FOREIGN OFFICE, March 3, 1879.

Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from Señor J. M. Torres Caicedo, Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of St. James for the Republic of Salvador, a communication, of which the following is a translation, relative to the proceedings of certain vessels, not belonging to Salvador, which, according to information received by his Government, sail under the flag of that State, with ships' papers purporting to have been issued by agents of the Salvadorean Government.

(Translation.)

Legation of the Republic of Salvador,
Paris, February 3, 1879.

MY LORD,

I do myself the honour of addressing your Excellency, for the purpose of stating that my Government has directed me to inform your Excellency that there are some vessels, especially merchant vessels, which sail under the flag of Salvador, and with ships' papers purporting to have been issued by agents of that Republic; that those vessels do not belong to Salvador, for that State has no navy; that to prevent abuses in future, and to avert responsibilities which might be made to rest upon the Salvadorean Government, that Government represents these facts, in order that your Excellency may be pleased to take note of the following declaration; that henceforth any vessel which says it belongs to the Salvadorean navy must produce the commission issued by the Government of that nation, and countersigned by the Minister of State of the relative department.

In making this declaration, the object of my Government is to prevent ulterior reclamations, for some have already been presented. If any vessel should present itself under the Salvadorean flag, without the aforesaid requisite, that flag could not, in any case, cover the ship, the merchandise, or the crew.

I venture to hope that your Excellency will be pleased to make such use of this letter as may be considered expedient for the production of its effects.

I hasten at once to express to your Excellency, in the name of my Government, the most sincere thanks for your friendly intervention in this matter, and for the purposes indicated.

May your Excellency be pleased to accept the assurances, &c.

(Signed) J. M. TORRES CAICEDO.
