

as the case may be, and the electing body or the Sheriff shall, as soon as conveniently may be after such notice, appoint or elect a governor to hold office from the expiry of said term. Any election or appointment not made as aforesaid within three months from the date of this Scheme, or from the date of the notice of expiry of a term of office or from the date of the notice of a vacancy, as hereinafter prescribed, shall in that case be made by the then existing governors.

4-11. Clauses relating to Vacancies, Meetings, Chairman, Quorum and Execution of Deeds, Minutes, and Committees.

12-17. Clauses relating to Accounts, Audit, Business Arrangements, Casual Profits, Powers of Sale and Investment.

18-20. Clauses relating to Transference of Administration.

21. Preservation of Vested Interests.

Application of Income.

22. Application of Income.—The governors, after paying the necessary expenses of management, shall apply the free income of the Endowment to the following objects:—

- a. They shall set aside £150 for the educational purposes hereinafter set forth, and out of this sum they shall pay an annuity of £36 per annum to Mrs. Margaret Wylie or Black, and an annuity of £36 to Mrs. Mary Wylie or Chapman, and an annuity of £18 per annum to Mrs. Connor, as provided in the trust deed of the said William Forrest.
- b. They shall, as provided in the trust deed of the said William Forrest, pay to the minister for the time being of the quoad sacra parish of Clarkston the sum of £20 sterling per annum, to assist in maintaining the ordinances of religion and public worship in the said parish.
- c. They shall, as provided in the trust deed of the said William Forrest, apply the sum of £110 per annum for the maintenance of University Bursaries, as hereinafter provided.
- d. They shall, as provided in the trust deed of the said William Forrest, apply the sum of £30 per annum in the purchase of coals for the most necessitous poor persons in the burgh of Airdrie and the quoad sacra parish of Clarkston, two-thirds of which shall be distributed in the said burgh, and one-third in the said parish.
- e. They shall apply the surplus of the said revenue, along with the said sum of £150, or so much thereof as may be available, to the educational purposes hereinafter set forth.

23. Free Scholarships.—The governors shall apply the sum of £100 yearly in paying, in whole or in part as they may think fit, the fees of scholars at public or State-aided schools in the burgh of Airdrie and in the parish of Clarkston, for elementary education as defined in the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882. The free scholars shall be children whose parents or guardians, not being in receipt of parochial relief, are in such circumstances as to require aid for providing elementary education, and are persons who, in the opinion of the governors, ought not to be required to apply to the Parochial Board for such aid.

In the case of children under ten years of age the fees shall not be paid for more than one school year without reappointment; and after they have been in attendance at school during one school year, the governors shall, in making their selection, give special weight to good conduct, attendance, and progress, at school during the previous year. The amount to be expended in paying school fees for children under ten years of age shall not exceed one-third of the amount to be applied under this section.

In the case of children of ten years of age and upwards, the free scholars shall be selected by competitive examinations, which shall be open to all of the same age who are eligible in terms hereof, whether they have or have not previously been beneficiaries; and for such children the school fees may continue to be paid for such period not exceeding three years as the governors may determine. If any scholar gain a school bursary his school fees shall no longer be paid under this section.

The governors, at the end of every school year, shall obtain from the teacher or teachers a special report as to the conduct, regularity of attendance, and progress of all scholars whose school fees are paid in whole or in part under this section, and the fees of no scholar shall continue to be paid in regard to whom such report is not satisfactory.

24. School Bursaries.—The governors, after satisfying the provisions of the immediately preceding section, shall apply two-thirds of the remaining funds specified under sub-sections (a) and (e) of the twenty-second section hereof, in establishing school bursaries, to be called the Forrest School Bursaries, each of the yearly value of not less than £5 nor more than £10. These bursaries shall be awarded by competitive examination among children attending the public or State-aided schools in the burgh of Airdrie and parish of Clarkston, who have passed the fifth standard of the Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving their children a higher education; they shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches.

25. Bursaries for Higher or Technical Education.—The governors shall apply the remaining third of the said funds in founding bursaries, to be called the Forrest Bursaries, each of the yearly value of not less than £10 nor more than £15. These bursaries shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending the public or State-aided schools in the burgh of Airdrie and parish of Clarkston, whose age at the date of the competition shall not exceed fourteen years; they shall be tenable for such period not exceeding three years as the governors may determine, at such schools for higher education or technical instruction as they may approve. This provision shall not come into operation until the surplus available for the purposes of this and the immediately preceding section amount to £30 annually.

26. University Bursaries.—The governors shall apply the sum of £110 annually in maintaining five university bursaries, to be called the Forrest University Bursaries, each of the annual value of £22, and tenable at the University of Glasgow for such number of years, not exceeding five, as