Whereas it has been notified to Us, through Our Secretary of State for the Colonies, that an International Exhibition is to be held in Adelaide, in Our Colony of South Australia, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven:

And whereas it is Our wish that the Manufacturing Industry, Agriculture, and Fine Arts of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and of Our Colonies and Dependencies in Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, and in the remaining portions of Australasia, shall be fully and suitably represented at this Exhibition:

Now know ye, that We, considering the premises, and earnestly desiring to promote the success of the said Exhibition, and reposing great trust and confidence in your fidelity, discretion, and integrity, have authorised and appointed, and by these presents do authorise and appoint you, Our said dear Cousin and Councillor George William Frederic Charles, Duke of Cambridge; together with you the said William Drogo, Duke of Manchester; George Augustus Constantine, Marquess of Normanby; Archibald Philip, Earl of Rosebery; Henry Howard Molyneux, Earl of Carnarvon; Windham Thomas, Earl of Dunraven and Mount-Edgar; Granville George, Earl Granville; Richard Assheton, Viscount Cross; Henry, Baron Thring; Edward Stanhope (commonly called the Honourable Edward Stanhope); Sir James Fergusson; Sir Henry Thurstan Holland; Sir John Rose; Charles William Fremantle (commonly called the Honourable Charles William Fremantle); Sir Frederic Leighton; Sir Richard Owen; Sir Francis Philip Cunliffe-Owen; Sir Joseph Dalton Hooker; Sir John Gilbert; Sir James Dromgale Linton; and John Fretcheville Dykes Donnelly, to be Our Commissioners to obtain and distribute full information as to the best mode by which the products of the Manufacturing and Agricultural Industry and the Fine Arts of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Our Colonies and Dependencies, may be procured and forwarded for exhibition, to assist with their advice and co-operation, and generally to promote the success of the said Exhibition in South Australia:

And Our further will and pleasure is that you, or any three or more of you, when and so often as need or occasion shall require, so long as this Our Commission shall continue in force, do report to Us, in writing under your hands and seals respectively, all and every the several proceedings of yourselves had by virtue of these presents:

And lastly, We do by these presents ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue until the close of the said Exhibition, and that you Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, shall and may from time to time, and at any place or places, proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment; and for the purpose of aiding you in such matters, We hereby appoint Our trusty and well-beloved Sir Herbert Bruce Sandford, Knight, Lieutenant-Colonel and Honorary Colonel on the Retired List of Our Army, to be Secretary to this Our Commission.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the twenty-ninth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the fiftieth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's command.
