Edinburgh, 17 Charlotte Square,
25th January 1876.

In the Matter of the Companies' Acts 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the STATE LINE STEAMSHIP COMPANY (LIMITED).

NOTICE is hereby given, that at a Special General Meeting of the Members or Shareholders of the above-named Company, held within the Religious Institution Rooms, 172 Buchanan Street, Glasgow, on Friday the 7th day of January 1876, pursuant to Notice for the purpose duly given, the following Special Resolutions were unanimously passed, viz. :—

I. That in respect certain difficulties have latterly been experienced in adequately conducting the business of this Company, owing to insufficiency of capital and other causes, and in respect a new Company has been, or is in the course of being, formed with the view, inter alia, of acquiring the Seven Steam Ships or Vessels belonging to this Company, together with the Goodwill of the business, it becomes proper and necessary that the affairs of this Company should be wound up voluntarily.

II. That it be, as it is hereby, accordingly resolved that the present Company be voluntarily wound up, under and in virtue of the powers and provisions applicable to the voluntary winding up of Companies contained in the Companies' Act, 1862, including more especially those conferred by the 161st Section of said Statute, and that, inter alia, on the footing and in the manner, and subject to the terms, conditions, and provisions set forth in a Memorandum of Agreement between this Company and the Provisional Directors of the said proposed New Company, dated the 24th, 27th, 28th, and 29th days of December 1875.

III. That the said Memorandum of Agreement be, and the same is hereby, approved of and adopted.

IV. That to the ends and effects foresaid, James Wyllie Guild, Chartered Accountant, Glasgow, and Alexander Moore, Chartered Accountant, Glasgow, be, as they are hereby jointly, and each of them separately, appointed to the office of Liquidators or Liquidator of the present Company, with all the powers, faculties, and privileges pertaining or competent to the office of Liquidators under the foresaid Statute, or any subsequent Statute for amending or extending the same; as also, with the special powers conferred by the foresaid Memorandum of Agreement, it being understood that the Liquidators or Liquidator, shall in the first instance, when allocating fully paid up shares of the New Company, to Shareholders of the existing Company who have elected, or may elect, to take the same in the room and place of Shares held by them in the existing Company, compute One Share of the New Company, as equivalent to Ten Shares of the Old Company, until the actual value of the latter shall have been finally ascertained on the complete winding up of the Company, after which, the Liquidators or Liquidator shall make a farther rateable allocation, in Shares or money payment, to the extent of any excess in value beyond that assumed in making an allocation in the first instance, as aforesaid. And with the view of aiding and assisting the said James Wyllie Guild, and Alexander Moore, or either of them, acting as Liquidator for the time being, the Directors of the present Company be, as they are hereby, constituted a Committee of Council, with whom the said Liquidators or Liquidator, for the time being, may advise or confer, as the latter may deem proper, with reference to any details or arrangements in connection either with the Sale and Transfer of the Seven Steam Ships or Vessels belonging to this Company, and Goodwill of the business, as provided for by the said Memorandum of Agreement, and in conformity therewith, or in regard to the terms on which the New Company may be allowed to acquire the leases, furniture, plant, and others belonging to the present Company, as also therein provided for, or in relation to the carrying on of the business of the present Company (which, with the concurrence of the said Directors, the said Liquidators are hereby expressly empowered to do) until the arrangements for the same being taken up by the New Company, shall have been completed.

And Notice is hereby further given, that at another Special General Meeting of the Members or Shareholders of the said Company, duly convened, and held within the Religious Institution Rooms, 172 Buchanan Street, Glasgow, on Tuesday the 25th day of January 1876, the said Special Resolutions were duly confirmed.
