FOREIGN OFFICE, September 3, 1883.

NOTICE.

HER Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Jerusalem, informing him that the Governor of Jerusalem has notified to him that he has lately received orders from the Sublime Porte to enforce strictly henceforward the regulation which requires foreign subjects arriving in Turkey to be provided with passports visé by a Turkish Diplomatic or Consular Agent.

Her Majesty's Consul further informs Lord Granville that British travellers and others not infrequently arrive at Jaffa unprovided with the required documents, and that such neglect will in future expose them to serious inconvenience.

FOREIGN OFFICE, August 31, 1883.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr. J. Woodtli as Consul at Aden for His Majesty the King of the Netherlands; and of Mr. Tomas Murdock as Consul at Dundee for the Argentine Republic.

WHITEHALL, September 1, 1883.

The Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, in words and to the effect following, viz. :—

VICTORIA, R.

Victoria, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to Our right trusty and right well-beloved Cousin John William, Earl of Dalhousie, Knight of Our Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle; Our trusty and beloved Edward Marjoribanks, Esquire (commonly called the Honourable Edward Marjoribanks); Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Henry Huxley, Esquire, Doctor of Laws, President of the Royal Society, Inspector of Fisheries; Our trusty and well-beloved William Sproston Caine, Esquire; and Our trusty and well-beloved Thomas Francis Brady, Esquire, Inspector of Irish Fisheries; greeting:

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into the complaints which have been made by line and drift net fishermen of injuries sustained by them in their calling, owing to the use of the trawl-net and beam-trawl in the territorial waters of the United Kingdom; and to ascertain how far these complaints are well founded, and whether any and what legislative remedy can be adopted without interfering with the cheap and plentiful supply of fish.

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your ability and discretion, have nominated, constituted, and appointed, and do by these presents nominate, constitute, and appoint you the said John William, Earl of Dalhousie, Edward Marjoribanks, Thomas Henry Huxley, William Sproston Caine, and Thomas Francis

Brady, to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry. And for the purpose of enabling you, Our Commissioners, to make the said inquiries, We do hereby authorize you, and empower you, or any three or more of you, to invite such persons as you may judge most competent, by reason of their situation, knowledge, or experience, to afford you correct information on the subject of this inquiry, to attend before you, and bring with them all such books, documents, papers, accounts, &c., as may appear to you, or any three or more of you, calculated to assist you in the execution of the trust hereby reposed in you.

And We do further by these presents authorize and empower you, or any three or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places in Our United Kingdom as you may judge expedient for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We further ordain that you, or any three or more of you, may have liberty to report to Us, your proceedings under this, Our Commission, from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of three or more of you, your opinion upon the several matters herein submitted for your consideration.

And We will and command that this, Our Commission, shall continue in full force and virtue, and that you, the said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may, from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter or thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And for your assistance in the execution of these presents We do hereby authorize and empower you to appoint a Secretary to this, Our Commission, to attend you, whose services and assistance We require you to use from time to time as occasion may require.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the thirtieth day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, in the forty-seventh year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

W. V. HARCOURT.

WHITEHALL, September 3, 1883.

The Queen has been pleased to give and grant unto Surgeon-Major Francis Bramley Baker, Grenadier Guards, late Senior Medical Officer of the Brigade of Guards in Egypt, Her Majesty's Royal licence and permission that he may accept and wear the Insignia of the Third Class of the Order of the Medjidieh, which His Highness the Khedive of Egypt has been pleased to confer upon him, in recognition of his services during the recent operations in that country.
