THE CALEDONIAN RAILWAY (SOLWAY JUNCTION PURCHASE) ACT, 1873.

WHEREAS by 'The Caledonian Railway (Solway Junction Purchase) Act, 1873,' which received the Royal assent on the fifth day of August, One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, it is enacted that the Caledonian Railway Company shall within one month after the passing of the said Act pay to the Solway Junction Railway Company, hereinafter called the Solway Company, the price of the Annan and Kirtlebridge Line as therein defined and thereby sold and provided to be transferred to and vested in the Caledonian Railway Company, which price is thereby fixed at the sum of Eighty-four thousand pounds and such a farther sum of money as shall be equal to the aggregate amount of all moneys already paid by the Solway Company to owners, lessees, and occupiers respectively of any land taken and used for the Annan and Kirtlebridge Line, for or on account of purchase and compensation moneys in respect of such land, and for interest accrued thereon up to the thirtieth day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventy, and for costs, charges, and expenses in respect of such land, but under deduction of one-half of all costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of the said Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, including one-half of the amount of stamp-duty with which the said Act is to be stamped as therein provided; And whereas it is farther by the said Act enacted that upon payment of the said price to the Solway Company, of which payment the receipt of three Directors of the Solway Company shall be sufficient evidence, the Caledonian Railway Company shall be discharged of such price and shall not be responsible for the further application thereof; And whereas the Caledonian Railway Company have, conform to receipt, a copy of which is annexed, paid to the Solway Company the sum of Eighty-six thousand four hundred and thirty-nine pounds, sixteen shillings and elevenpence sterling, being the said price as defined in the said Act and as therein provided to be paid by the Caledonian Railway Company to the Solway Company; And whereas it is by the said Act enacted that the Caledonian Railway Company shall intimate such payment in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes, and that thereupon the said Annan and Kirtlebridge Line, and all the power, rights, and privileges of the Solway Company in respect thereof, under the several Acts of Parliament relating to that Company and the Acts incorporated therewith or otherwise, shall be and are by the said first mentioned Act transferred to and vested in the Caledonian Railway Company in terms of the said Act: Now therefore the Caledonian Railway Company do hereby intimate that they have paid the foresaid price to the Solway Company, and have obtained the receipt thereof of three Directors of the Solway Company, of which receipt a copy is hereto appended.

Of all which Intimation is hereby given by the Caledonian Railway Company, in terms of 'The Caledonian Railway (Solway Junction Purchase) Act, 1873.'

ARCH. GIBSON, Secretary.

Glasgow, 8th September 1873.

WHEREAS by 'The Caledonian Railway (Solway Junction Purchase) Act, 1873,' which received the Royal assent on the fifth day of August One thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, it is enacted that the Caledonian Railway Company shall within one month after the passing of the said Act pay to the Solway Junction Railway Company, hereinafter called the Solway Company, the price of the Annan and Kirtlebridge Line as therein defined and thereby sold and provided to be transferred to and vested in the Caledonian Railway Company, which price is thereby fixed at the sum of Eighty-four thousand pounds and such a farther sum of money as shall be equal to the aggregate amount of all moneys already paid by the Solway Company to owners, lessees, and occupiers respectively of any land taken and used for the Annan and Kirtlebridge Line, for or on account of purchase and compensation moneys in respect of such land, and for interest accrued thereon up to the thirtieth day of June One thousand eight hundred and seventy, and for costs, charges, and expenses in respect of such land, but under deduction of one-half of all costs, charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of the said Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, including one-half of the amount of stamp-duty with which the said Act is to be stamped as therein provided; And whereas it is farther by the said Act enacted that upon payment of the said price to the Solway Company, of which payment the receipt of three Directors of the Solway Company shall be sufficient evidence, the Caledonian Railway Company shall be discharged of such price and shall not be responsible for the further application thereof; And whereas the Caledonian Railway Company have of this date paid to the Solway Company the sum of Eighty-six thousand four hundred and thirty-nine pounds sixteen shillings and elevenpence sterling, being the said price as defined in the said Act and as therein provided to be paid by the Caledonian Railway Company to the Solway Company: Now therefore we the Granters hereof, being three Directors of the Solway Company, do hereby acknowledge the receipt of the said sum of Eighty-six thousand four hundred and thirty-nine pounds sixteen shillings and elevenpence, being the aforesaid price, and discharge the said Caledonian Railway Company thereof, in terms of the above recited Act.—In witness whereof these presents, written upon this and the two preceding pages of stamped paper by James Richard Moss, Clerk to Alexander Grahame, Parliamentary Solicitor in Westminster, are subscribed as follows, vizt.: by Alexander Brogden, Esquire, Member of Parliament, residing at number five Queen Square, Westminster, at Westminster, upon the third day of September Eighteen hundred and seventy-three, before these witnesses—John Noble, of number five Queen Square, Westminster, Gentleman, and Thomas Rowland Hargreaves, Solicitor, number one Victoria Street there; by William Eckersley, Esquire, Stock and Share Broker, Manchester, at Manchester, upon the fourth day of September and year last mentioned, before these witnesses—T.
