicable to the Burgh of Kilmarnock, as the same is to be extended and governed under the provisions of the intended Bill (that is to say), The Act, 42 Geo. III., cap. 48; The Act, 53 Geo. III., cap. 8; The Act, 10 & 11 Victoriae, cap. 207, entitled, "An Act for amending the Acts relating to the Police and Improvement of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, and for other purposes in relation thereto;" The Act 10 & 11 Victoriae, cap. 213, entitled, "An Act for repairing and keeping in repair the Turnpike Roads in the County of Ayr; for making and maintaining new Roads, and altering and improving existing Roads; for rendering Turnpike certain Parish Roads; and for regulating the Statute Labour and Bridge Money in said County;" and also, if need be, to repeal, amend, or alter any of the provisions of the following or some of the following Public General Acts, viz. :—The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862; The Act of the 3rd and 4th William IV, cap. 77; The Act of the 4th and 5th year of the said reign, cap. 86; and the Acts 15th and 16th Victoriae, cap. 32; 16th and 17th Victoriae, cap. 26; 31st and 32d Victoriae, cap. 108, and "The Registration Acts," as therein defined; and the 33rd and 34th Victoriae, cap. 92; and also to annul and set aside, or modify and alter, the division of the Burgh of Kilmarnock into Wards, made under the powers of the said Act, 31st and 32d Victoriae, cap. 108; and to annul, if deemed expedient, any resolution or procedure adopting any of the provisions of the General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862.

To empower the Corporation to make the following new streets, and to effect the widening, alteration, and improvement of streets after-mentioned, or some of them, or some part of them, with all proper works and conveniences connected therewith, viz. :—

1. A new street commencing at the eastern end of the street now in course of formation called Woodstock Street, at a point 141 yards or thereby eastwards from the junction of Woodstock Street with North Hamilton Street, and terminating by a junction with John Finnie Street, at a point 57 yards or thereby northwards from the crossing of John Finnie Street and Nelson Street.

2. A street altering and widening and improving the existing street called Strand Street, commencing at a point 29 yards or thereby northwards from the junction of Strand Street with Croft Street, and terminating by a junction with Cheapside Street, at a point 14 yards or thereby north eastwards from the south east corner of the Low Church Steeple.

3. A street commencing in Grange Street, at a point 6 yards or thereby southwards from the junction of said street with Park Street, and terminating by a junction with street No. 2, above mentioned, at a point 45 yards or thereby northwards from the junction of said Street No. 2 with Cheapside Street.

4. A street altering and widening and improving the existing street or lane called College Wynd, commencing at the junction of said wynd with Low Church Lane, and terminating by a junction with Bank Street, at the present junction of said wynd with Bank Street.

5. A street commencing by a junction with St. Andrew's Street, otherwise known as Kirktonholm Road, at a point 14 yards or thereby south eastwards from the crossing of the said last mentioned street by the Gallion Burn, and terminating by a junction with Bentinck Street, at the present junction of Bentinck Street with East Netherton Street.

6. A street commencing by a junction with the south-end or termination of the street forming the prolongation southwards of that part of Bentinck Street which runs from north to south, and terminating by a junction with East Shaw Street, at a point 130 yards or thereby eastwards from the junction of East Shaw Street with the east side of Glencairn Square.

7. A street commencing at the junction of Green Street with Waterloo Street, crossing the Kilmarnock Water there, and terminating by a junction with the north-end or present termination of the street forming the prolongation of that part of Clark Street, which runs from north to south.

8. To shut up and appropriate that part of St. Andrew's Street or Kirktonholm Road lying to the eastward side of said new street, No. 5 above described; and also to shut up and appropriate all other Streets, Roads, Wynds, Closes, Passages, Stairs, Courts, Yards, and Thoroughfares which now run or lead into through or across any part or parts of the lands to be acquired for the said streets, alterations, widenings, and improvements, or in connection therewith, and situated within the parish next hereinafter mentioned.

The said intended streets, alterations, widenings, and other improvements, and works, and the lands, houses, and property which will or may be taken under the powers of the Bill for such purposes, and the streets or others to be shut up, are or will be situated in or pass from, through, or into the parish of Kilmarnock, and will be within the town of Kilmarnock, in the county of Ayr.

To enable the Corporation to purchase compulsorily, or otherwise, lands, houses, and other property for the purposes of the said intended new streets, alterations, widenings, and other improvements, and for the erection of houses and buildings in the line of or adjoining or near such new streets, alterations, widenings, and other improvements, or other works, within the said parish.

To authorise, in connection with the aforesaid new streets, alterations, widenings, and improvements, and as part of the works, and within the parish aforesaid, the making and maintaining junctions and communications with any existing streets and thoroughfares which may be intersected or interfered with, or be contiguous to the lines of the intended new streets, alterations, widenings, and improvements, or any of them.

To authorise the Corporation to sell and dispose of, or to pull down, all or any of the houses and buildings on the lands to be purchased, taken, or acquired by them, in connection with the said streets, alterations, widenings, and improvements, and other works; and to re-arrange and lay out the ground or solum when so cleared, and to authorise the Corporation to erect houses and buildings in the line of, and adjoining the said new and improved Streets, and to let or lease the said houses and buildings when erected, or to sell and dispose thereof, at such rents, duties, ground annuals, prices or considerations, as they may think fit, or to sell and dispose of such lands in such lot or lots as they may think proper, either by way of absolute sale, or by way of feu, lease in perpetuity, ground annual, or otherwise; and all proper and suitable provisions will be made in regard to the removal of persons occupying the houses to be taken down.

To vest in the Corporation for the purposes of the Bill, the lands, houses, and other property so to be purchased, taken, or acquired, and also to vest in the Corporation the solum of the various new streets, and widened, altered, and improved streets to be made under the Bill.

To authorise the erection, maintenance, and regulation of houses, wash-houses, and other buildings for the residence, or occupation, or use of workmen, artizans, and other labouring classes, and to empower the Corporation to let the same on such terms and conditions, or to sell and dispose of the same when built for such prices or considerations as they may think fit.

To make provision for the repair, maintenance, sewerage, regulation, and lighting of the new streets, alterations, widenings, and improvements and other matters connected therewith, and to authorise that the same may be maintained by the Corporation as public streets, and to authorise the Corporation to apply to such purposes any rates or assessments now leviable by them, or by the Commissioners, or any rates to be levied under the powers of the Bill, for the maintenance and repair of streets within the Burgh, and to provide that the said new streets may be maintained in manner provided by the recited Act 10 and 11 Viet., cap. 207, with reference to streets, squares, and other thoroughfares within the Burgh, or otherwise as may be fixed by Parliament.

To authorise the Corporation to take and purchase by compulsion or agreement the undertakings or either of them of the Kilmarnock Gas Light Company and of the Kilmarnock Water Company, including their respective works, lands, property, effects, estates, pipes, plant, apparatus, rights, powers, and privileges, now belonging to them, or which they are authorised to purchase, hold, or construct, or which may be vested in them under or by virtue of any Act of Parliament or otherwise, and to authorise the said Companies, or either of them, to sell to the Corporation their undertakings, and to prescribe the mode of settling by arbitration or otherwise the purchase money or compensation, and to vest the said undertakings to be taken or purchased in the Corporation, and to enable the Corporation, to hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities which now are or at any time hereafter may be vested in, used, or enjoyed by the said respective Companies in relation to their respective undertakings or either of them so taken or purchased.

