WHITEHALL, May 30, 1876.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by Alan Plantagenet, Earl of Galloway, to the Right Honourable Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen, which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland in General Assembly convened, acknowledge with profoundest respect your Majesty's most gracious letter, and the expression therein contained of your determination to uphold all the ancient rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland, of its ministers, and of the congregations committed to their charge.

Your Majesty's firm reliance on our loyalty and affectionate attachment to your Royal person and Government it shall be our earnest care to justify. The zeal and prudence which your Majesty has been graciously pleased to ascribe to the deliberations of former Assemblies, we trust, in dependence on the Great Head of the Church, will mark the deliberations of that also which is now convened. Our prayer is that, in all our proceedings, we may be guided by the Wisdom that cometh from above, and be enabled to advance the glory of God and the sacred interests of His Church, and to promote still further the present and eternal welfare of your Majesty's subjects in our beloved land.

It affords us sincere gratification to welcome as your Majesty's Commissioner and representative in this Assembly the distinguished Scottish nobleman, Alan Plantagenet, Earl of Galloway, whose courtesy and kindness has won our cordial regard. His presence among us, as your Majesty's representative, we hail as not only a recognition of our right of assembly, but as a becoming expression of homage to the King of Kings, and of that happy union between the Church and the State, which we hold to be in full accordance with the Word of God and eminently promotive of the best interests of the nation.

Your Majesty's donation of two thousand pounds for the reformation of the Highlands and Islands we receive with great thankfulness, and we beg to assure your Majesty that it shall be our endeavour, by the faithful application of your Majesty's gift, to promote the important purpose for which it is bestowed.

That Almighty God, the God and Father of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, may enrich with all spiritual and temporal blessings your Majesty, your children, and your children's children, and long preserve you in health and strength in this present world, and after a prosperous reign on earth, may confer on you a heavenly crown, is the earnest prayer of May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment by GEORGE COOK, D.D., Moderator.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
May 22, 1876.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

REGULATIONS respecting Competitive Examinations, held under the Order in Council of 12th February 1876, for Men Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service.

1. Competitive examinations of candidates for Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held from time to time at such places as may be deemed expedient.

2. These examinations are open, with such exceptions and under such conditions as may be laid down, to all natural-born subjects of Her Majesty, being of the prescribed age, and of good health and character. The undermentioned exceptions and conditions are at present in force:

(i.) The following classes of persons are ineligible, viz.:

(a.) Persons actually serving in the Army and Navy.

(b.) Persons who have commuted, under the Act 32 and 33 Vict., c. 32, or the Act 34 and 35 Vict., c. 36 (the Pensions Commutations Acts, 1869 and 1871), any pension other than Naval Retired Pay, either alone or in conjunction with a Pension for Wounds, or a Pension for Wounds alone, either in the Naval or Military Service.

(c.) Persons who have previously succeeded at an examination for the same situation or class of situations.

(ii.) The following classes of persons will not be eligible unless they shall have produced to the Civil Service Commissioners, at least one week before the date of the competition, the written permission of the authorities of their department to attend the examination, viz.: (a) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service, (b) Members of the Royal Irish Constabulary, of less than 12 years' service, (c) Engineer students in Her Majesty's Dockyards.

(iii.) Persons who have been trained in Normal Schools at the public expense will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Committee of Council on Education, England, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

(iv.) In reckoning age for competition the following allowances will continue to be made as heretofore, viz.: (1) members of the Military and Naval Services (whether commissioned or non-commissioned) may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have served; (2) persons who have served for two full consecutive years (a) in any Civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, (b) in the Royal Irish Constabulary, or (c) as Registered Copyists in connection with the Civil Service, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years which they may have spent in such service.

3. A fee of 15s. will be required from every candidate attending a Preliminary Examination, and a further fee of 5s. from every candidate admitted to the Competitive Examination.

4. Candidates must be over 17 and under 20 years of age on the first day of the Competitive Examination.

5. The subjects of examination will be as follows:—

1. Handwriting.
2. Orthography.
3. Arithmetic.
4. Copying MS. (to test accuracy).
5. English Composition.
6. Geography.
7. Indexing or Docketing.
8. Digesting Returns into Summaries.
9. English History.
10. Bookkeeping.

No candidate can be admitted to the competition who has not previously satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners that he possesses the requisite amount of proficiency in Handwriting, Orthography, and Arithmetic (including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions). With this view, Preliminary Examinations in these subjects will be held at such times and places as the Commissioners may appoint. Application for permission to attend one of these Preliminary Examinations must be made in the writing of the candidate at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

6. The number of persons to be selected at each examination will be published as part of the notice of every such examination. A list of the competitors will be made out, in the order of merit, up to this published number, if so many are found by the examination to be qualified for appointments in the Civil Service.

7. Each competitor named in a list will remain thereon until he attains the age of 25 years, unless in the meantime he has been appointed to a situation in some public office.

Candidates on completing their 25th year, or on receiving appointments, will be removed from the list.

