RENFREW COUNTY AND PAISLEY BURGH BUILDINGS.

(Transference of Existing County and Burgh Buildings to Town Council of Paisley; Price to be paid by them to Commissioners of Supply of Renfrewshire; Transference of Feudal Duties to and Acquisition of Lands and Erection of New County Buildings by those Commissioners; Contributions towards Cost thereof out of County Road, County Police, and County General Assessments; Alteration, Erection, and Sale of Buildings by Town Council; Application of Surplus Revenues, Police Assessments, and other Funds of Burgh towards Price and Cost of Buildings; Powers to Borrow; Assessments; Repeal, Amendment, and Incorporation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to effect the following purposes, or some of them, that is to say:—

To provide for the transference of the existing County and Burgh Buildings in the Burgh of Paisley, and Lands connected therewith, to the Town Council of that Burgh, in consideration of a price to be paid by them to the Commissioners of Supply of the County of Renfrew, to be applied towards the cost of the lands and new buildings and accommodation to be provided by those Commissioners as hereinafter mentioned.

To authorise the said Commissioners to take and acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, certain lands, houses, and other property, situate in the Middle Church Parish of Paisley, Parliamentary Burgh of Paisley, and County of Renfrew; and bounded on the South by St. James Street, on the East by Love Street, on the North by Lands belonging or reputed to belong to James Caldwell, Junior, Writer in Paisley, and on the West by Lands belonging or reputed to belong to the said Commissioners for the purposes of the Sheriff-Court Houses Act, 1860; and to acquire other Lands by agreement; and to erect and maintain on any of the said Lands New County Buildings, and to fit up and furnish therein a County Hall, a Court Hall, and Apartments and Offices, for the use of themselves and of the County Road Trustees, the County Road Board, and the Justices of the Peace of the said County, and the Committees and Clerks, Collectors, and other Officers of those respective bodies, as also a County Police Office, Station House, Lock-up, Dwellings for Constables, and other accommodation for the public business of the said County; and to manage the same, and to let and allow the use of portions thereof, and to charge such Rents or other consideration for such use as may be agreed on or otherwise fixed; as also to appoint a Committee, with power to appoint Sub-Committees for the purposes aforesaid, or some of them.

To authorise and require contributions towards the cost of the said lands, buildings, and accommodation, and of the maintenance, management, and use thereof, out of the County Road Assessment, the County Police Assessment, and the County General Assessment of the said County.

To authorise the said Town Council to make alterations on the buildings to be transferred to them as aforesaid, and to erect and maintain additional buildings, and to fit up and furnish additional offices, apartments, police cells, and other accommodation for the use of themselves as the Municipal Corporation of the Burgh of Paisley, and as Commissioners of Police thereof, and as having the management of the Gas, Water, Roads, and Improvement Undertakings of the said Burgh, and for the use of the Trustees of the Cart Navigation, and of any other Trusts undertakings and bodies connected with the said Burgh, and their respective Committees and Clerks, Officers, and Servants; and to charge such rents or other consideration for the use thereof as may be agreed on or otherwise fixed, to be paid out of the Assessments or Rates levied by or other funds belonging to the said Trusts, undertakings, and bodies respectively; as also to erect a Town Steeple on the Lands to be transferred to them as aforesaid, or on other lands belonging to them adjoining thereto.

To authorise the said Town Council to apply towards the price to be paid, and the cost to be incurred by them as aforesaid, the surplus revenues of the Common Good of the said Burgh already accumulated, and which shall hereafter arise, and other moneys which they were authorised by the Paisley Improvement Act, 1877, to apply towards the cost of acquiring lands and erecting and providing similar buildings and other accommodation, and a portion of the Assessments leviable by them as Commissioners of Police of the said Burgh, and to borrow on mortgage on the security specified in the said Act.

To authorise the said Town Council to sell the Gaol and Bridewell, the School of Design, and certain other buildings in Paisley now belonging to them, and to exempt them from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, with respect to the sale of superfluous lands.

