FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

WESTMINSTER—May 4. 1802.

THIS day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that the Lords, authorised by virtue of his Majesty's Commission for declaring his Royal assent to several acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal assent to the said acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal assent given to

An act to enable the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury of Great Britain to issue Exchequer bills on the credit of such aid or supplies as have been or shall be granted by Parliament for the service of Great Britain for the year one thousand eight hundred and two.

An act for repealing the duties on income; for the effectual collection of arrears of the said duties, and accounting for the same; and for charging the annuities specifically charged thereon upon the consolidated fund of Great Britain.

And several private acts.

MAY 7.

This day the Royal assent was also given by Commission to

An act for granting to his Majesty certain duties on goods imported into, and exported from Great Britain, and on tonnage of ships and vessels entering outward or inward in any port of Great Britain, to or from foreign parts.

An act for permitting French wines to be imported into Great Britain, in bottles or flasks, under certain restrictions.

An act to continue until three months after any restriction imposed by any act of the present session of Parliament on the Bank of England, from issuing cash payments shall cease, an act made in the Parliament of Ireland, in the thirty-seventh year of the reign of his present Majesty for confirming and continuing the restrictions on payments in cash, by the Bank of Ireland.

An act for opening several new streets in the town of Kilmarnock, and county of Ayr; for altering and widening some of the streets, lanes, and passages within the said town; for building two new bridges over the water of Kilmarnock; for removing the present slaughter houses in the said town, and building new ones, and a town-hall and guard house; for enlarging and repairing the gaol or tolbooth; for enlarging the burial ground of the said town; for paving the said town and places adjoining thereto, and removing nuisances and annoyances therein; and for extending the jurisdiction of the Magistrates of the said town over certain adjacent lands.

An act for building and maintaining a house of correction in and for the city and county of Aberdeen, and for raising a fund for defraying the charges of apprehending, prosecuting, and subsisting criminals, rogues, and vagabonds found within the said city and liberties thereof.

And several private bills.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.
FOR A PUBLIC THANKSGIVING.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by our proclamation of the twenty-sixth day of April last, we did appoint and command, that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God should be observed throughout that part of our kingdom called Scotland, upon Tuesday the first day of June next: And whereas it hath been represented to us, that the said day will be inconvenient for the celebration thereof, on account of the sitting of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland: We therefore have thought fit, by the advice of our Privy Council, to issue this our Royal proclamation, hereby appointing and commanding that the said General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, be observed throughout that part of our kingdom called Scotland, upon Thursday the seventeenth day of June next; instead of Tuesday the first day of June next; And we do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Thanksgiving be reverently and decently observed by all our loving subjects in Scotland, on the said seventeenth day of June next, as they tender the favour of Almighty

God, and would avoid his wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as we may justly inflict on all such as contempt or neglect the performance of so religious a duty.

Given at our Court at St James's the fifth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and two, in the forty-second year of our reign. GOD SAVE THE KING.