To confirm any agreements between the Corporation or the Commissioners and the said Kilmarnock Gas Light Company and the Kilmarnock Water Company or either of them for the purchase of their respective undertakings by way of immediate payment, rent-charge, permanent or terminable annuities or otherwise, and to confirm any agreement which previously to the passing of the intended Bill may be made, touching the acquiring of the said undertakings or either of them.

To alter, amend, or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the Acts (local and personal) following, viz., "The Kilmarnock Gas Light Act, 1855, and "The Kilmarnock Water Company's Act, 1866," and any other Act relating to these Companies or either of them, and to dissolve both or either of the said Companies whose undertakings are taken compulsorily or purchased under the powers of the Bill, and power will be taken for the winding up of the affairs of both or either of the said Companies to be dissolved.

To make provision for the management of the undertakings of the said Gas and Water Companies or either of them when vested in the Corporation, and the revenues arising therefrom, and if deemed expedient, to keep these undertakings, and the accounts thereof, together or separate from each other and from the other obligations and property of the Corporation, and to provide for the application of the revenues arising to the Corporation from the supply of gas and water.

To authorize the Corporation to alter and improve and maintain and use the Gas Works to be acquired as aforesaid, and to manufacture Gas and the several matters producible from the residual products arising from the manufacture of Gas, and to acquire and hold letters-patent relating to Gas, and generally to carry on the operations and works which are carried on by Corporations or Companies who manufacture and supply Gas for public and private lighting; and to supply Gas for lighting the public and other streets, thoroughfares, and places, and to supply and sell Gas to the inhabitants and occupiers of property, within the limits of the extended Burgh, and within the limits of the said "Kilmarnock Gas Light Act, 1855," which are by said Act defined to be the Town of Kilmarnock and the Parishes of Kilmarnock and Riccarton, and places therein, all in the County of Ayr, and also in the Parish of Kilmaurs, in said County, or within such other limits as shall be prescribed by the Bill, and to manufacture, supply, hire, sell, and let gas meters, fittings, and gas apparatus.

To provide that the owners and occupiers, or one or other of them, of all houses having common passages or stairs, or of tenements of houses situated in or around private alleys or courts, within the extended Burgh, shall keep such passages or stairs, alleys or courts, sufficiently lighted with gas at their own expense.

To enable the Corporation, for and in relation to the supply of gas for public purposes, to levy rates and assessments from the owners and occupiers, or one or other of them, of lands, houses, and heritages, situated within the limits of the extended Burgh, and also to levy rates, rents, and charges for the sale and supply of gas, gas meters, fittings, and apparatus, to be supplied within the limits of the Bill, for gas to those who desire the same, and to levy, or to alter or repeal the rates, and charges now authorised to be taken by the said Gas Light Company.

To empower the Corporation to make and maintain the following works, or some of them, in addition to the works to be taken or acquired by them from the Kilmarnock Water Company, for the purpose of better supplying Water for domestic and all other purposes within the extended Burgh, and within the powers of the Bill, and for affording compensation to any party entitled to the same, (that is to say) :—

1. A Reservoir situated partly on the farm of North Craig and partly on the farm of Tannahill, adjoining to and on the west side of the existing Reservoir of the Kilmarnock Water Company, called the North Craig Reservoir, the embankment on the west side of which Reservoir last above mentioned will form the east side of the intended New Reservoir, and which intended Reservoir will extend westwards from the said existing Reservoir to near the boundary between the parishes of Kilmaurs and Kilmarnock.

2. A Conduit or Main Pipe commencing by a junction with the present supply pipe leading from the Kilmarnock Water Company's Gainford Reservoir to the said North Craig Reservoir, at a point near to where the said pipe enters the said North Craig Reservoir, and running westwards along or near to the northern side of the said last mentioned Reservoir, and terminating in or near the north-east corner of the said intended Reservoir.

3. A Main Pipe or Conduit commencing in the said intended Reservoir at the lower or south end thereof, and running eastwards along the south side of the said North Craig Reservoir, and terminating in the existing Sluice House situated between the said North Craig Reservoir and the Distributing Basin adjoining the said North Craig Reservoir.

4. A Conduit or Main Pipe commencing in the said Distributing Basin at the lower or southern end thereof and terminating at or near the George Hotel in the Town of Kilmarnock.

5. To enlarge the existing North Craig Reservoir of the Kilmarnock Water Company by raising the existing embankments and water level thereof.

Which said intended New Reservoir, enlargement of Existing Reservoir, and several other works last above described, together with all necessary rights of access to the works, embankments, dams, weirs, sluices, and other works, and conveniences to be connected therewith, will be situated in the Parish, and partly in the Town of Kilmarnock, and wholly in the County of Ayr.

To enable the Corporation for the purpose of better supplying water for domestic and other uses aforesaid, farther, to impound and store up in the said New and enlarged Reservoirs and works, the following streams, and the springs, feeders, and tributaries thereof, (which streams are at present either diverted and stored up, or authorised to be diverted and stored up, by the said existing Gainford Reservoir, and other works of the Kilmarnock Water Company), viz. : Balgray or Dinna Burn, the Oldhall Burn, and the Haghous or Gairdum or Gairdrum Mill Burn, and the springs, streams, and water arising in or flowing through the lands of Oldhall, High Gainford, and Highburn, all in the Parish of Fenwick, or some of them; which stream called Oldhall Burn, flows into the said Balgray or Dinna Burn, which joins the said Haghous or Gairdum or Gairdrum

Mill Burn near Rowallan Castle, forming at that point the Carmel Water, which falls into the River Irvine, at a point near to the village of Dreghorn, and which River Irvine falls into the sea, at or near the Town of Irvine, all in the County of Ayr.

To enable the Corporation to maintain and use the existing pipes and works of the said Kilmarnock Water Company, and to lay new and additional pipes, and make and maintain such additional works as may be necessary for the distribution of the supply of water to be afforded under the Bill.

To make provision for regulating the supply, means of supply and use, and for preventing the waste, contamination, and misuse of water, and providing for the due strength and regulation of the supply pipes, cisterns, and apparatus, and for the construction of Public Fountains and discontinuance of existing Public Wells, or some of them.

To ensure to every house or part of a house separately occupied, within the limits of the compulsory supply of water of the Corporation, a proper supply of water, and to require the owners and occupiers of all such houses to procure such supply at their own expense.

To define the area of supply of water by the Corporation, which area shall include and comprehend as follows (that is to say):—The Municipal and Police Boundaries of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, as the same shall be extended by the Bill, and all places and districts within said Boundaries, and also all places within the limits of supply of water by the Kilmarnock Water Company, which include the town of Kilmarnock and the suburbs thereof and places adjacent within the parishes of Kilmarnock and Riccarton, in the county of Ayr, and farther all places within the parish of Kilmarnock, in said county, or such lesser area as shall be fixed by Parliament, and to define to what portion of the said whole area the supply shall be compulsory, and to what portion of the same the supply shall be conditional or voluntary and by agreement: and the Corporation will be empowered within such area to supply water for domestic and all other purposes, including the extinction of fires, and for public wells, fountains, baths, and wash-houses, and for cleansing and flushing streets, squares, lanes, and closes, sewers and drains, and for manufacturing, and all police, public, and sanitary purposes. And power will be conferred on the Corporation to enter into such agreements for supply of water to such places and districts beyond the said area of supply, but in the vicinity, as may desire a supply, for such price, or other consideration, and on such conditions as may be agreed on.