To provide for the transference to the said

Commissioners of Supply, and the sale or realisation by them, of certain feu-duties and incidents thereof, and of the lands out of which the same are payable, now vested in the Commissioners acting under the powers of the Local Acts, 55 George III., Chapter 73, and 58 George III., Chapter 52, for erecting and maintaining a Bridewell, Gaol, Court-House, and Public Offices, for the Burgh of Paisley and County of Renfrew; and, after the execution by the last-mentioned Commissioners of conveyances of the said Feu-Duties in favour of the said Commissioners of Supply, and of the existing County and Burgh Buildings and Lands connected therewith in favour of the Town Council of Paisley, to repeal those two Acts, and to provide that the Commissioners thereby appointed shall cease to exist.

To authorise the said Commissioners of Supply to borrow money on the security of the County General Assessment of the said County; to increase the rate of that Assessment; to grant Mortgages and Assignations thereof; and to provide for the ranking of Mortgages and Assignations of that Assessment.

To authorise the levying of Rates and Assessments, the alteration of existing Rates and Assessments, the conferring, varying, and extinguishing of exemptions from payment of Rates and Assessments, the execution of conveyances, and the making and confirmation of agreements, with reference to the objects aforesaid; to vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which might interfere with any of those objects; and to confer all rights and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting those objects or in relation thereto.

To amend the Act 2 and 3 Victoria, chapter 42, intituled "An Act to improve Prisons and Prison discipline in Scotland," The Prisons (Scotland) Act, 1877, the Act 20 and 21 Victoria, Chapter 72, intituled "An Act to render more effectual the police in Counties and Burghs in Scotland," The Sheriff Court-Houses Act, 1860, The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862, The County General Assessment (Scotland) Act, 1868, The Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, The Paisley Corporation Gas Act, 1870, The Paisley Burgh and Cart Navigation Act, 1872, The Paisley Waterworks Act 1854, The Paisley Waterworks Act, 1866, The Paisley Waterworks Act, 1876, The Paisley Improvement Act, 1877, The Paisley Waterworks Act, 1881, The Cart Navigation Act, 1885, or some of those Acts; and to incorporate with the said Bill The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860.

Plans describing the lands, houses, and other property, which may be taken compulsorily for the purposes of the said Bill, and Books of Reference to the said plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, with copies of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection in the office at Paisley of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Renfrew, and with the Session-Clerk of the Middle Church Parish of Paisley at his office No. 2 Gilmour Street, Paisley; and Printed Copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill

Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

ORKNEY HARBOURS CONSOLIDATION.

(Constitution and Incorporation of Commissioners for the Harbours of Kirkwall, Scapa, and Holm, and of Gill, Whitehall (Stronsay), and Kettletoft, in the County of Orkney; Transference to and vesting of these Harbours and Undertakings in the Commissioners; Dissolution of existing Harbour Trusts, and appointment of Commissioners as Harbour and Pilotage Authorities; Limits of Harbours; Extension of Limits of Scapa Harbour; Powers under the Orkney Piers Act, 1872 as to Acquisition, Construction, and Abandonment of Piers, &c.; Rates; Borrowing Powers and Harbour Debts; Incorporation of General Acts; Amendment or Repeal of Acts and Provisional Orders; Other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Trustees of the Harbour of Kirkwall and the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours in the County of Orkney for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called 'the Bill') to effect the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To provide for the appointment and election of a body of public Harbour Commissioners for the Ports, Harbours, and Piers of Kirkwall, Scapa and Holm, and of Gill, Whitehall (Stronsay), and Kettletoft, all in the County of Orkney, such body of public Harbour Commissioners (hereinafter called 'the Commissioners') to be nominated, appointed, or elected by or from the Commissioners of Supply for the County of Orkney, the County Road Trustees, or County Road Board for Orkney, the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours in the County of Orkney, the Town Council or Corporation of the Burgh of Kirkwall, the registered shipowners of the Port of Kirkwall, and the Harbour ratepayers, or persons paying Harbour dues, rates, or charges, residing, or having their places of business within, the said Burgh of Kirkwall, or other places within the County, or some of such public bodies, and such other ratepayers, bodies, or persons, and in such way and manner as may be provided by the Bill, or fixed by Parliament, and to fix the qualifications of the Commissioners and of the nominating bodies or electors.

