

- 2. This Order extends to Great Britain only.
- 3. Words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Destructive Insects Act, 1877.
- 4. If the owner of or any person having under his charge any crop of potatoes, or other crop or vegetable or substance, finds or knows to be found thereon the Colorado Beetle, in any stage of existence, he shall with all practicable speed give notice of the fact of the same being so found to a constable of the police establishment for the place where the same is found.
The constable shall forthwith give notice thereof to the Local Authority; and the Local Authority shall forthwith give notice thereof by telegraph to the Privy Council.
- 5. It shall not be lawful for any person to sell, or expose or offer for sale, or keep, any living specimen of the Colorado Beetle, in any stage of existence, or to distribute in any manner any such specimens.
- 6. If any person fails to do anything which he is required by this Order to do, or does anything in contravention of this Order, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall, for each offence, be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
