WAR OFFICE, October 9, 1879.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross upon the undermentioned Officer and Non-Commissioned Officer of Her Majesty's Army, whose claims have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, for their several acts of valour in endeavouring to save the lives of soldiers during the reconnoissance made before Ulundi, on the 3d July 1879, as recorded against their names:—

| Regiment. | Names. | Acts of Courage for which recommended. |
|----------------------|--|---|
| Frontier Light Horse | Captain (now Commandant) Cecil D'Arcy | For his gallant conduct on the 3d July 1879, during the reconnoissance made before Ulundi by the Mounted Corps, in endeavouring to rescue Trooper Raubenheim, of the Frontier Light Horse, who fell from his horse as the troops were retiring. Captain D'Arcy, though the Zulus were close upon them, waited for the man to mount behind him; the horse kicked them both off, and though much hurt by the fall and quite alone, Captain D'Arcy coolly endeavoured to lift the trooper, who was stunned, on to the horse, and it was only when he found that he had not strength to do so that he mounted and rode off. His escape was miraculous as the Zulus had actually closed upon him. |
| Frontier Light Horse | Sergeant Edmund O'Toole | For his conspicuous courage and bravery on several occasions during the campaign, and especially for his conduct on the 3d July 1879, at the close of the reconnoissance before Ulundi, in assisting to rescue Sergeant Fitzmaurice, 1st Battalion 24th Mounted Infantry, whose horse fell and rolled on him, as the troops retired before great numbers of the enemy. When lifted up behind him by Lord William Beresford, the man, being half stunned by the fall, could not hold on, and he must have been left had not Sergeant O'Toole, who was keeping back the advancing Zulus, given up his carbine and assisted to hold Sergeant Fitzmaurice on the horse. At the time the Zulus were rapidly closing on them, and there was no armed man between them and Sergeant O'Toole. |
