

following days, notice of which examination was given in the London Gazette of the 6th October 1885, the undermentioned candidate obtained the first place:—

Name.	Locality of Examination.
Barnard, Ernest Augustus William	London

SECRETARY FOR SCOTLAND'S OFFICE,
WHITEHALL, 21st December 1885.

Whereas an Act was passed in the thirtieth and thirty-first years of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled 'An Act to consolidate and amend the law relating to the Public Health in Scotland;' and by the thirty-first section of the said Act it is enacted that 'Whenever any part of the United Kingdom appears to be threatened with, or is affected by, any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any three or more of them (the Lord President of the Council, or one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being one), may by Order or Orders by them from time to time made direct that the provisions for the prevention of diseases contained in Part III. hereof be put in force in Scotland, or in such parts thereof, or in such places therein, as in such Order or Orders may be expressed, and may from time to time, as to all or any of the parts or places to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like manner, revoke or renew such Order: and subject to revocation and renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for six calendar months, or for such shorter period as in such Order shall be expressed; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any Members thereof as aforesaid, shall be certified under the hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and such publication shall be conclusive evidence of such Order.'

And whereas by Order dated the 25th day of June 1885, in respect that the United Kingdom appeared to be threatened with a certain epidemic disease, that is to say, the Asiatic Cholera, the Lords of the Council did order that the provisions for the prevention of diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act thirty and thirty-first Victoria, chapter one hundred and one, should be put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of the said Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas the said Order will expire on the 26th day of December 1885.

And whereas it is expedient to renew the said Order for the space of three calendar months:

And whereas by 'The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885,' it is provided that all powers and duties vested in or imposed on the Privy Council by Part III. of the said Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, shall be transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the Secretary for Scotland.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said Secretary for Scotland Act, the Secretary for Scotland does order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council, dated the 25th day of June 1885, shall be renewed and shall continue in force for the space of three calendar months after the publication of this Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

F. R. SANDFORD,
Under-Secretary for Scotland.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland within whose District there is a Port or Harbour, in terms of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

Whereas by an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, dated the the twenty-fifth day of June 1885, the provisions for the Prevention of Diseases, contained in Part III. of the Act 30 and 31 Vic. c. 101, are put in force in Scotland for the space of six calendar months after the publication of the Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-first day of December 1885, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of three calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette:

Therefore, exercising the powers conferred upon them by the 33d section of the foresaid Statute, the Board of Supervision renew the Directions and Regulations issued by them on the twenty-sixth day of June and the fifth day of November 1885, prohibiting the Importation of Rags from Spain, and continue the same in force, unless revoked or altered, until the first day of March 1886.

Certified and signed by me,

JOHN SKELTON, Secretary.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh,
22d December 1885.