2. To incorporate the Commissioners as a body corporate, with perpetual succession, and with power to sue and be sued, and to take, hold, and dispose of lands and other property, and to provide for the conduct and management of the business of the Commissioners, and their meetings, committees, quorums, and voting; and to empower the Commissioners to appoint clerks, treasurers, collectors, surveyors, and all other officers and servants, or to continue such officers, and to make provision as to the accounts of the Commissioners and the accountability of officers, and confer all other powers necessary or convenient for carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the Bill.

3. To transfer to and vest in the Commissioners for the purposes of the Bill, by purchase, sale, lease, or otherwise, and to consolidate under their management, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on, or as may be provided by the Bill, the several Harbours and Ports and Piers after mentioned, that is to say:

- (1) The Harbour of the Burgh of Kirkwall, and
- (2) The Pier and Harbour of Scapa, in the united Parishes of Kirkwall and Saint Ola;
- (3) The Pier and Harbour of Holm, in the Parish of Holm;
- (4) The Pier at Gill, in the Bay of Pierowall, and Island and Parish of Westray;
- (5) The Pier and Harbour at Whitehall, in the Island and Parish of Stronsay; and
- (6) The Pier at Kettletoft, in the Parish of Cross and Burness, in the Island of Sanday; all in the County of Orkney;

Together with all docks, piers, quays, jetties, wharves, warehouses, roads, and other works within, or in connection with, these harbours and undertakings, and all lands, houses, buildings, debts, moneys, property, estate, and effects, rights, interests, and privileges possessed by the Trustees of the Harbour of the Burgh of Kirkwall, under the Kirkwall Harbour Act, 1859, in respect of that Harbour,—by the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours, in the County of Orkney, under the Orkney Piers and Harbours Act, 1872, or other persons in respect of the Pier and Harbour of Scapa, and of the Pier at Holm constructed or constituted under the authority of the said last mentioned Act,—by Colonel David Balfour of Trenabie, and his successors in title, in respect of the Pier at Gill and of the Pier and Harbour at Whitehall (Stronsay), and by the Orkney Steam Navigation Company Limited, in respect of the Pier at Kettletoft, the said last mentioned parties being the undertakers of the Piers and Works at Gill, Whitehall (Stronsay), and Kettletoft, for carrying into execution the following Provisional Orders made by the Board of Trade, and duly confirmed by Parliament, viz., 'The Gill Pier Order, 1872,' 'The Whitehall (Stronsay) Pier and Harbour Order, 1879,' and 'The Kettletoft Pier Order, 1882,' and to enable the Commissioners on the one hand, and the Trustees of the Harbour of Kirkwall, the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours in the County of Orkney, and the undertakers before named of the said Provisional Orders relating to Gill, Whitehall (Stronsay), and Kettletoft Piers, and all other necessary parties, on the other hand, respectively to enter into, make, and execute all contracts, agreements, deeds, and writings, and do all such acts, matters, and things as may be necessary and convenient for effectually completing such transfer to, and the vesting of their said several Harbour undertakings and property in, the Commissioners, subject to such conditions, reservations, and privileges as may be agreed upon, and for effecting the dissolution and winding up of the existing Harbour Commissions or Trusts and undertakings intended to be taken over by the Commissioners and consolidated under their management under the Bill, and if, and where necessary, to confirm such contracts, agreements, and other documents and transactions by the Bill.