8. From these lists the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of Departments having vacancies, will supply, on probation, the requisite Clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Selections will, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners, according to the order of the names on the lists; but the Civil Service Commissioners may select any Clerk who, in his examination, has shown special qualifications in any particular subject, if special application for such Clerk be made by any Department.

9. No Clerk will remain more than one year in any Department unless at the end of that time the Head of the Department shall signify in writing to the Civil Service Commissioners that the Clerk is accepted by the Department. If he is not accepted, the Department will report to the said Commissioners the reasons for not accepting him; and such Commissioners will thereon supply another Clerk in his room, and will decide whether the name of the rejected Clerk shall be struck off the lists, as unfit for the Service generally, or whether he shall be allowed a trial in another Department.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for 80 Men Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, under the above Regulations, on Tuesday the 25th of July 1876, and following days.

Preliminary Examinations will be held in London, Edinburgh, Dublin, Bristol, and Leeds, on Tuesday the 27th of June, and Tuesday the 11th of July.

Persons wishing to be admitted to one of these Preliminary Examinations, should apply to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S.W., for the necessary form, fourteen days at least before the day selected for examination.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,

May 22, 1876.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:—

REGULATIONS respecting Competitive Examinations, held under the Order in Council of 12th February 1876, for Boy Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service.

1. Competitive examinations of candidates for Boy Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held from time to time at such places as may be deemed expedient.

2. These examinations are open, with such exceptions and under such conditions as may be laid down, to all natural-born subjects of Her Majesty, being of the prescribed age, and of good health and character. The undermentioned exceptions and conditions are at present in force:

(i.) The following classes of persons are ineligible, viz.:

(a.) Persons actually serving in the Army or Navy.

(b.) Persons who have commuted, under the Act 32 and 33 Vict. c. 32, or the Act 34 and 35 Vict. c. 36 (the Pensions Commutations Acts, 1869 and 1871), any pension other than Naval Retired Pay, either alone or in conjunction with a Pension for Wounds, or a Pension for Wounds alone, either in the Naval or Military Service.

(c.) Persons who have previously succeeded at an examination for the same situation or class of situations.

(ii.) The following classes of persons will not be eligible unless they shall have produced to the Civil Service Commissioners, at least one week before the date of the competition, the written permission of the authorities of their departments to attend the examination, viz.: (a) Persons holding situations in the Civil Service, (b) Engineer students in Her Majesty's Dockyards.

(iii.) Persons who have been trained in Normal Schools at the public expense will not be qualified to receive appointments until the consent of the Committee of Council on Education, England, or the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, as the case may be, given in conformity with rules sanctioned by the Lords of the Treasury, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

3. A fee of 10s. will be required from every candidate admitted to the examination.

4. Candidates must be over 15 and under 17 years of age on the first day of the Competitive Examination.

5. The subjects of examination will be as follows:—

1. Handwriting.

2. Orthography.

3. Arithmetic, including Vulgar and Decimal Fractions.

4. Copying MS. (to test accuracy).

5. English Composition.

6. Geography.

No candidate will be eligible who does not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his competency in Handwriting, Orthography, and Arithmetic.

The number of persons to be selected at each examination will be published as part of the notice of every such examination.

6. A list of the competitors will be made out, in the order of merit, up to this published number, if so many are found by the examination to be qualified for appointments in the Civil Service.

7. Each competitor named in a list will remain thereon until he attains the age of 19 years, unless in the meantime he has been appointed to a situation in some public office.

Boys on completing the 19th year of their age, or on receiving appointments, will be removed from the list.

8. From these lists the Civil Service Commissioners, on the application of Departments having vacancies, will supply, on probation, the requisite Clerks, whether for permanent or temporary duty. Selections will, as a general rule, be made by the Civil Service Commissioners according to the order of the names on the list; but the Civil Service Commissioners may select any Clerk who, in his examination, has shown special qualifications in any particular subject, if special application for such a Clerk be made by any Department.

9. No Clerk will remain more than one year in any Department unless at the end of that time the Head of the Department shall signify in writing to the Civil Service Commissioners that the Clerk is accepted by the Department. If he is not accepted, the Department will report to the said Commissioners the reasons for not accepting him; and such Commissioners will thereon supply another Clerk in his room, and will decide whether the name of the rejected Clerk shall be struck off the lists, as unfit for the Service generally, or whether he shall be allowed a trial in another Department.

10. Boy Clerks will not be retained as such in any Department after completing their 19th year; but they may, after two years (or, if admitted after 17 years of age, one year) of good service, to be certified in writing by the Head of their Department to the Civil Service Commissioners, compete under 'Regulation II,' among themselves, for so many Men Clerkships of the Lower Division as shall not exceed one fourth of the number of competitors.

Separate lists will be made out of the competitors successful in the limited competitions, and selections for appointments to Men Clerkships will (subject to Regulation 9) be made alternately from these lists and from the lists of competitors successful in the open competitions.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination for 20 Boy Clerkships in the Lower Division of the Civil Service will be held in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, under the above Regulations, on Wednesday the 28th of June 1876, and following days.

Persons wishing to be admitted to the examination should apply before the 14th of June for the necessary form to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, London, S.W.