To empower the Corporation for the purpose of providing water for scouring and cleansing the bed or channel of the Kilmarnock Water, where it passes through, and near to the Burgh and Town of Kilmarnock, to acquire, make, and maintain the following works, or some of them, (that is to say):—

1. To acquire compulsorily or by agreement the embankments and solum of the Reservoir formerly occupied by the Kilmarnock Reservoir Company—called the Lochgoyn or Blackwoodhill Reservoir (herein referred to as the Lochgoyn Reservoir), and to raise the existing embankments and water level thereof, and to maintain the said Reservoir with all necessary rights of access, embankments, sluices, weirs, bye-washes, catch-water drains, and other works and conveniences connected therewith; which Reservoir is situated on the Loch Burn on the farms of Lochgoyn and Blackwoodhill.

2. To acquire and maintain the existing open feeder or cut on the east side of the southern embankment, as formerly used for supplying the said Lochgoyn Reservoir with water, and to widen and deepen the same, which feeder or cut commences at or near the east end of the southern embankment of the said Reservoir, and terminates 1400 yards or thereabouts, south-eastwards from the said Reservoir.

3. An extension of the said feeder or cut, commencing at the said termination thereof, and proceeding south-eastwards for a distance of 1260 yards or thereabouts, and terminating in the Birk or Myers Burn.

4. At the termination of the feeder last mentioned, to make and construct a weir on the said Birk or Myers Burn for the purpose of diverting the water into the said feeder.

5. To acquire, raise, widen, and maintain the existing Byewash situated near to the east end of the southern embankment of the said Lochgoyn Reservoir; which Byewash commences at or near the east end of said embankment, and terminates in the Loch Burn about 75 yards southwards from the said embankment.

6. To acquire and maintain the existing open feeder, commencing at or near the west end of the southern embankment of Lochgoyn Reservoir and proceeding in a south-westerly direction, and terminating at a distance of about 335 yards therefrom.

Which said Lochgoyn Reservoir, and several works to be acquired, made, and maintained, last above described, together with all necessary embankments, dams, weirs, sluices, bye-washes, and other works and conveniences in connection therewith, are and will be situated in the parishes following, or one of them (that is to say), in the parish of Eaglesham in the county of Renfrew, and in the parish of Fenwick in the county of Ayr.

7. To make and maintain a Reservoir to be situated over the site of the Dean Quarry (herein called the Dean Quarry Reservoir), near to Dean Castle, on the north-east side of the town of Kilmarnock, by the formation of an embankment along the south and south-east margin of the said Quarry, or part thereof, by means of which the Quarry, and certain Lands and Buildings in and adjoining the said Quarry, on the margin thereof, will be submerged, with all necessary embankments, dams, weirs, sluices, tunnels, and other works and conveniences in connection therewith.

8. A Tunnel or cut commencing in the Borland Water at a point therein situated about 220 yards above the Bridge over the Borland Water, on the road leading from Dean Castle to the said Dean Quarry, and terminating in the said Dean Quarry Reservoir on the west side thereof.

9. A Tunnel for the purpose of carrying the water from the Craufurdland Branch of the Kilmarnock Water into the said Dean Quarry Reservoir, commencing in the said Craufurdland Branch of the Kilmarnock Water at a point thereon near the west end of Assloss Garden, and terminating in the east side of the said intended Dean Quarry Reservoir.

10. An intercepting Weir on the said Craufurdland Branch of the Kilmarnock Water, to be situated at or near the commencement of the said intended tunnel last described.

11. An Outlet Tunnel for the purpose of discharging the water of the said intended Dean Quarry Reservoir into the Borland Water, commencing at the south end of the said intended Reservoir near the said Bridge over the Borland Water, and terminating in the Borland Water at or near its junction with the said Craufurdland Branch of the Kilmarnock Water.

12. A Footpath for the purpose of affording access to the sluices and weir and other works described, to be executed on the said Craufurdland Branch of the Kilmarnock Water; which footpath will commence at a point situated on the occupation road leading from the road between Assloss Bridge and Craufurdland Road, and which point is situated 110 yards or thereabouts from said last mentioned road, and will terminate at or near said sluices and weir.

Which said Dean Quarry Reservoir and several other works last above described, together with all embankments, dams, weirs, sluices, tunnels, cuts, footpaths, and other works and rights of access to the intended works and other conveniences in connection therewith, will be situated in the parish of Kilmarnock and County of Ayr.

In and by means of the said Lochgoyn and Dean Quarry Reservoirs and the several works in connection therewith it is intended to divert, impound, store up, and use the water of the following streams, and the springs, feeders, and tributaries thereof, or some of them, viz. :—The Loch Burn, Birk or Myers Burn, Maiden Mire Burn, Wild Cut Gill Burn, Dunton Water, Hairshaw Water, Craufurdland Water, and Borland Water, and by means of such intended reservoirs and works in connection therewith to use the water so stored up for the purpose of flushing and cleansing the bed or channel of the Kilmarnock Water where it passes through and near to the Burgh of Kilmarnock, by creating a flow of water along the bed of the Kilmarnock Water: All which streams to be so stored up and used flow directly or derivatively into the Kilmarnock Water, which flows into the said river Irvine near to and below the Town of Kilmarnock.

To enable the Corporation to levy public water rates for the supply of water for public purposes, and also domestic water rates for the supply of water for domestic purposes, from the owners and occupiers, or either of them, of all lands, houses, and heritages within the extended Burgh, and within the area of compulsory supply for water to be defined by the Bill, and also to levy rates, rents, and charges for the supply of water for any purpose or for the use of meters, and to enable the Corporation to levy the existing rates, rents, and charges authorised to be levied by the Kilmarnock Water Company, or to repeal these rates, rents, and charges, and to levy new or increased rates if deemed necessary in lieu thereof.

To empower the Corporation and the Trustees acting under the Trust Disposition and Deed of Settlement of the late Alexander Kay, Insurance Broker, Glasgow, dated 5th February, 1864, and Codicil annexed thereto, dated 1st November, 1864 (herein called Kay's Trustees), jointly or separately to acquire by agreement lands and other property within or in the neighbourhood of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, for the purpose of making and maintaining a Park for the use and recreation of the Inhabitants of the Burgh, and to empower the owners of and other parties interested in such lands and property, whether under legal disability or having only limited interests in such lands and property or not, to dispose of and convey such lands and property to the Corporation and Kay's Trustees, or either of them, or other permanent Trustees or Guardians herein-after mentioned, absolutely or by way of feu, lease in perpetuity, or otherwise, at such price and subject to such feu-duty, ground annual or rent, or for such other consideration as may be agreed upon.

To confirm any agreements made or to be made between Kay's Trustees and the Corporation, or the Commissioners, or any of them, and such owners as aforesaid, in reference to the granting of land for a Park, by way of feu, lease, sale, or otherwise, within or in the neighbourhood of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, and to grant all necessary powers for carrying the same into effect.

To appoint permanent Trustees or Guardians in whom the Park to be formed shall be vested in terms of the said Trust Disposition and Settlement, or as shall be provided by the Bill, and, if thought proper, to incorporate such permanent Trustees or Guardians, and to confer on them powers to sue and be sued, to take hold and dispose of lands, and other powers of a Corporate body, and to confer on them all necessary powers for the maintenance and government of the Park, and to enable the Corporation and Kay's Trustees, or either of them, to convey or to require the conveyance of the lands and property acquired by them for the purposes of the said Park, to such permanent Trustees or Guardians, and to give to the permanent Trustees or Guardians so appointed or incorporated all the powers, rights, and privileges which are by the said Trust Disposition and Settlement conferred on the permanent Trustees or Guardians therein appointed to hold the said Park, or some of them, with such other or further powers as may be thought expedient, or as may be provided in the said Bill, and to enable the permanent Trustees or Guardians appointed or incorporated by the Bill to grant feus or leases of portions of the lands so conveyed to them, and to apply the feu-duties or rents arising therefrom to the purposes of laying out, maintaining, or enlarging the said Park.