4. To provide for the dissolution of the existing Harbour Commissions and Trusts or undertakings in Orkney, intended by the Bill to be transferred to the Commissioners as aforesaid and constitute the Commissioners as the Harbour authority and proper pilotage authority of the several Harbours, Ports, and Piers within the limits thereof, as authorised by the Kirkwall Harbour Act, 1859, and the before mentioned Provisional Orders respectively, and as such limits are or have been fixed by the Board of Trade, with respect to the Piers erected and Harbours constituted within the County of Orkney, by virtue of the powers to that effect conferred on that Board by the Orkney Piers and Harbours Act, 1872, or as such limits may be extended with respect to the said several Harbours, Ports, and Piers, or any of them, under the powers to that effect contained in the last mentioned Act, or as may be provided in the Bill; and to enable the Commissioners to license pilots and to appoint harbour masters, meters and weighers, and confer on the Commissioners all necessary powers for the improvement and maintenance of the existing Harbours and works within and at the said several Harbours, Ports, and Piers, and for the regulation, management, control, and administration thereof, and of passengers, animals, and goods resorting to and using the same, and for the anchoring, passage, navigation, pilotage, and shipping, and to make bye-laws thereanent and for the other purposes of the Bill; to provide for the procedure to be followed in the trial and punishment of offenders, and to confer on the Commissioners all the powers and privileges authorized by 'The Merchant Shipping Acts, 1854 to 1880,' or some of such last mentioned Acts as may be proper and expedient and as may be provided in the Bill.

5. The limits of the several Harbours, Ports, and Piers in Orkney intended to be vested in and consolidated under the management of the Commissioners by the Bill, are as follows:—

- (1.) As to the Harbour of the Burgh of Kirkwall,—

The jurisdiction over the sea and the limits of the Harbour with respect to conservancy, are bounded on the north by a line drawn from a point at Cromwell's Fort on the east side of the Bay of Kirkwall to a point on the opposite or western shore situated 400 yards to the north of the Oyce mouth; and the limits of the said Harbour with respect to rates, extends along the shore of Kirkwall Bay between the two points on the eastern and western sides thereof before specified, and extends to and includes the space within the limits of deviation for new works defined on the plans deposited with reference to the Kirkwall Harbour Act, 1859, together with the opening called the Oyce Mouth and Bridge then lately erected over the same, and the whole area of the then existing piers, jetties, and works, and of the works authorized to be made under the provisions of that Act;

(2.) As to Scapa Pier,—

The limits within which the authority of the Harbour Master, and the right to levy rates and duties are conferred, in respect of the said Pier, are those comprised within the red lines drawn upon the plan deposited in the Board of Trade with reference to Scapa Pier, dated 11th July 1878, viz., an imaginary line commencing in the line of high water mark at a point opposite to the building known as Nether Scapa, and drawn due south-west into the Bay of Scapa for a distance of 2150 feet, and thence in a direction due south-east until it reaches a point in the line of high water mark on the south-east side of the said Bay;

(3.) As to Holm Pier,—

The limits within which the authority of the Harbour Master, and the right to levy rates and duties are conferred, in respect of the said Pier, are comprised within the red lines drawn upon the plan deposited with the Board of Trade with reference to the Pier at St. Mary's in Holm Sound, dated the 1st day of June 1877, viz., an imaginary straight line drawn from the extremity of the headland called Skeldaquoy to a point on the shore about 315 yards in a straight line from the south-eastern corner of the old store house on the road east of the village of St. Mary's;

(4.) As to Gill Pier,—

The limits within which the undertakers have authority (being the limits to which the Gill Pier Order 1872, and the power to levy rates extend) comprise the works by that Order authorised, and the lands, foreshore, and sea contained within the same, and include the area below high water mark within a distance of 300 yards measured in any direction seawards from the middle of the south-west wall of the building known as the Store House of Gill, on the north-east Shore of Pierowall Bay;

(5.) As to Whitehall (Stronsay) Pier and Harbour,—

The limits within which the undertakers have authority (being the limits to which 'The Whitehall (Stronsay) Pier and Harbour Order, 1879,' and the power to levy rates extend), comprise the then existing Pier and the extension thereof (in the Order referred to together as the Pier), and the works authorised by that Order, and the accesses, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and the following areas below the line of high water, that is to say:

