LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE, June 14, 1877.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Court Mourning, which would have terminated on Thursday the 28th instant, will be prolonged to Friday the 29th instant, Her Majesty having been pleased to command that the Court shall be in Mourning for fourteen days from to-morrow, for His late Royal Highness The Grand Duke of Hesse, Uncle of His Royal Highness Prince Louis of Hesse, Son-in-Law of Her Majesty The Queen.

The Court will change the Mourning for His late Royal Highness, on Friday the 22d instant, and go out of Mourning on Friday the 29th instant.

FOREIGN OFFICE, June 13, 1877.

The Earl of Derby, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has received from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Odessa, the following amended notice of the regulations for the entrance and departure from Russian Ports in the Black Sea of Neutral Vessels, which was communicated to the Foreign Consuls by the Governor-General of Odessa, on the 6th June. The notice is the same as that published in the London Gazette of 18th May, with the addition of the last paragraph:—

Approved by the Commander of the Odessa
Military District.

NOTICE.

From the time of the declaration of war ($\frac{1}{2}$ th April 1877), the entrance of, and the departure of vessels from, the Port of Odessa, from the Liman of the Dnieper, and from the Boug, the Straits of Kertch, and the Bay of Sebastopol is only permitted subject to the following conditions, which are not provided for by Maritime International Law, but which must necessarily arise now that harbours are protected by barring them with mines, the passage through which is kept absolutely secret:—

1. Every vessel on arriving must stop outside the line of mines. Russian officers with a crew will go and meet her; they will assume command of the said vessel, and navigate her into the harbour, after having satisfied themselves that the ship's papers are in regular order.

2. The Captain of the said vessel shall engage in writing, on behalf of himself and his crew and passengers, that, while passing through the line of torpedoes, no person shall remain on the deck, or watch through portholes or other openings the course followed by the ship.

3. The same rule shall be enforced when merchantmen quit the harbour; that is to say, a Russian officer and crew shall, in conformity with Articles 1 and 2, take command of the said vessels.

4. If a man-of-war should make its appearance at a spot whence it would be possible to watch the entry and departure of vessels, the Russian authorities will insist upon its retiring to a certain distance, during a period of time sufficient to navigate a vessel in or out. Until this formality is complied with no vessel will be allowed to enter or leave.

But at the same time, captains are informed that it may happen, that the enemy's war cruisers will refuse to pay attention to the above request, and commence hostilities at once. In that case vessels already in the port will be deprived of the possibility of leaving, and be inevitably exposed to all the consequences that may result from the enemy's fire.