To provide for the application of the sums of money left by the said Alexander Kay, either alone or in conjunction with monies to be provided by the Corporation, for the purchase, laying out, and maintenance of a Public Park for Kilmarnock, and, if need be, to alter and change and enlarge the conditions of the Trust Disposition and Settlement of the said Alexander Kay, and to make other provisions for carrying out the purchase, laying out, and maintenance of a Park, and grant all necessary powers for that end.

To enable the Corporation to raise and contribute money for the purpose of acquiring land for a Park for the use and recreation of the inhabitants of the Burgh of Kilmarnock, in conjunction with Kay's Trustees or otherwise, and to contribute towards the laying out and maintenance of the same from the rates to be raised for that and other purposes, and to confirm and carry out any agreement made or to be made between the Corporation and Kay's Trustees as to the acquiring, laying out, and maintaining the said Park, or otherwise in relation thereto.

To authorise deviations from the lines and levels of the intended new streets, widening of streets, reservoirs, and several other works to be authorised by the Bill, within the limits of deviation shown on the said plans, or that may be authorised by the Bill.

To break up, alter, or stop up, either temporarily or permanently, any turnpike and other roads, streets, highways, footpaths, bridges, canals, railways, sewers, and drains which it may be necessary to break up, divert, or stop up or use for the purpose of the several intended works, or of the supply of gas or water under the powers of the Bill.

To take power to acquire compulsorily (except for the Public Park) or by agreement all lands, houses, mills, manufactories, dams, springs, streams, water and property which will or may be required to be taken or used for the several purposes of the Bill, or any of them; and, also, to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with such lands, houses, mills, manufactories, dams, springs, streams, and other property, which may in any way interfere with the purposes of the Bill, and to vary or extinguish any of the existing rights of the said Gas and Water Companies whose undertakings are to be taken and acquired by the Bill.

To enable and empower the Corporation and Companies and the owners of, and other parties interested in, the several works, and in the lands, houses, streams, and other property required for the several purposes of the Bill or any of them, and any other Companies, Corporations, Commissioners, and Trustees, and other bodies or persons whether under legal disability or not, to contract and agree with each other for the acquisition by the Corporation of such lands, houses, and other property absolutely or by way of feu, lease in perpetuity, contract of ground annual or otherwise, at such price, and subject to such feu-duty, ground annual, or rent, or for such other consideration as may be fixed upon, and for the purchase, commutation or extinction of any duties, customs, or other payments and rights and privileges which may affect, or be affected by the construction, maintenance, or use of the said proposed streets, improvements, and other works, or by the stopping up of the streets, closes, lanes, courts, yards, passages, stairs, or thoroughfares aforesaid, and to execute all agreements, contracts, conveyances, contracts of feu and of ground annual, leases, and other deeds necessary for these purposes.

To enable the Corporation to levy the existing tolls, duties, rates, rents, dues, cesses, customs, and assessments leviable by the Corporation or by the Commissioners or by the Town Improvement Trustees, or to alter or increase these tolls, duties, rates, rents, dues, cesses, customs, or assessments, or any of them, and to provide that the same or any of them may be levied and taken within the limits of the extended Burgh, and to provide that such tolls, duties, rates, rents, dues, cesses, customs, or assessments may be made applicable to all or any of the purposes of the Bill.

To enable the Corporation to levy special rates, or assessments on and from the owners and occupiers or one or other of them of all lands, houses, and heritages situated within the extended Burgh, or any part thereof, for carrying into effect the several objects of the Bill.

And power will be taken to alter existing tolls, rates, rents, duties, cesses, customs or assessments, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, rents, duties, cesses, customs, or assessments, and other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Corporation to borrow money for the purposes of the Bill, on Mortgage, Bond, Annuity, Cash-Credit, or otherwise, and to charge money borrowed on the Corporate Estates and Revenues and Rents, and on the credit and security of the Tolls, Duties, Rates, Rents, Dues, Cesses, and Assessments which they now are or by the Bill may be authorised to levy and collect, and on the Lands, Houses, and Property belonging to or to be acquired by them, and on the Gas and Water Works to be acquired and made by them, or by any of those means, and to enable the Corporation to provide a sinking fund for extinguishing debt.

To make, alter, vary, and rescind Bye-laws, Rules, Orders, Regulations, and Resolutions for or with respect to any of the objects of the Bill, and to authorise and enforce the imposition of penalties for breach or non-observance of those Bye-laws, and others, and to provide for the recovery and application of Penalties.

To incorporate with and extend and apply to the purposes of the Bill all or some of the provisions of The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847; The Water Works Clauses Act 1847 and 1863; The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847; The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862; The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and The Lands Clauses Consolidation Amendment Acts, 1860, and 1869; and the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845; or wholly or partially to exempt the Corporation from any of the provisions of those Acts, or to modify or alter the same with reference to all or any of the objects of the Bill, and particularly to modify certain of the provisions of the "Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845," to the effect of enabling the Corporation to take and acquire compulsorily or otherwise parts only of houses, or other buildings, or manufactories, without paying for the remainder of the same, in any part of the streets before described, or in the line of or adjoining or near the same, provision being made for protection of the interest of all parties concerned, and with regard to liability to rates, assessments, and taxes, and with respect to claims for compensation, and to provide other modes for settling such claims, and to provide for the sums of compensation which, under the provisions of the said Act, would be deposited in Bank, remaining a charge on the Corporation.

To confer upon the Corporation and upon the Magistrates and Town Councillors of the extended Burgh, and upon the officers under them, and any other persons, and upon the intended Dean of Guild or other similar authority, all powers and authorities necessary or desirable for effecting the objects and purposes comprised in this notice, and to be comprised in the Bill; and to repeal, vary, or extinguish all rights, powers, authorities, jurisdictions, privileges, and exemptions which may in any way interfere with any of the objects and purposes aforesaid, or of the Bill; and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights, powers, authorities, jurisdictions, privileges, and exemptions.

Duplicate Plans and Sections describing the lines, situations, and levels of the several works intended to be made and maintained as aforesaid, and the lands, houses, and other property intended to be taken, or which may be taken for the purposes thereof, or other objects and purposes authorised by the Bill, with duplicate books of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of all such lands, houses, and other property, will, together with a copy of this notice as inserted in the "Edinburgh Gazette," be deposited for public inspection on or before the 30th day of November instant, in the offices at Ayr and Kilmarnock, of the principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Ayr; and in the office at Paisley of the principal Sheriff Clerk of the County of Renfrew.

And a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to any of the parishes before mentioned respectively, in or through which the said several works will be made, and in which any lands, houses, or other property that will or may be taken, are situated, together with a copy of this notice, will, on or before the said 30th day of November, be deposited with the schoolmaster of each such parish, and if there be no schoolmaster, with the Session Clerk of such parish at his residence.

And copies of the Bill will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 9th day of November, 1870.

DUNFERMLINE CORPORATION WATER WORKS.

(Repeal in whole or in part of "The Dunfermline Water Works Act, 1847," and Loch Leven Act 1827—Ratification of Deed of Transfer of existing Water Works to Corporation—Limits of Supply—Powers for Additional Supply, and to take and use Loch Glow and other waters—Construction and Maintenance of necessary Works—Powers of Compulsory Purchase, and to levy Assessments—Power to Borrow Money on Mortgage, and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (herein called the Bill) for the following objects, or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To amend, enlarge, or repeal in whole or in part "The Dunfermline Water Works Act, 1847," (herein called the Water Act of 1847.)