The area between the lands of the said Colonel David Balfour, in the Island of Stronsay, and his Lands and Island of Papa-Stronsay, bounded on the east by an imaginary straight line commencing at the extreme low water mark of Griceness Point in the Island of Stronsay, and drawn true north to the extreme low water mark at the point of Easthouse, in the Island of Papa-Stronsay, and on the west by an imaginary straight line commencing at the extreme low water mark at the point of Huipsness on the said Island of Stronsay, and drawn in a south-easterly direction to the extreme low water mark at the point of Outer Grand in the Island of Papa-Stronsay;

(6.) As to Kettletoft Pier,—

The limits within which the undertakers have authority (being the limits to which the 'Kettletoft Pier Order, 1882,' extends), comprise the then existing Pier and the extension thereof, and works authorised by that Order (therein referred to together as the Pier), and the accesses, works, and conveniences connected therewith, and the area below the line of high water mark lying within a distance of 100 yards measured from any part of the Pier.

6. To extend the limits of the Harbour of Scapa, both with respect to rates and with respect to the exercise by the Commissioners of the powers and duties of Harbour and Pilotage authorities. Such extension of limits as regards Scapa Pier and Harbour will, in addition to the Harbour area of Scapa hereinbefore described, include the following limits, viz., from the point in the line of high water mark on the south-east side of the said Bay last mentioned in the description of the limits of Scapa Pier and Harbour hereinbefore set forth, thence along the shore in the line of high water mark in a southerly direction for 350 feet, and thence in a straight line across the Bay of Scapa to a point in the line of high water mark on the western or opposite shore of the Bay at or near Lingro, such extended limits lying to the north-east of the last-mentioned straight line; or such other or lesser limits, and with or without such provisions and limitations as may be provided by the Bill or fixed by Parliament.

7. To confer on or vest in the Commissioners all or some of the powers conferred by the Orkney Piers and Harbours Act, 1872, on the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours in the County of Orkney incorporated by that Act; to provide for and regulate the appointment and election of Commissioners under that Act, and the Bill by or from the County Road Trustees, or the County Road Board of Orkney appointed and acting under the Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878, in lieu of such Commissioners being nominated and elected by the Trustees for the Orkney Roads appointed and acting by virtue of The Orkney Roads Act, 1857, and The Orkney Roads Act, 1867; and to empower the Commissioners, with or without the approval of the Board of Trade, under the powers conferred by the Orkney Piers and Harbours Act, 1872, as such powers may be extended, varied, or altered by the Bill, from time to time to do the following things or some of them:—(1) To purchase or acquire by agreement or lease with the undertakers thereof, any road piers, private piers, county or other piers or harbours and works within the County of Orkney; (2) to construct and erect new piers within any harbour in the County; and (3) to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of onerously or gratuitously, or to alter or abandon any of the harbours, piers, works, or undertakings, of or belonging to the Commissioners or to the Commissioners for Piers and Harbours in the County of Orkney; to enable these Commissioners and the said County Road Trustees or County Road Board, and all other necessary parties, to make and enter into all agreements with the Commissioners, and do all other acts and things necessary and convenient with respect to such purchase or acqui-tion, sale or lease, alteration or abandonment of their undertakings or any part thereof; and to empower the Commissioners from time to time to acquire by agreement any lands, houses, or other property for the purposes of their several Harbour undertakings.

