At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of November 1872.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Mr. Göschen.

Mr. Forster.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869 (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869), and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. Words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.
2. Where a Local Authority is authorized by the Privy Council to slaughter cattle that have been in contact with cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia, such Local Authority may cause all cattle that have within thirty days been in contact with cattle affected with pleuro-pneumonia within their district to be slaughtered, subject to the following provisions:—

- (1.) The owner of any animal so slaughtered may either dispose of the carcase on his own account, with a licence from some officer, appointed in that behalf by the Local Authority, or may require the Local Authority to dispose of the same, in which latter case the Local Authority shall, by way of compensation for every such animal, pay to the owner thereof such sum, not exceeding thirty pounds, as may equal three-fourths of the value of the animal slaughtered.
- (2.) The Local Authority may require the value of any such animal to be ascertained by their officers, or by arbitration, and generally they may impose conditions as to evidence of the slaughter and value of any such animal.

3. The expenditure of a Local Authority in pursuance of this Order in respect of compensation shall be defrayed out of the Local Rate.

4. Where the Local Authority in pursuance of this Order cause any cattle to be slaughtered, the owner thereof shall not be entitled to recover in respect of the insurance thereof any sum which, together with the payment which he receives for the same under this Order, would exceed the sum which he would have been entitled to receive in respect of the insurance.

5. Every Local Authority shall keep, in such manner and form as the Privy Council from time to time direct or approve, a record, stating the date of any order made by them for slaughter under this Order, and the execution of the order, and other proper particulars; and such record shall be evidence if any question arises concerning an order for the slaughter of any such animal, or concerning compensation in respect thereof.