2. To ratify and confirm a Deed of Transfer, dated 24th May 1866, granted by the Dunfermline Water Company, incorporated under the Water Act of 1847 (herein called the Company), in favour of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunfermline (herein called the Corporation), in trust for behoof of the community of said burgh, town, and suburbs, under and in virtue of the provisions contained in sections 37 and 38 of the Water Act of 1847, with all other Deeds, Documents, and Proceedings, whereby the whole lands, rights, and privileges, and whole Works and conveniences, together with the rents or rates payable to the Company by virtue of said Act, and all other rights, powers, and privileges, belonging to or vested in the Company, were transferred, made over, and conveyed to the Corporation in trust for behoof aforesaid; and to ratify and confirm all actings and proceedings of the Corporation in execution of the Water Act of 1847, or in pursuance of the aforesaid transfer, or with reference to the present supply of water.

3. To enable the Corporation to supply more effectually with water the burgh, town, and suburbs of Dunfermline, within the limits of the Parliamentary Burgh, as the same are defined and described in schedule (M) of an Act passed in the 2d and 3d year of the reign of His late Majesty, King William the IV., entitled, "An Act to amend the Representation of the People in Scotland," or as the same may from time to time be defined and described in any amendment of said Act (and which limits are herein called the limits of the Bill), and to define that the supply of water and levy of assessment within the limits of the Bill shall be compulsory.

4. To enable the Corporation to supply water by agreement to parties within the parishes of Dunfermline and Inverkeithing beyond the limits of the Bill, and to public works and traders, both within the last mentioned parishes, and within the limits of the Bill, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on.

5. To enable the Corporation to impound, take, draw off, divert, as hereinafter described, and use the waters of Loch Glow (herein called the Loch) in the parish of Dunfermline, in the county of Fife, or in said parish of Dunfermline, and in the parish of Cleish and county of Kinross, or one or other of them, which Loch belongs, or is reputed to belong, to the Trustees of the late James Dalgleish, Esquire, of Outh, and Harry Young, Esquire, of Cleish, or one or other of them, and to abstract and convey such portion of the waters of the Loch as shall be expedient, and of all lochs, streams, brooks, springs, and surface, and other water flowing into the Loch, and which water now flows directly or derivatively into the stream or water called the Gairney Water, which last-mentioned stream or water falls into the loch of Loch Leven, and which last-mentioned Loch is discharged into the River Leven, and thence into the Firth of Forth, and which water supplies the cuts, aqueducts, sluices, mill-lades, and tail-races of the following mills and works, viz.:—Dowhill mill and Cleish mill, both in the parish of Cleish and county of Kinross; the Sluices and spill-water at the south-east end of Loch Leven, in the parish of Portmoak and said county of Kinross; North Walkerton works, in the parish of Leslie and county of Fife; South Walkerton mill, in the parish of Kinglassie and said county of Fife; the following mills and works in the parish of Leslie and said county of Fife, viz., Strathendry paper-mill, Prinlows works, Cabbagehall bleachfield, Leslie lint-mill; Rothes wool-mill, in the said parish of Kinglassie and said county of Fife; the following mills and works in the said parish of Leslie, and county of Fife, viz., Leslie spinning-mill, and Fettykil paper-mill; the following mills and works in the parish of Markinch, and said county of Fife, viz., Auchmuty paper-mill, Rothes bleachfield, Rothes paper-mill, Balbirnie saw-mill, Balbirnie wool-mill, Balbirnie paper-mill, Balbirnie West Mill, Balbirnie Middle Mill, Sythrum bleachfield, Balgonie bleachfield, Balgonie saw-mill, Balgonie spinning-mills, Balfour Mill, Haugh-mill flour and barley mills, Haugh-mill spinning-mills, Cameron-Bridge mills, Cameron-Bridge distillery; Kirkland Works, in the parish of Wemyss and said county of Fife; and the following mills and works in the parish of Scoonie and said county of Fife, viz., Burn-mill, Leven mills, and Durie-foundry works, or one or more of them, and all or any other cuts, aqueducts, and other works deriving their supply from the Loch and waters aforesaid; and further, to enable the Corporation to take and use all other waters which will be intercepted by the works proposed under the Bill, or which may be found in or upon or under any lands to be acquired under the powers thereof, and to make all necessary provision for the maintenance, extension, management, and administration of the said undertaking, and of the whole Water Works at present belonging to and under the control of the Corporation.

6. To execute all necessary works for the conveyance of water from the Loch as aforesaid, and for the purpose of affording a supply of water to parties at present interested (herein called the parties interested), in the waters flowing therefrom.

7. To empower the Corporation, in order to impound, store, abstract, and distribute the waters of the Loch, and other waters as aforesaid, to construct and maintain the works hereinafter mentioned, or some part or parts thereof, as well for the purposes of water supply under the Bill as for compensating the parties interested, together with all necessary approaches, embankments, weirs, diversions of streams, and roads, sluices, pipes, conduits, channels, overfalls, drains, filters, pipes, and other works and conveniences (that is to say):—

An Embankment commencing at a point 85 yards or thereabouts north-west from the sluice on the lead running out of the east side of the Loch, and which embankment will extend across said lead and valley of the Loch in a south-easterly direction for 140 yards, or thereabouts, from its said commencement, and will there terminate; which embankment will be situated in the parish of Cleish, in the county of Kinross, and in the parish of Dunfermline, in the county of Fife, by which embankment the height of the water will be raised, and the land lying between the said embankment and the Loch, and also land along the margin of the Loch, will be submerged, and by the Bill power will be taken to acquire and use the lands so to be submerged, which lands are situated in the parishes and counties aforesaid, in which the Loch is situated:

An Aqueduct, Conduit, or line of pipes, commencing in the Loch, at or near the said embankment, and at a point 70 yards or thereabouts from the north end of the said embankment, measured along the line of the same in a southerly direction, and terminating in the Distributing Reservoir of the existing Dunfermline Water Works, at or near Hawkiesfauld, which aqueduct, conduit, or line of pipes will be made, or will pass from, in, through, or into the parish of Cleish, in the county of Kinross, and the parishes of Dunfermline and Beath, both in the county of Fife.

A Distributing Reservoir or Tank, situated in the north-east corner of a field on the farm of Leadside, in the occupation of Mr Alexander Morton, farmer, Baldrige, which Distributing Reservoir or Tank, when constructed, will cover about 550 square yards of surface, and will adjoin the turnpike road leading from Dunfermline by Nivingstone to Kinross, and will extend, with a breadth of 17 yards or thereabouts, from a point about 170 yards north from the junction of Bowershall road with the said turnpike road, to a point, 137 yards or thereabouts, north from the same junction; which Distributing Reservoir or Tank will be wholly situated in the parish of Dunfermline and county of Fife.

A Road, commencing by a junction with the said road from Dunfermline by Nivingstone to Kinross, at a point 440 yards or thereabouts south from Lurg Bridge, where the lead from the Loch crosses the said last-mentioned road, as shown on the Ordnance map, and terminating at or near the Loch, at or near the south end of the said intended embankment.

8. To draw off the water of the Loch to the depth, and to raise and maintain the level of the same to the height, to be shown on the sections aftermentioned, or to such other depth or height as may be authorised by the Bill.

