EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENTS

(SCOTLAND) ACT, 1882.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Commissioners under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, have prepared the Drafts of Schemes for the future administration of the Endowments undernoted:—

No. 1. Wright's Bequest in the County of Banff and Parish of Alvah;

No. 2. Paithnick and Bruce Mortifications in the County of Banff and Parish of Grange;

No. 3. Admiral Duff's Bequest in the County of Banff and Parish of Botriphnie;

No. 4. Arradoul Female School Endowment in the County of Banff and Parish of Rathven;

No. 5. Bell Fund in the County of Fife and Parish of Cameron;

No. 6. Henderson Mortification in the County of Fife and Parish of Leuchars.

whereof abstracts are appended. The Commissioners will, in terms of the Twenty-fourth Section of said Act, receive and consider any objection made to them in writing by any public body or persons interested respecting such Scheme, and any amendments proposed thereon, provided that the same be delivered at their Office, at No. 46 George Street, Edinburgh, within two calendar months from the date hereof. Printed copies of the said Scheme may be had on application to Messrs. A. & C. Black, Booksellers, Edinburgh, Sale Agents for H.M. Stationery Office, at 1d. per copy.

ALEX. GIBSON,
Secretary to Commissioners.

46 George Street, Edinburgh,
17th November 1885.

No. 1.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment, in the Parish of Alvah and County of Banff, known as Wright's Bequest, hitherto held and administered under the last Will and Testament of Alexander Wright, dated 26th January 1867, and recorded in the Register of Probation Writs for the County of Banff, 26th April 1867.

Operative Clause.

6. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the income to one or other of the following objects as from time to time they see fit:—(a) They may establish a bursary to be awarded by competitive examination among children attending the public or State-aided schools in the parish of Alva, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may be from time to time fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education. The bursary shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools to be approved by the governing body; or, (b) They may apply the income in paying the fees of poor and deserving children, with books and stationery, at public or State-aided schools in the parish of Alva, who have passed in the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them higher education. These free scholarships shall be awarded on the result of a competitive examination or as a reward for regularity of attendance, industry, general merit, and good conduct, all to be ascertained by the report of the teachers, and otherwise as the governing body may determine. Any payment under this sub-section shall be withdrawn in the case of children who fail to give regular attendance or make satisfactory progress at school.

No. 2.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowments in the Parish of Grange and County of Banff, known as the Paithnick Mortification, presently paid by the Earl of Fife to the School Board of Grange, and the Bruce Mortification, presently held and administered by the Kirk-Session of Grange.

Operative Clause.

7. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the free annual income to either of the following objects as from time to time they may see fit:—(a) They may establish a school bursary to be called the Bruce School Bursary, which shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Grange, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving them higher education; the bursary shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches; or, (b) They may expend the annual income in awarding prizes in the public schools of the parish of Grange, provided always that no prize shall be awarded to any child who has not passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code.

No. 3.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Botriphnie and County of Banff, known as Admiral Duff's Bequest, hitherto held and administered by the Kirk-Session of Botriphnie under Trust Disposition and Deed of Settlement by Admiral Archibald Duff, dated 25th July 1853, and registered in the Books of Council and Session, 27th March 1858.

Operative Clause.

6. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the free annual income in establishing a bursary to be called the Duff Bursary, which shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Botriphnie who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Act, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them higher education. In the event of equality in examination a preference shall be given to girls. The bursary shall be tenable for two years at a public or State-aided school, in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches.

No. 4.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowments in the Parish of Rathven and County of Banff, known as the Arradoul Female School Endowment, presently held and administered by the School Board of the Parish of Rathven.

Operative Clause.

5. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the income to one or other of the following objects as from time to time they see fit:—(a) They may establish one or more bursaries of the annual value of not less than £2, to be awarded by competitive examination among children attending the public or State-aided schools in the parish of Rathven, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may be from time to time fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education. These bursaries shall be tenable for such period not exceeding two years as the governing body may think fit at public or State-aided schools to be approved by the governing body; or, (b) They may accumulate the annual revenue, or a part thereof, and apply the same in giving at intervals a bursary of not less than £10 nor more than £15. The bursary shall be awarded by competition among children attending public or State-aided in the parish of Rathven, whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education, under such conditions and regulations as to age or otherwise as the governing body may from time to time determine. It shall be tenable for a period not exceeding two years at such school for higher education or technical instruction as the governing body may approve, or at a Scotch University.

No. 5.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Cameron and County of Fife, known as the Bell Fund, presently held by the School Board of the Parish of Cameron.

Operative Clause.

5. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management, and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the income to one or other of the following objects as from time to time they see fit:—(a) They may establish a bursary to be awarded by competitive examination among children attending the school at Denhead in the parish of Cameron, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may be from time to time fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education. The bursary shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools to be approved by the governing body; or, (b) They may apply the income in paying the fees of poor and deserving children, with books and stationery, at the school of Denhead in the parish of Cameron who have passed in the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them higher education. These free scholarships shall be awarded on the result of a competitive examination, or as a reward for regularity of attendance, industry, general merit, and good conduct, all to be ascertained by the report of the teachers, and otherwise as the governing body may determine. Any payment under this sub-section shall be withdrawn in the case of children who fail to give regular attendance or make satisfactory progress at school.

No. 6.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Leuchars and County of Fife, known as the Henderson Mortification, hitherto held and administered under the Last Will and Testament of Alexander Henderson, dated 17th August 1646, and recorded in the Commissary Court Books at Edinburgh, 9th November 1646.

Operative Clause.

7. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the free annual income in either of the following modes as they may from time to time see fit:—

(1) They may establish two school bursaries to be called the Henderson School Bursaries, to be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Leuchars, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving them higher education; these bursaries shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches, or

(2) They may establish a bursary for higher education to be called the Henderson Bursary, to be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Leuchars, whose parents or guardians require aid in giving them higher education, and whose age at the date of the competition shall not exceed fourteen years; it shall be tenable for such period, not exceeding three years, as the governors may determine, at such schools for higher education or technical instruction as they may approve.

NOTE.—In the above Schemes, the Endowments are transferred to the respective School Boards, and the usual clauses are inserted as to Investment, &c.

Board of Trade—Session 1886.

DUNBAR HARBOUR.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

(Tolls, Rates, and Duties; Amendment, Alteration, or Repeal of Tolls, Rates, and Duties; New Tolls, Rates, and Duties; Borrowing Powers, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23d day of December next, by the Magistrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Dunbar, in the County of Haddington (who are hereinafter called the Promoters), praying for a Provisional Order, pursuant to the provisions of the 'General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861,' and the 'General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act,' for all, or some of the following, among other powers and purposes, viz.:—

To alter, extend, and increase all, or some, of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, and Harbour Customs at any time heretofore authorised to be levied in the Old Harbour and Victoria Harbour of Dunbar, or in either of them (which Old Harbour and Victoria Harbour are together herein referred to as the Harbour of Dunbar), or to amend, alter, and repeal the whole or some part or parts of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, and Harbour Customs so authorised, or to re-incorporate the same, or any part thereof, with such amendments as may be necessary with the Order; and to impose of new and levy within the Harbour of Dunbar similar or increased, and additional, and other Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, Harbour Customs and Charges on Vessels and Boats and other Craft entering and using, and anchoring within the limits of the Harbour, and on Passengers, Animals, Fish, Goods, and Merchandise landed and shipped or unshipped therein, or in respect of the use thereof, or any part thereof, or of the Quays, Works, and Conveniences connected therewith; to make provision for the collection and regulation of the same, to appoint Meters, Weighers, and other Officers and Servants, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, Harbour Customs and Charges, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

To sell or lease the undertaking, or some portion thereof, or to lease or compound, or to omit levying the said Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, Harbour Customs and Charges, or any part of them in such manner, and for such period as may be specified in the said Provisional Order, and to provide for the application of the revenue of the Harbour.

To borrow at interest such money as may be required for the purposes of the Harbour, and of the said Provisional Order, by way of bond, mortgage, cash credit, or otherwise, on the security of the Harbour, and of the lands and property connected therewith respectively; and the works constructed thereon, and of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties, Shore Dues, Anchorages, Customs and other Charges and Payments authorised to be levied, or which may be authorised to be levied by the said Provisional Order; and to enable the promoters to make further provision for, or to establish a sinking fund for, the repayment of monies borrowed.

To authorise the promoters for the time being to carry the proposed Provisional Order into effect; to confer on them all powers, rights, and privileges and authorities which may be necessary for that purpose; and to provide for the maintenance, management, and administration of the Harbour of Dunbar, and of the works connected therewith, and of all matters relating thereto respectively.

To constitute the promoters the Harbour and proper Pilotage Authorities for the Harbour of Dunbar, and to grant all the powers and privileges authorised by the Merchant Shipping Acts, 1851 to 1876.

The said Order will, or may, incorporate all, or some, of the provisions of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, the Harbour, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and the Harbours and Passing Tolls Act, 1861, with such variations as may be provided in the said Order.

A Copy of this advertisement will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection in the Office at Haddington of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Haddington, in the Custom House at Dunbar, in the Custom House at Leith, and in the Office of the Board of Trade, London.

Printed Copies of the draft Provisional Order will be furnished by the Agents for the promoters, at their Offices as under, to all persons applying for the same, on and after the 23d day of December next, at the price of One Shilling each.

Dated this 11th day of November 1885.

CLYDE NAVIGATION.

