

the River or Firth of Clyde, and the water so to be diverted from Loch Katrine now flows through Loch Achray and Loch Vennacher, and along the River Teith and the River Forth into the Firth of Forth.

To empower the Commissioners to deviate laterally from the lines of the several works hereinbefore described to the extent shown on the plans to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, or as may be provided by the Bill, and to deviate vertically from the levels shown on the sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to any extent which may be provided by the Bill, and also temporarily or permanently to use, cross, open, or break up, alter, divert, and stop up highways and other roads, railways, tramways, bridges, streets, paths, passages, rivers, canals, streams, brooks, drains, sewers, aqueducts, watercourses, reservoirs, telegraph apparatus, and gas, water, and other pipes, and to carry conduits, pipes, and other works through, over, under, across, along, upon, or into the same within the parishes and places aforesaid so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of making, maintaining, and using the several works before mentioned or any of them, or any of the works and conveniences connected therewith.

To empower the Commissioners to take and acquire compulsorily or by agreement and to use and hold temporarily or permanently lands, houses, rivers, lochs, waters, streams, burns, brooks, and other property or rights therein, in the parishes and places aforesaid, or some of them which may be required for the said works and the other purposes aforesaid, and of the Bill, or rights of user thereof, easements, servitudes, privileges, powers, or authorities, in, over, or under the same, and to empower the Commissioners and the owners of and other parties interested in such lands, houses, waters, streams, brooks, burns, and other property, and any Companies, Corporations, Commissioners, Trustees, and other bodies or persons, whether under legal disability or not, to contract and agree with each other for the acquisition by the Commissioners of such lands, waters, streams, brooks, burns, and other property, or rights of user thereof, easements, servitudes, privileges, powers, or authorities, in, over, or under the same, absolutely or by way of feu, contract of ground annual, lease in perpetuity or otherwise, at such price and subject to such feu-duty, ground annual, or rent, or for such other consideration as may be fixed upon, and to enter into, execute, and carry into effect all agreements, conveyances, contracts of feu and of ground annual, leases, and other deeds necessary for these purposes.

To make provision, if need be, for the discharge and regulation of compensation water to Millowners and others affected by the intended Waterworks hereinbefore described, and to make such other provisions with reference to compensation water as the Bill may provide or Parliament may sanction.

To declare that the intended works shall for the purposes of rates and charges, and for all other purposes whatsoever, unless otherwise provided by the Bill, be deemed part of the Waterworks undertaking of the Commissioners.

To empower the Commissioners to supply water to high level districts within the City and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, and to pump water from their existing mains for such supply, and to provide all requisite machinery, apparatus, and appliances, and to purchase land by agreement for the purposes aforesaid.

To enable the Commissioners in respect of such supply to make, levy, and collect rates and charges from the owners and occupiers, or either of them, of the houses, buildings, tenements, and other property so supplied.

To enable the Commissioners on the one hand, and any Corporation, Commissioners, Trustees, Local Authority, or other body on the other hand, to enter into, carry into effect, rescind, and renew agreements and arrangements with reference to the supply of water by the Commissioners to such Corporation, Commissioners, Trustees, Local Authority, or other body, and with reference to the supply by such last-mentioned bodies of water to the high level districts before-mentioned, and to make such other provisions with reference to the supply to such high level districts as the Bill may provide or Parliament may sanction.

To make special provision for the protection of the works, property, and water supply of the Commissioners, and for the protection and cleansing of the lochs, rivers, springs, burns, and works, streams and waters aforesaid, and for defining and regulating their supply, and to give them special rights and remedies for preventing frauds and abuses of their supply, and to impose penalties and make other provisions affecting consumers.

To make special provision for preventing the fouling or polluting of the water in or flowing into Loch Katrine and Loch Arklet, or the Arklet Water, and the water of the Commissioners, or any of them, and to enable the Commissioners to agree with the owners or occupiers of any steamboat or other boat or vessel, lands, dwelling-houses, farms, farm and other buildings for preventing the sewage or drainage or other impurities thereof from flowing into Loch Katrine, Loch Arklet, or the Arklet Water into the other reservoirs, aqueducts, and waterworks of the Commissioners, and for the drainage of such lands, farms, and buildings, and for more effectually collecting, conveying, and preserving the purity of the waters flowing to, upon, or from any such lands, farms, and buildings, directly or indirectly into Loch Katrine, Loch Arklet, or the Arklet Water, and to empower the Commissioners to inspect any steamboat or other boat or vessel, lands, houses, farms, farm and other buildings the sewage or drainage of which they may suspect of fouling or polluting, or being likely to foul or pollute, the waters aforesaid, or any of them; and to require the owners, lessees, or occupiers of such steamboat or other boat or vessel, lands, houses, farms, farm and other buildings to do all such acts and provide all such drains and other appliances as the Commissioners may consider necessary for the prevention or removal of such fouling or pollution; and to enable the Commissioners themselves, on failure of the said owners, lessees, or occupiers, to do such acts and provide such drains and other appliances, and to charge the cost thereof and of the maintenance thereof on, and recover the same from the said owners, lessees, or occupiers, and to make such other provisions with reference to the matters aforesaid as the Bill may contain or Parliament may sanction.

To authorise the Commissioners to apply to the purposes of the Bill or any of them any funds, moneys, rates, assessments, or rents now