9. To enable the Corporation to lay down and maintain all necessary main pipes, culverts, and other works under, above, or along the streets, highways, turnpike and other roads, railroads, lanes, footpaths, and places within the aforesaid parishes and places, and within the limits of the Bill, and to regulate in every way as to the supply of water, compensation to be made, and all other matters arising incidentally in carrying out the purposes of the Bill.

10. To purchase and acquire by compulsion or agreement the sites for the aforesaid works, and all lands, property, heritage, streams, springs, waters, and all premises and subjects for the purposes of the Bill, or any right or easement of, in, through, or over the same, including the water to be abstracted from the Loch and all other waters necessary.

11. To deviate, in the execution of the said works, from the lines and levels delineated on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, to the extent to be defined thereon or described in the Bill; and also to cross, stop up, alter, or divert temporarily or permanently, within, adjoining, or near to the aforesaid parishes, all turnpike and other roads, railways, streets, highways, footpaths, streams, watercourses, sewers, pipes, aqueducts, and other things and subjects for the purposes of the Bill, or any of them; and to vary, repeal, or extinguish all rights and privileges connected with the same, and that would in any way prevent or interfere with the purposes and execution of the Bill; and, so far as may be necessary, to amend or repeal an Act passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of his Majesty George IV., entitled "An Act for recovering, draining, and preserving certain lands in the parishes of Kinross, Orwell, and Portmoak, in the county of Kinross, and in the parishes of Balingry, Auchterderran, and Kinglassie, in the county of Fife, and for the better supplying with water the mills, manufactories, bleachfields, and other works, situated on or near the river of Leven, in the said county of Fife," and all other Acts relating to the same subject.

12. To enable the Corporation to levy and receive rents, rates, and tolls, general and special, limited or unlimited in amount, or under whatever title, and of whatever description, and to levy from the owners and occupiers, or one or other of them, of all lands, houses, and heritages within the limits of the Bill, or any part thereof, such public rates and such public or compulsory charges as shall be necessary, and to levy and receive water-rates or rents for the use of water, and to alter, vary, increase, or extinguish existing rates and rents which the Corporation may be entitled to levy under the Water Act of 1847, or otherwise.

13. To enable the Corporation to borrow money upon the credit of the whole said water-rates, rents, and tolls, and others, the revenue and property to be created under the Bill, or upon the credit of the common good, estate funds, and revenues belonging to the Corporation, under any title, or in any manner whatsoever; and to ratify, confirm, and regulate the payment of all loans which may have been made by them in regard to the supply of water, and which may have been in excess of the borrowing powers granted by the Water Act of 1847.

14. To incorporate all or some of the provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act Amendment Acts, 1860 and 1869," "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847 and 1863," "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," and also such parts of "The Railway Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845," relating to roads and temporary occupation of lands and to other matters, as may be deemed expedient, and any other General Acts in any way applicable to the purposes of the Bill.

Duplicate Plans and Sections showing the line or situation and levels of the proposed works, and the lands in or through which the same will be made, and the lands, streams, waters, and property to be acquired by compulsion under the powers of the Bill, with Books of Reference to the said plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of the lands, houses, waters, and other property which may be taken under the said powers, and also a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection in the offices at Cupar and Dunfermline of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the county of Fife, and in the office at Kinross of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the county of Kinross.

And a copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference as relates to each of the parishes in, through, or into which the intended works will be made or pass, and to the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, will, together with a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, be deposited on or before the said 30th day of November, for public inspection with the schoolmaster, or if there be no schoolmaster with the Session-Clerk of each of the said parishes, at the usual place of abode of such schoolmaster or Session-Clerk, and also with the Town-Clerk of the said Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, at his office in Dunfermline.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 11th day of November 1870.

ARBROATH CORPORATION GAS.

(Transference of Gas Works and Undertaking of the Arbroath Gas Light Company to Magistrates and Town Council of Arbroath—Power to Maintain, Improve, and Extend Gas Works, and to Make and Supply Gas; Limits of Supply; Power to Levy Gas Rates, Rents, and Charges, and Guarantee Assessments, and to Borrow Money; Application of Surplus Profits from Gas Works to Public and other Purposes; Incorporation of Acts; other Purposes.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Arbroath (hereinafter called the Corporation), for an Act to effect the following, or some of the following, among other objects, powers and purposes, vizt. :—

To Transfer to, and Vest in, the Corporation, or to provide for the Transference to and Vesting in them by purchase or otherwise, upon such terms and conditions as have been, or may be, agreed upon or as may be fixed by, or under, the provisions of the intended Act, of the Undertaking of the Company, or Association, styled "The Arbroath Gas Light Company" (hereinafter called the Company), and of all the lands and works, property, heritable and moveable, real and personal, and effects, powers, rights, and privileges, duties and liabilities of the Company, or such of them, or such parts of them, as may be defined in or by the intended Act; and to confirm any Agreement or Agreements, which have already been entered into with a view to the intended transfer or which may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act; and to provide for the dissolution of the Company, and the winding up of its affairs.

To enable the Corporation to maintain, improve, alter, enlarge, extend and renew the existing Works of the Company, now used for the supply or manufacture of Gas and residual products.

To enable the Corporation to purchase or take on lease by agreement and to hold lands, houses and easements, and servitudes in and over lands within the limits to be defined by the intended Act; and to sell superfluous lands.

To authorise the Corporation to manufacture Gas and the several matters and things producible from the residual products arising or resulting from the manufacture of Gas, and to store, sell and dispose of Gas, Coke, Coal and Tar, and other residual and manufactured products, and other matters and things; and to manufacture, purchase, sell, let, hire, supply, lay down, place and maintain, alter and remove, mains, pipes, gas-fittings, meters, pillars, lamp-posts and other apparatus, articles and things used in the manufacture, sale, supply or consumption of Gas, residual or other products and substances aforesaid; and to do and carry on all other things as are for the time being usually done or carried on by Corporations or Companies manufacturing and supplying Gas.

To authorise the Corporation to supply Gas for public and private purposes within the boundaries of the Parliamentary Burgh of Arbroath, as fixed by the Public Act 2nd and 3rd William IV., c. 65, and also within the district beyond the Burgh situated within the Parishes of Arbroath, St Vigeans, and Arbirlot, in the County of Forfar, or within such part or parts of said limits as may be defined in the intended Act; as also to empower the Corporation to supply Gas by agreement to persons outside their prescribed limits of supply.

To enable the Corporation to light, with Gas, streets, buildings, and places, and to enter into agreements thereanent, and to lay down and maintain pipes in, through, across, along and under, and for that purpose to break open and interfere with, streets, roads, lanes, rivers, canals, waters, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of the intended Act.

To make provision for regulating the consumption of Gas, repair of meters, preventing waste or fraudulent use of Gas, and other relative purposes.

To fix or regulate the price of Gas, and to enable the Corporation to levy rates, rents, and charges, in respect of the Gas or other articles supplied by them; also, to levy rates and assessments within the limits of the intended Act, or such part or parts thereof as may be therein defined; and specially to assess and levy, on and from the occupiers of all lands and heritages within the boundaries of the said Parliamentary Burgh of Arbroath, with such exceptions and exemptions, if any, as may be provided for by or under the intended Act, a guarantee rate or assessment, if and when necessary for payment of any annuities, interest on borrowed money, or other annual expenditure having relation to the undertaking of the Corporation; as also to assess and levy said guarantee rate or assessment on and from the owners of all lands and heritages within the said boundaries, let at a rent under such sum as may be fixed by the intended Act.