(Extension of Time for Compulsory Purchase of Lands and Completion of Works; Provisions for Collecting and Enforcing Payment of Rates, Tolls, and Duties; Appointment of Master-Porters, Meters, Weighers, and other Officers; Power to Clyde Pilot Board to enter into Agreements with Proprietors and Lessees of Harbours, Piers, &c., in River and Firth of Clyde, for, or to require the Erection, Maintenance, and working by such Proprietors or Lessees of Signals for Regulating the Pilotage and Approach of Steam Vessels; Confirmation of Agreements; Bye-Laws, Officers, and Rates for Working Signals; Incorporation, Amendment or Repeal of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called 'the Bill') for effecting the objects and purposes aftermentioned, or some of them, that is to say:—

To extend the time limited by the Clyde Navigation Act, 1853, for the compulsory purchase of lands, houses, and other property for the purposes of the said Act, and also for the completion of the works thereby authorised.

To provide for the collection of the rates, tolls, and duties leviable under the Clyde Navigation Consolidation Act, 1858, and the Acts amending the same, or relating to or affecting the Trustees of the Clyde Navigation (hereinafter called 'the Trustees,') and for the imposition and enforcement of fines or penalties on the owners, masters, agents, or other persons in charge of vessels leaving the Harbour of Glasgow before payment is made of the rates, tolls, and duties leviable in respect of such vessels, or in respect of all or any part of the cargoes of such vessels.

To authorise the Trustees to appoint and license, from time to time, as they may think fit, Master-Porters, Meters, Weighers, Measurers, and Stevedores, within the limits of the said Harbour; to make regulations for the control and conduct of such Master-Porters, Meters, Weighers, Measurers, and Stevedores; and to fix the rates to be paid or remuneration to be made for Storing, Weighing, Measuring, Stowing, and Discharging of Cargoes within the said limits.

To authorise the Clyde Pilot Board, constituted under the powers contained in the said Clyde Navigation Consolidation Act, 1858 (hereinafter called 'the Pilot Board') to enter into and carry into effect Agreements with the Proprietors—whether in their own right, or as Trustees, Commissioners, or Conservators—or with the Lessees of all or any Harbours, Piers, Quays, or Wharfs in that part of the River or Firth of Clyde extending from the western limits of the jurisdiction of the Trustees to a straight line drawn due east and west from the southernmost point of the Island of Little Cumbrae, for the erection, maintenance, working, and use, on or near to such Harbours, Piers, Quays, or Wharfs respectively, of Semaphore Signals, or other Signalling apparatus which may be deemed necessary, and which may be approved of by the Board of Trade, for regulating the pilotage and approach of steam vessels calling at, or using such Harbours, Piers, Quays, or Wharfs; or otherwise, to empower and require the said Proprietors or Lessees to erect, maintain, work, and use on or near to such Harbours, Piers, Quays, or Wharfs respectively, such Semaphore Signals, or other Signalling apparatus as aforesaid.

To authorise the Pilot Board to make and alter bye-laws, rules, and regulations, for the working and use of the said Semaphore Signals, or other Signalling apparatus, and to impose and recover penalties for the breach or non-observance of such bye-laws, rules, and regulations; to appoint officers for carrying into effect the said bye-laws, rules, and regulations; to levy such rates or dues as may be found necessary for defraying the expenses connected with the working and use of the said Semaphore Signals, and other Signalling apparatus—but such rates or dues not in any case to exceed One Shilling per day, leviable on any Steam Vessel calling at or using any such Harbour, Pier, Quay, or Wharf, as aforesaid; and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such rates or dues.

To provide for the collection of the said Rates or Dues in respect of Signals, by the Pier-masters or other persons to be appointed by the Pilot Board as aforesaid, and for the accounting therefor to, and the administration thereof by, the Pilot Board; and to enable the Pilot Board, the said Proprietors or Lessees, and the Pier-masters, or any of them, to enter into and make Agreements with each other, for all or any of the purposes above mentioned, and to confirm all Agreements which have been or may be entered into in relation thereto; and for the purposes aforesaid, to confer upon the said Proprietors, Lessees, or Pier-masters all necessary powers for carrying such Agreements into effect.

To confer on the Pilot Board and on the said Proprietors, Lessees, or Pier-masters, subject to such alterations or modifications as may be provided in the Bill, all or some of the powers or privileges authorised by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and Acts amending the same.

To incorporate with the Bill, subject to such alterations or modifications as may be provided therein, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860, the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, the Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and Acts amending the said Acts, or any of them.

To alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Bill, the Clyde Navigation Consolidation Act, 1858, and all other Acts amending that Act or relating to or affecting the Clyde Navigation and the Pilot Board, and all other Local or Public Acts relating to or affecting the said several Harbours, Piers, Quays, or Wharfs, in the River and Firth of Clyde, within the limits aforesaid.

To vary or extinguish all powers, rights, and privileges which would in any manner interfere with or prevent the execution of the objects and purposes of the Bill, or any of them; and to confer all such powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the existing Acts relating to the undertaking of the Trustees, and of the Bill.

Copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December, 1885.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1885.