8. To empower the Commissioners to levy tolls, rates, duties and charges in respect of the several harbours, docks, piers, undertakings and works to be transferred to and vested in them under the Bill, or as may in future be acquired or constructed by them, on vessels, boats, and other craft entering, or using, or anchoring within the existing limits of the several Harbours in Orkney hereinbefore described, or within such limits as intended to be extended as aforesaid, and in any Harbour where piers may in future be acquired or constructed, and on passengers, animals, fish, and goods embarked, landed, and shipped or unshipped therein, or at the docks, quays, or other works of the Commissioners connected therewith; to continue the existing tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorized by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts and Provisional Orders or any of them, with such alterations or modifications as may be agreed on between the parties and the undertakers or other persons as hereinbefore mentioned; to alter or extinguish existing tolls, rates, duties, and charges, or omit the levying of them or any part thereof, and to advance or revive the same again, or to lease or compound such tolls, rates, duties, and charges or any of them; to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of tolls, rates, duties, and charges; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

9. To empower the Commissioners to borrow money by way of mortgage, cash credit, or otherwise for the purposes of the before-mentioned Acts or Orders, and of the Bill, or any of them, and to reborrow on the security of the said harbours, piers, works, and property, and of the tolls, rates, duties, and charges authorised under the before-mentioned Acts and Orders, or under the Bill, or any of them; to make provision for the payment and discharge by the Commissioners of the existing and future debts incurred in connection with or affecting the said several Harbours and Piers in Orkney, for the allocation of such debts and for the ranking and preferences of the several mortgagees or creditors, owners or undertakers of the various Harbour undertakings intended to be vested by the Bill in the Commissioners; to establish a sinking fund for the repayment of moneys borrowed, or to continue the sinking funds now in operation under the before-mentioned Acts and Provisional Orders or any of them, with such changes or modifications therein as may be found convenient; and to provide for the application of the funds and revenues of the Commissioners.

10. To incorporate with the Bill all or some of the provisions of the following Acts, viz.:—The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, The Lands Clauses Consolidation Amendment Act, 1860, and The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, with such alterations or modifications therein respectively as may be provided by the Bill.

11. To alter, amend, vary, or repeal, or to revive and extend or enlarge, so far as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Bill, all or some of the provisions of the following

Acts of Parliament, viz.:—The Kirkwall Harbour Act, 1859, The Orkney Piers and Harbours Act, 1872, the before-mentioned Provisional Orders relating to Gill, Whitehall (Stronsay), and Kettletoft Piers, The Orkney Roads Act, 1857, The Orkney Roads Act, 1867, and The Roads and Bridges (Scotland) Act, 1878; and to repeal, vary, or extinguish all rights, powers, privileges, and exemptions which may interfere with the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights or privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December next, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 10th day of November 1886.

GLASGOW CENTRAL & SUBURBAN RAILWAY.

(Incorporation of Company; Construction of Railway from Caledonian Railway (Central Station Branch), to Caledonian Railway (Buchanan Street Branch), with Branch Railways to Kelvinside, and Shafts or Openings and other Works connected therewith; Acquisition of Lands and Sale of Superfluous Lands; Power to Purchase parts of Properties; Payment of Interest during Construction of Works; Tolls; Working and Traffic Agreements and Facilities; Power to Caledonian Railway Company to subscribe, and to raise money, and to appoint Directors; Exception of certain Traffic; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts, and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act, hereinafter called "the Act," to effect the purposes following, or some of them, that is to say:

To incorporate a Company hereinafter called "the Company" to make and maintain the Railways and Works hereinafter mentioned, or some or one of them, together with all necessary and convenient stations, approaches, viaducts, bridges, roads, tunnels, covered ways, shafts, communications, sewers, and other works and conveniences connected therewith respectively, that is to say:

I. A Railway, (No. 1) commencing by a junction with the Line No. 1, described in and authorised by the Caledonian Railway (Gordon Street Station Connecting Lines) Act, 1875, at or near the north abutment in Broomielaw Street of the Viaduct carrying that Line over the River Clyde, and terminating at or near the area wall in front of the house numbered 8 in Albany Place, Sauchiehall Street, at or near a point opposite the centre of that house; which intended Railway and Works will be situate within the Parishes and places following, viz.:—City Parish of Glasgow and Barony Parish of Glasgow, and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, in the County of Lanark.