To make provision as to the disposal of the surplus profits arising from the Undertaking to be vested in the Corporation, and to enable the Corporation to apply the same, or such part or parts thereof, as may be defined in the intended Act, towards a Sinking Fund, the reduction of the price of Gas, and such public purposes within the limits of the intended Act as they may determine, or as may be defined by or under the intended Act, and to fix, or provide for the fixing of, the proportion to be applied to each such purpose.

To empower the Corporation to borrow by Mortgage or Bond, on the security of the undertaking to be vested in them, and of the rates, rents, and charges and assessments leviable by them, or by cash credit, such sums of money as may be required for the purpose of carrying the objects and provisions of the intended Act into effect.

To vary, or extinguish, all rights and privileges connected with the Undertaking of the Company to be transferred, and to confer on the Corporation new powers, rights, and privileges, and to make such farther provision as may be necessary or expedient for more effectually carrying into effect the objects of the intended Act.

To incorporate "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act 1845," "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act 1860," "The Commissioners Clauses Act 1847," and "The Gas Works Clauses Act 1847," or some of them, or some of the provisions of one or more of them, and to alter or amend, for the purposes of the said intended Act, "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act 1862," "The Public Health (Scotland) Act 1867," and "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act 1862 Amendment Act 1868," or some of them, or some of the provisions thereof, and all other Acts requiring to be altered or amended in order to carry out the purposes of the intended Act.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December 1870.

Dated this 11th day of November 1870.

MINING COMPANY OF IRELAND.

Incorporation of the Mining Company of Ireland; Repeal or Amendment of Act; Cancellation or Amendment of Deed of Agreement, &c.; Transfer of Property, and Powers of Existing Company; Extension of those Powers; Power to hold Land and other Property; Power to Trade and Manufacture; to Subscribe to other Companies; Regulation as to Capital and Management of Company, and for other purposes.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes, or some of the purposes following:—

1.—To repeal, alter, or amend all or some of the provisions of the Act, local and personal, 5 Geo. 4, cap. 158, intituled "An Act to enable the Mining Company of Ireland to Sue and be Sued, in name of their Secretary, or of one of the Members of said Company." and also to cancel and annul, or to amend and extend the Deed of Agreement of the Mining Company of Ireland (herein called the existing Company), and the resolutions under which the existing Company is at present constituted; and to dissolve the existing Company, and to confirm any acts done by the existing Company under the said Act, Deed, and Resolutions, or otherwise, howsoever.

2.—To incorporate into a Company (herein called the Company) the Proprietors or Shareholders in the existing Company, and such other Corporations and persons as may become Proprietors or Shareholders in the Company, and to confer on such Company powers to sue and be sued, and the other usual powers of a Corporate body, and all necessary powers for carrying out the object of the Bill.

3.—To enable the Company to continue to exercise the powers and effect the objects for which the existing Company were associated, and also to extend these powers and objects, and to hold, work, and maintain or dispose of the lands, mines, and works, and other property belonging to the existing Company, wherever situated; and also to acquire, and hold, and dispose of other mines, or of shares in mines, or in mining companies, and of quarries, and of other lands, buildings, machinery, ships, and other property of every nature and kind, in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and also to enable the Company to purchase, smelt, and sell and dispose of ores and mining produce of all kinds, and to manufacture and sell the products of any ores, whether home or foreign; and to enable the Company to grant leases of lands, mines, or works belonging to the existing Company, or which the Company may hereafter acquire.

4.—To enable the Company to subscribe towards, or make other pecuniary contributions or advances out of their capital or funds, to any company, firm, landowner, or undertaking, where the operations of the Company may be facilitated thereby.

5.—To transfer to, and vest in the Company, all the lands, and all mines, works, buildings, rights, powers, interests, privileges, easements, agreements, moneys, shares, credits and trusts, and property of every description, at law or in equity, belonging to the existing Company, and vested in them, or in any person or persons in trust for them, and to dispense with the necessity of any conveyances, or other deeds or writings for the purpose of conveying to, and vesting in the Company, any property held in trust for the existing Company.

6.—To apply, for the purposes of the Company and of the Bill, the capital, property, and funds of the existing Company, and to alter, define, and regulate the capital of the existing Company, and if deemed expedient, to reduce the same, and to alter the shares of the existing Company, and to limit the liability of the holders thereof to borrow, on mortgage, bond, or otherwise; to alter and regulate the mode of voting, and other rights and privileges of the shareholders, and the provisions as to increasing or reducing the number and the manner of electing the Directors, and to make further provision for the regulation and management of the Company and its affairs.

7.—To provide for the continuance of any Secretaries, clerks, officers, and servants of the existing Company, and of other persons employed by them, and for the future appointment and remuneration of all such persons respectively.

8.—To incorporate in the Bill all or some of the provisions of "The Companies' Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869," and all or some of the provisions of the existing Company's Deed of Agreement, and of the resolutions modifying or amending the same, and the provisions of any other public acts which may be expedient or desirable for the purposes of the Bill.

9.—To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges on the Company.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 7th day of November, 1870.

CAITHNESS RAILWAY.

(Extension and Revival of Powers; Deviations; Amendment of Act.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That the Caithness Railway Company (herein referred to as the Company), intend to apply to Parliament, in the next Session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend "The Caithness Railway Act, 1866," and to confer upon them the following, or some of the following, among other powers:—

1. To make and maintain the following Deviations in their Authorised Line of Railway, together with all necessary stations, approaches, and conveniences connected therewith (and which Deviations will be wholly situate in the County of Caithness), namely:—

DEVIATION No. 1.

A new or substituted Line of Railway, to be wholly situate in the Parish of Thurso, to commence from and out of the authorised Caithness Railway, in or near a Field numbered 12 on the deposited Plans referred to in the said Act of 1866, and to terminate at the Occupation Road (which joins the Turnpike Road between Thurso and Wick about 10 chains distant from, and measuring in a south-westerly direction from the Toll-house situate on the approach to Thurso Bridge), at a point on the said Occupation Road about 4 chains distant from the said Turnpike Road.

DEVIATION No. 2.

A new or substituted Line of Railway, (wholly situate in the Parish of Wick, and as to a part thereof within the Parliamentary Burgh of Wick), to commence from and out of the said Authorised Line, in or near a Field numbered 22 on the said Plans, and to terminate in a Field known as Bankhead, abutting on the Turnpike Road, leading between Wick and Thurso, via Dunn, at a point on that Road about 30 yards distant from the Toll-gate on the said Road.

2. To abandon the construction of the following portions of the Authorised Line of Railway, for which the before-mentioned new Lines of Railway are sought to be substituted, namely:—

(1.) So much of the said authorised Line as is situate between the point of commencement of Deviation No. 1 and the authorised termination of the Caithness Railway at Thurso.

(2.) So much of the said authorised Line as is situate between the point where Deviation No. 2 will diverge therefrom, and the authorised termination of the said Railway in the Royal Burgh of Wick.

3. To purchase and take by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, and other property for the purposes of the Bill.

4. To cross, stop up, alter, or divert, whether temporarily or permanently, Roads, Railways, Streams, Sewers, Drains, Pipes, and other works in the construction of the proposed new works ; to make Deviations, vertically or horizontally, from the line of works, and to levy tolls, rates, and charges in respect thereof.

SUTHERLAND AND CAITHNESS RAILWAY.

