FOREIGN OFFICE, January 19, 1876.

DECLARATION between Great Britain and Spain
for the Protection of Trade Marks.

Signed at London, December 14, 1875.

THE Government of Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Government of His Majesty the King of Spain, with a view to the reciprocal protection of the marks of manufacture and trade in the two countries, have agreed as follows:—

The subjects of each of the Contracting Parties shall have in the dominions and possessions of the other, the same rights as belong to native subjects in everything relating to property in manufacturing or trade marks, industrial designs or patterns, or manufactures of any kind.

It is understood that any person who desires to obtain the aforesaid protection must fulfil the formalities required by the laws of the respective countries.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Declaration, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at London, the fourteenth day of December 1875.

(L.S.) DERBY.

(L.S.) MARQUES DE CASA
LAIGLESIA.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 18th day of January 1876.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Viscount Sandon.

The Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869 (in this Order referred to as the Act of 1869), and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-third day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six; and words in this Order have the same meaning as in the Act of 1869.

2. The Animals Order of 1875 shall be read and have effect as if Granton and Leith were not named in Article 71 or Article 85 of that Order.

3. The Orders described in the Schedule to this Order are hereby revoked.

4. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Orders, or either of them, before the date when this revocation takes effect, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Orders, or either of them.

C. L. PEEL.

NOTICE to all concerned as Heirs of Entail of MILBANK.

WHEREAS a Petition for authority to execute an Instrument of Disentail of the said Lands, lying in the Parish of Erskine and Shire of Renfrew, has been presented to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division, Junior Lord Ordinary,—Mr. Robertson, Clerk), in terms of the Acts 11th and 12th Victoria, chapter 36, 16th and 17th Victoria, chapter 94, and 38th and 39th Victoria, chapter 61, and relative Acts of Sederunt, at the instance of James King Cameron King, residing at Cobourg, Township of Hamilton, County of Northumberland, and Dominion of Canada, sometime Deputy-Registrar of said County, Heir of Entail in possession of the said Lands, and alleging himself to be the only Heir of Entail now in existence under the destination contained in the Deed of Entail, dated 22nd April 1777, and recorded in the Register of Tailzies 28th January 1778, executed by the deceased William King of Milbank :

And whereas, in respect of his being the only Heir of Entail now in existence as aforesaid, the said James King Cameron King claims to be entitled to execute said Instrument of Disentail without any of the consents of those Heirs of Entail next in the order of succession, which would otherwise have been requisite by the said Statutes had such other Heirs of Entail existed :

And whereas, under an Interlocutor of Lord Rutherford Clark, Ordinary, of date 19th November 1875, intimation and advertisement has already been given, conceived in the ordinary general terms in which such advertisements have been in use to be framed, where other Heirs of Entail, besides the heir actually in possession, are in existence :

But the said Lord Rutherford Clark, deeming it necessary that intimation and notice, conceived in more special terms, and more immediately adapted to the peculiar circumstances alleged in the present case, should be given, has pronounced the following Interlocutor :—

‘ 22d January 1876.—Lord Rutherford Clark—
‘ Act. Kinnear.—The Lord Ordinary having considered the Petition and proceedings, and the ‘ Report by Mr. Dalziel, No. 19 of Process, and ‘ having heard Counsel thereon, appoints the ‘ Petition to be again intimated by public advertisement once in the Edinburgh Gazette, once
‘ weekly for three successive weeks in the Paisley
‘ and Renfrewshire Gazette and Glasgow Herald
‘ Newspaper, and once in the Cobourg Sentinel,
‘ Cobourg Star, or Cobourg World, Canada
‘ Newspapers, the said advertisement to bear
‘ special reference to the grounds upon which the ‘ present Petition is founded, and particularly
‘ to the fact that the Petitioner represents himself as the only Heir of Entail in existence ;
‘ further, allows the Petitioner a proof that there
‘ are no subsequent Heirs of Entail in existence ;
‘ grants diligence for citing Witnesses and ‘ Havers, and grants commission to Professor
‘ Robertson, Glasgow, whom failing, to Professor ‘ Berry, Glasgow, to take their depositions and ‘ receive their exhibits, and to report quam
‘ primum. (Signed) ‘ AND. R. CLARK.’

Notice, in terms of said Interlocutor, is hereby given to all parties who may claim to be Heirs of Entail, or to be otherwise interested under the Deed of Entail before mentioned, in order that they may now compare and assert and enforce such claim or interest before it be too late.

(Notice to Holders of Policies and other Contracts who have not sent in their Claims.)

In the Matter of the European Assurance Society Arbitration Acts 1872, 1873, and 1875.

THE Arbitrator has directed that for the future premiums which fell due between 11th May 1871 and 12th January 1872, and have not yet been paid, may be deducted from Dividend instead of as heretofore, the payment of such premiums being required before admission of the claim.

All holders of policies and other contracts with the Companies subject to the above-mentioned Acts, who have not sent in claims to us, are required to do so without delay, even in cases in which they sent in claims to the Liquidators who were acting in the Court of Chancery.

All communications relative to this Notice are to be by prepaid post letter addressed to us here.

Dated this 14th day of January 1876.

By order of the Arbitrator,

S. LOWELL PRICE,

Jno. YOUNG,