II. A Railway, (No. 2) commencing by a junction with the intended Railway No. 1 at the termination thereof, above described, and terminating by a junction with the Caledonian Railway Company's Line, leading from Buchanan Street to Coat-bridge, at or near a point 245 yards or thereabouts, measuring in a northerly direction along that Line from the north-east side of the Bridge carrying Dobbie's Loan over that Line; which intended Railway and Works will be situate within the Parishes and places following, viz.:—City Parish of Glasgow and Barony Parish of Glasgow, and Royal Burgh of Glasgow, in the County of Lanark.

III. A Railway, (No. 3) commencing by a junction with the intended Railway No. 1 at the termination thereof above described, and terminating on the east side of Otago Street, Hillhead, at or near a point 97 yards or thereabouts, measuring in a southerly direction from the eastern corner of Otago Street at its junction with the Great Western Road; which intended Railway and Works will be situate within the Parishes and places following, viz.:—Barony Parish of Glasgow and Parish of Govan, in the County of Lanark.

IV. A Railway, (No. 4) commencing by a junction with the intended Railway No. 2, above described, in the centre of West Graham Street, at or near a point 60 yards or thereabouts, measuring in an easterly direction along the centre of that street from the point of its intersection with the centre of Thistle Street, and terminating by a junction with the intended Railway No. 3, above described, on the east side of Cumberland Street West, at or near a point 6 yards or thereabouts, measuring in a southerly direction from the south-eastern corner of the last-named street, where it intersects Grant Street; which intended Railway and Works will be situate wholly within the Barony Parish of Glasgow and County of Lanark.

V. A Railway, (No. 5) commencing by a junction with the intended Railway No. 3 at the termination thereof, above described, and terminating in land belonging, or reputed to belong, to James Buchanan-Mirrlees, and in his occupation, on the south side of Montgomerie Drive, Kelvin-side, at or near a point 210 yards or thereabouts, measuring in an easterly direction from the south-east corner of Crossloan Road, where it intersects Montgomerie Drive; which intended Railway and Works will be situate within the Parishes and places following, viz.:—Govan and Maryhill Parishes, in the County of Lanark.

And it is proposed by the Act to take and confer on the Company the powers, and to provide for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, or some of them; that is to say:

To deviate laterally from the lines of the intended Railways and Works to the extent shown on the plans hereinafter mentioned, and to deviate vertically from the levels shown on the sections hereinafter mentioned, within the limits usually authorized, or as may be prescribed by the Act:

To construct stations, sidings, goods depots, wharves, warehouses, sewers, works, buildings, and conveniences in connection with the intended Railways:

To cross, alter, stop up, and divert for the purposes of the intended Railways and Works, either temporarily or permanently, turnpike, statute labour and other roads, streets, ways, streams, gas, water, and other pipes, drains, sewers, bridges, footways, telegraphs, railways, and tramways and works of every description which it may be necessary or expedient to cross, alter, stop up, or divert for any of the purposes of the Act, within the Parishes and places aforesaid, or any of them:

To appropriate and use the subsoil and under surface, and to alter the lines and levels of any streets, roads, squares, passages, or places under or along which the intended Railways will be made, or contiguous or near thereto, within the parishes and places aforesaid, and any sewers, drains, mains, pipes, and other works in or under the same, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Railways:

To make and maintain shafts or openings from the surface of any land, road, street, or square, to any portion of the intended Railways, subject to such provisions and limitations as may be contained in the Act; and for the purpose of the said shafts or openings, to interfere with all sewers, drains, gas and water mains and pipes, telegraph wires, and other works which might impede the construction and use of the said shafts or openings:

To underpin or otherwise secure or strengthen any houses or other buildings which may be rendered insecure or be affected by the intended Railways and Works, and which may not be required for the purposes thereof:

To purchase and take by compulsion or agreement, or to lease, feu, or otherwise acquire lands, houses, and hereditaments for the purposes of the intended Railways and Works, and of the Act; and also rights of easement and servitude, and other rights in or over lands, houses, and other property, and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges connected with the lands, houses, and other property so to be acquired, as aforesaid, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the construction, maintenance, or use of the intended Railways and Works:

