

awarded by competition among children attending public or State-aided in the parish of Rathven, whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education, under such conditions and regulations as to age or otherwise as the governing body may from time to time determine. It shall be tenable for a period not exceeding two years at such school for higher education or technical instruction as the governing body may approve, or at a Scotch University.

No. 5.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Cameron and County of Fife, known as the Bell Fund, presently held by the School Board of the Parish of Cameron.

Operative Clause.

5. The governing body, after paying the necessary expenses of management, and the burdens and taxes affecting the Endowment, shall apply the income to one or other of the following objects as from time to time they see fit:—(a) They may establish a bursary to be awarded by competitive examination among children attending the school at Denhead in the parish of Cameron, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may be from time to time fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them a higher education. The bursary shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools to be approved by the governing body; or, (b) They may apply the income in paying the fees of poor and deserving children, with books and stationery, at the school of Denhead in the parish of Cameron who have passed in the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid in giving them higher education. These free scholarships shall be awarded on the result of a competitive examination, or as a reward for regularity of attendance, industry, general merit, and good conduct, all to be ascertained by the report of the teachers, and otherwise as the governing body may determine. Any payment under this sub-section shall be withdrawn in the case of children who fail to give regular attendance or make satisfactory progress at school.

No. 6.—Scheme, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the Administration of the Endowment in the Parish of Leuchars and County of Fife, known as the Henderson Mortification, hitherto held and administered under the Last Will and Testament of Alexander Henderson, dated 17th August 1646, and recorded in the Commissary Court Books at Edinburgh, 9th November 1646.

Operative Clause.

annual income in either of the following modes as they may from time to time see fit:—

(1) They may establish two school bursaries to be called the Henderson School Bursaries, to be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Leuchars, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving them higher education; these bursaries shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches, or

(2) They may establish a bursary for higher education to be called the Henderson Bursary, to be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Leuchars, whose parents or guardians require aid in giving them higher education, and whose age at the date of the competition shall not exceed fourteen years; it shall be tenable for such period, not exceeding three years, as the governors may determine, at such schools for higher education or technical instruction as they may approve.

NOTE.—In the above Schemes, the Endowments are transferred to the respective School Boards, and the usual clauses are inserted as to Investment, &c.

Board of Trade—Session 1886.

DUNBAR HARBOUR.