(Incorporation of Company ; Construction of Railway from Helmsdale, in the County of Sutherland, to Wick, in the County of Caithness, with Branches ; Power to the Highland Railway Company, to the Sutherland Railway Company, and to the Duke of Sutherland, to subscribe to the Undertaking ; Working and other Arrangements between these Companies and the Duke of Sutherland, and mutual running Powers and Facilities ; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given that Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next Session for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the following objects, or some of them ; that is to say :—

To incorporate a Company (hereinafter called "The Company") with powers to make and maintain the following Railways, or one or more of them, or part thereof, and all proper stations, sidings, junctions, bridges, approaches, roads of access, and other works and conveniences connected therewith respectively ; that is to say :—

First.—A Railway, commencing by a Junction with the Duke of Sutherland's Railway at or near the Helmsdale Station of such railway, at or near the town of Helmsdale, in the parish of Kildonan, and county of Sutherland, and terminating on the south side of the river of Wick, at Bankhead, in the parish of Wick, and county of Caithness, in a field belonging to James Henderson, Esquire, of Bilbster, and occupied by George Milton ; which Railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands and houses which may be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situate in, or pass from, through, or into the parishes of Kildonan and Reay, in the county of Sutherland, and the parishes of Reay, Halkirk, Bower, Watten, and Wick, in the county of Caithness, or some or one of them.

Secondly.—A Branch Railway, commencing by a junction with the Railway first above mentioned, in the parish of Halkirk, at a point in a field on the east side of the Burn of Halkirk, belonging to Sir John George Tollemache Sinclair, Baronet, M.P., and occupied by William Macbeath, and terminating in a field situate to the west of the Town of Thurso, between the Castle Green Turnpike Road and Janet Street in Thurso, immediately to the west of a Public Lane between the Castle Green Road and Janet Street, and at a point about forty-five yards or thereby to the south of the Castle Green Road, which field belongs to the said Sir John George Tollemache Sinclair, and is occupied by James M'Kidd ; which Branch Railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands and houses which may be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situate in, or pass from, through, or into the parishes of Halkirk and Thurso, in the county of Caithness.

Thirdly.—A Branch Railway, commencing by a junction with the Railway first above mentioned, at or near the Helmsdale Station of the Duke of Sutherland's Railway, at or near the town of Helmsdale, in the parish of Kildonan, and county of Sutherland, and terminating at or near the seaward extremity of the harbour of Helmsdale, in the parish of Kildonan ; which Branch Railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands and houses which may be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the parish of Kildonan, in the county of Sutherland.

Fourthly.—A Branch Railway commencing by a junction with the Railway first above mentioned, at its terminus at Bankhead aforesaid, in the parish of Wick, and terminating at or near the seaward extremity of the new harbour of Pulteneytown, now in the course of construction; which Branch Railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands and houses which may be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the parish of Wick, in the county of Caithness.

Fifthly.—A Branch Railway commencing by a junction with the Railway secondly above mentioned, at its terminus in the said field situate between the Castle Green Road and Janet Street, hereinbefore particularly described, and terminating at or near the seaward extremity of the harbour of Scrabster; which Branch Railway, and the works connected therewith, and the lands and houses which may be taken for the purposes thereof, will be situate in, and pass from, through, or into the parish of Thurso, in the county of Caithness.

It is proposed by the said Bill to confer on the Company the following powers, or some of them (that is to say):—

To purchase compulsorily lands, houses, and other property for the purposes of the said intended railways and works, and to lease or feu, or otherwise acquire lands, houses, and other property for the purposes of the said Bill; to raise money by the creation and issue of shares, and by borrowing on bond, or mortgage, or cash credit, and to fund or issue debenture stock in lieu of the money so borrowed; to deviate in the construction of the said intended railways and works from the lines and levels delineated on the Plans and Sections aftermentioned, to the extent and within the limits defined thereon, or as may be provided by the said Bill; to cross, divert, embank, alter, or stop up, and to alter the lines, levels, and inclinations of highways, turnpike and other roads, railways, bridges, streets, paths, passages, rivers, (including part of the river of Wick, in the parish of Wick, and also including part of the river of Thurso, in the parishes of Halkirk and Thurso,) brooks, streams, sewers, watercourses, and waterworks, and to use the soil or site of such of them as may be stopped up, diverted, or embanked, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of making, maintaining, working, or using the said intended railways and works, or any part thereof; to convey passengers, animals, goods, and other traffic on the said intended railways; to levy tolls, rates, and charges on and for the use of the said intended railways and works, and the conveyance of traffic thereon; to alter existing tolls, rates, and charges; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such tolls, rates, and charges.

To enter into and to carry into effect with any Corporations, Commissioners, Road and Bridge Trustees, Harbour Trustees, or other bodies or persons, arrangements and agreements for making, maintaining, or working the said intended railways and works, or for the use of the same, or for contribution towards the construction thereof, or of any of them, and to enable the Magistrates and Town-Council of the burgh of Wick to subscribe to and hold shares in the undertaking.

To authorize the Highland Railway Company, the Sutherland Railway Company, and the Duke of Sutherland, any or either of them, to contribute towards the capital of, and to hold shares in the Company, and to guarantee the payment of interest upon the debentures of the Company, or any of them, or to vote at meetings, and to appoint certain Directors of the Company, and to authorize the said Companies and the Duke of Sutherland, any or either of them, to apply for such purposes the capital or funds which they now have or may have power to raise; and also, if necessary, to raise for the purposes aforesaid further sums of money by shares or mortgage, and either with or without a preference attached to such Shares, as the said Companies and the Duke of Sutherland respectively may think fit.

To empower the Company, the Highland Railway Company, the Sutherland Railway Company, and the Duke of Sutherland, respectively, to enter into arrangements and execute agreements with each other with respect to the working and use of the said intended Railways, or any part thereof, by the said Companies and the Duke of Sutherland, or any or either of them, and with respect to the booking, forwarding, and interchange of traffic from, to, or beyond the said intended Railways, and with respect to the apportionment of the tolls and profits arising therefrom, and with reference to the appointment and employment of officers and servants; and to enable the last-mentioned Companies and the Duke of Sutherland, or any or either of them, to apply any portion of their funds, income, or capital to the purposes, or any of them, specified or contemplated by any such arrangement or agreement as aforesaid, and to confirm any agreements which may have been or may be entered into between the Company and the last-mentioned Companies and the Duke of Sutherland, or any or either of them, in relation to the said matters or any of them.

To amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the several purposes above mentioned, or any of them, the following Acts (that is to say):—"The Sutherland Railway Act, 1865," "The Sutherland Railway Act, 1866," "The Duke of Sutherland's Railway Act, 1870," "The Highland Railway Act, 1865," and "The Caithness Railway Act, 1866," and the several Acts therewith incorporated or therein recited respectively.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any way interfere with or prevent the execution of the several objects and purposes aforesaid, or any of them, and to confer all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary for carrying the same into effect.

Plans and Sections, describing the lines and levels of the said intended railways and works, and the lands and houses proposed to be taken for the purposes thereof, with a Book of Reference to such Plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands and houses, and a published map with the intended lines of railway delineated thereon, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will be deposited on or before the 30th day of November 1870, in the Office of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the county of Sutherland, at Dornoch, and in the Office of the Principal Sheriff-Clerk of the county of Caithness, at Wick; and a copy of so much of the said Plans, Sections, and Book of Reference as relates to each of the several parishes before specified, or to the Royal Burgh of Wick, together with a copy of this Notice, will be deposited on or before the same date with the Schoolmaster, or if there be no Schoolmaster, with the Session-Clerk of each such parish, at his residence, and with the Town-Clerk of such Royal Burgh at his Office therein.

Copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December 1870.

Dated this 7th day of November 1870.
