DOWNING-STREET, Sept. 14.

A Dispatch has been received from ALEXANDER STRATON, Esq. his Majesty's Charge d'Affaires at the Ottoman Porte, transmitting an official note delivered to him by the REIS EFFENDI, on the 29th of July last, relative to the navigation of the Black Sea, of which the following is a copy:

TRANSLATION.

Official Note delivered by the REIS EFFENDI to ALEXANDER STRATON, Esq. at a conference in his Excellency's house on the Canal, the 29th July 1802.

It behoves the character of true friendship and sincere regard to promote with cheerfulness all such affairs and objects as may be reciprocally useful, and may have a rank among the salutary fruits of those steady bonds of alliance and perfect good harmony which happily subsist between the Sublime Port and the Court of Great Britain; and as permission has heretofore been granted for the English merchant ships to navigate in the Black Sea for the purposes of trade, the same having been a voluntary trait of his Imperial Majesty's own gracious heart, as more amply appears by an official note presented to our friend the English Minister residing at the Sublime Porte, dated 3 Gemaziel Ahir 1214—this present "Takrir" (official note) is issued; the Imperial Ottoman Court, hereby engaging that the same treatment shall be observed towards the English merchant ships coming to that sea, as is offered to the ships of powers most favoured by the Sublime Porte, on the score of that navigation.
