TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1882.

WINDSOR CASTLE, June 27, 1882.

THIS day the Queen held a Court at Windsor Castle, at three o'clock, to receive an Address from the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland to congratulate Her Majesty on Her Majesty's Providential deliverance from the attempt on the Queen's life in March.

The deputation, consisting of the Earl of Aberdeen, Her Majesty's Lord High Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; the Very Rev. Dr. Milligan, D.D., the Moderator of the General Assembly; the Very Rev. Principal Tulloch, D.D., Clerk of the Assembly; Mr. William Mackintosh, the Procurator; Mr. William John Menzies, Agent of the Church; the Rev. Dr. Smith of Cathcart, the Rev. Dr. Phin, Lord Balfour of Burleigh, Mr. Charles Dalrymple, M.P., and Mr. James Campbell, M.P., arrived at the Castle shortly before two o'clock.

The Right Honourable Sir William V. Harcourt, Secretary of State for the Home Department, was present at the Court.

The deputation, headed by the Earl of Aberdeen, was introduced by the Lord Chamberlain, and the Moderator read the following Address:—

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, renew the assurance of our devoted attachment to your Majesty's person, family, and Government.

In sympathy with the many millions of your

Majesty's subjects, we take this the earliest opportunity of expressing to your Majesty our congratulations on your Providential deliverance from the recent insane attempt to injure your Royal person.

We offer special thanks to Almighty God, the Father of Mercy, who protected your Majesty in the hour of danger and spared a life so dear and precious to the nations over which you reign.

That by the grace of God your Majesty may long be preserved in the enjoyment of every blessing this world can bestow, reigning, as you have hitherto done, in the hearts of a loyal and grateful people, until it please God to call you from an earthly to a heavenly crown, is the earnest prayer of

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in this General Assembly.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:—

'I receive with satisfaction your loyal and dutiful Address.

'I am devoutly thankful to Almighty God, whose protecting care has been extended to my beloved daughter and myself.

'It is a gratification to me to receive the assurance of the loyalty and devotion of the Church of Scotland, to which I am sincerely attached.'

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the 'Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855,' it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, by Order in Council, upon the Representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State that a copy of an Interlocutor of a Sheriff of a County of Scotland under certain provisions of the said Act has been received, in pursuance thereof, to order that no new Burial Ground shall be opened within certain limits specified in such Order, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in such Order, Burials within certain limits, or in certain burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and that such Order in Council shall thereupon have like force and effect as if the same were embodied in the said Act: Provided always, that notice of such Representation, and of the time it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be transmitted to the Crown Agent in Edinburgh, and the Sheriff-Clerk of the County in which such Burial Ground is situated; and that the same shall be by them respectively published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed on the doors of the Church of or on some conspicuous places within the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has, under the provisions of the said Act, made a Representation stating that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff of Ayrshire, finding proved the allegations contained in a Petition of two Members of the Parochial Board of the Parish of Mauchline, that the Burial Ground adjoining the Church of the said Parish, in the Village of Mauchline, is dangerous to health or offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that Burials should be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground:

And whereas notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of the Privy Council, has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and has been fixed as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered that Burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground adjoining the Church of the said Parish of Mauchline.

C. L. PEEL.

At the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of June 1882.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable John David,

Baron FitzGerald, Lord of Appeal in Ordinary; Lord Justice Bowen; and the Right Honourable George Otto Trevelyan, were, by Her Majesty's command, sworn of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took their places at the Board accordingly.
