

Academy boys, and that upon such terms and conditions, and for such payment or contribution out of the Trust Funds, either by way of one present payment in advance, or by annual or other periodical payments or by school fees, or by all or any of these means, and subject to such regulations as the Trustees may determine, or which will be specified in the Bill, and to apply the Trust Funds, or so much thereof as the Trustees shall think proper or necessary, for carrying out the said objects, or which will be provided in the Bill.

To enable the Trustees, if they think fit, to apply part of the Trust Funds in assisting Academy boys or other boys of the class from which scholars might be admitted into the Academy to attend other schools affording a higher class of education, and in establishing libraries and reading-rooms in connection with the Academy, and otherwise in extending the benefits of the Trust.

To enable the Trustees from time to time to make, vary, and rescind bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the management of the Trust and of the Academy, and with respect to the duties of the masters and servants thereof and the discipline and conduct of the scholars in and out of School or Academy, and with respect to the religious and secular education and course of study of such scholars, and generally with respect to the management of the Trust.

To alter or repeal in whole or in part, but so far only as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, the Act 39 and 40 George III., cap. 98.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights, powers, and privileges which would interfere with or prevent the execution of any of the purposes of the Bill, and to confer all powers, rights, and privileges necessary for carrying the same into effect.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 15th day of November 1877.

Board of Trade—Session 1878.]

GLASGOW AND IBROX TRAMWAY.

Power to Work Tramways by Mechanical or other Power.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade by the Glasgow and Ibrox Tramway Company (hereinafter called 'the Company') for a Provisional Order under the Tramways Act, 1870, for effecting the following purposes, that is to say:—

To authorise the Company to work the Tramways authorised by the Glasgow and Ibrox Tramway Act, 1877, or any of them, for the purposes of traffic of every description, or for the purposes of such traffic as may be defined by the Provisional Order, by means of locomotive engines, or carriages moved by steam or other mechanical or motive power, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be provided by the Provisional Order.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the Provisional Order, and to confer other rights or privileges.

On or before the 30th day of November instant, a copy of this Notice will be deposited with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Lanark at his Office in Glasgow, and with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Renfrew at his Office at Paisley, and at the Board of Trade, London.

The draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23d day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Provisional Order, when deposited, and of the Provisional Order when made, will be furnished at the price of one shilling for each copy to all persons applying for them at the offices of the undersigned.

All persons desirous of making any representations to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application for a Provisional Order, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, London, on or before the 15th day of January 1878.

Dated this 16th day of November 1877.
