India Office, 29th May 1872.

NOTICE to all concerned as Heirs of Entail of the LANDS and ESTATE of KIRKSIDE and Others.

WHEREAS a Petition for authority to execute an Instrument of Disentail of the said Lands, lying within the Parish of Ecclesgreig or St. Cyrus and County of Kincardine, comprehending the Kirklands of Ecclesgreig commonly called Kirkside, with the Teinds thereof included, and the Lands of Scotstoun, Merchary, together with the Lands commonly called the Officers Lands, and others, and also the Salmon Fishings (the Teinds thereof included) in the Sea and the River North Esk, has been presented to First Division of Court of Session (Lord Mackenzie, Junior Lord Ordinary,—Mr. Robertson, Clerk), in terms of the 11th and 12th Vict., cap. 36, intitled an 'Act for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland,' and of the Acts 16th and 17th Vict., cap. 94, and 31st and 32d Vict., cap. 84, and relative Acts of Sederunt, at the instance of Miss JANET GRAHAM now STRATON of Kirkside, Heir of Entail in possession of said Lands, and alleging herself to be the only Heir of Entail now in existence under the destination contained in the Deed of Entail executed by Joseph Straton, Esquire of Kirkside, dated the 21st day of September 1804, and recorded in the Register of Tailzies on the 10th, and in the Books of Council and Session on the 31st, days of July 1816:

And Whereas, in respect of her being the only Heir of Entail now in existence as aforesaid, the said Miss Janet Graham now Straton claims to be entitled to execute said Instrument of Disentail without any of the consents of those Heirs of Entail next in the order of succession, which would otherwise have been requisite by the said Statutes had such other Heirs of Entail existed:

And Whereas the said Lords deeming it necessary that Intimation and Notice conceived in special terms and more immediately adapted to the peculiar circumstances alleged in the present case should be given, Lord Mackenzie, Junior Lord Ordinary, pronounced the following Interlocutor:—'5th June 1872.—Lord Mackenzie; 'Act. Mackay.—The Lord Ordinary of new appoints the Petition to be advertised in the Edinburgh 'Gazette, and the Scotsman, Aberdeen Journal, and 'Stonehaven Journal Newspapers, in terms of the 'Statutes, the said Advertisement to be in the special 'terms of the amended adjusted Draft, No. 6 of Process.

(Signed) 'D. MACKENZIE.'

Notice, in terms of said Interlocutor, is hereby given to all parties who may claim to be Heirs of Entail, or to be otherwise interested under the Deed of Entail before mentioned, in order that they may now compare and assert and enforce such claim or interest before it be too late.