To sell and convey, feu, lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands, houses, and other property, purchased or acquired under the powers of the Act, and which may not be required for the intended Railways, or under the powers of the Act:

To repeal or alter the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and any Acts amending the same, relating to the limits of lateral and vertical deviation, and to other matters pertaining to the construction of the Railways, the temporary use of lands, crossing and alteration of roads, or other interference therewith, and works for the accommodation and protection of lands adjoining the Railway; also certain of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, and any Acts amending the same, relating to the purchase of buildings and manufactories, the settlement of questions of disputed compensation, and the sale of superfluous lands, and to provide that it shall not be necessary for the Company to purchase the whole of any house or other building or manufactory, when part only is required for the purposes of the Act :

To levy tolls, rates, duties, and charges upon, or in respect of the use of the intended Railways and Works, and for the conveyance of traffic thereon ; to alter existing tolls, rates, duties, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of any such tolls, rates, duties, and charges, or other rights or privileges :

To authorise the Company to raise money for the purposes of their undertaking by the creation and issue of shares, and by borrowing on mortgage or bond, and to exercise all other usual and necessary powers for carrying into effect the objects of the Act :

To enable the Company, notwithstanding anything contained in The Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845, to pay interest and dividends on any shares or stock of the Company during the construction of the intended Railways, Stations, and Works, and until the completion thereof respectively, or until such other time as may be prescribed by the intended Act :

To authorise the Company on the one hand, and the Caledonian Railway Company on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect and rescind contracts, agreements, and arrangements for or with respect to the construction, working, use, management, and maintenance of the intended Railways, or any part thereof, and with respect to the supply of rolling-stock and machinery, and the appointment and removal of officers and servants for the purposes of the traffic of the intended Railways ; the payments to be made and the conditions to be performed with respect to such construction, working, use, management, maintenance and supply as aforesaid ; the interchange, accommodation, conveyance, and delivery of traffic passing over or using the intended Railways, and the Railways and other works of the Caledonian Railway Company, and the levying, fixing, collecting, and apportionment of the tolls and revenue arising from such traffic ; and to confirm, and, if thought fit, to vary any contract or agreement with reference to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, made or to be made prior to the passing of the Act :

To require the Caledonian Railway Company and their, or any of their lessees and assigns, upon such terms as shall be agreed upon or be settled by Arbitration, or be provided by the Act, to receive, book through, forward, accommodate, transmit, and deliver on, over, and from their railway or undertaking, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, or the railways or undertakings of which they are, or may be lessees, or which may be under their management or control, and the works and conveniences connected therewith, traffic of whatsoever description coming from or destined for the intended Railways or any part thereof, and for these purposes to afford all necessary and proper facilities ; and to fix, alter, and vary the tolls, rates, and charges which the Caledonian Railway Company may be authorised to take and receive in respect of such traffic, upon, or in respect of their railway or undertaking, or the works and conveniences connected therewith, or upon the railways or undertakings of which the Caledonian Railway Company are, or may be lessees, or which may be under their management or control, and the works and conveniences connected therewith respectively, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from payment of any such tolls, rates, and charges :

To authorise the Caledonian Railway Company to subscribe and contribute funds towards the making and maintaining the intended Railways, and to take and hold shares in the capital of the Company, and to guarantee or undertake to pay to or for the Company interest, dividend, annual, or other payment on shares or stock, and the principal and interest of any loan of the Company ; and for all or any of the purposes of the Act to apply their funds and revenues, and to raise more money by the creation of guaranteed, preference, ordinary, or debenture shares or stock, and by mortgage or bond or cash credit, and that either as part of their general share and loan capital, or wholly or partially as a separate share and loan capital, charged primarily or exclusively on the intended Railways, and the tolls, rates, and duties received upon and in respect thereof ; and to authorise the Caledonian Railway Company to appoint Directors of the Company :

To authorise the Company, and any companies or corporations or commissioners, or road, statute labour, bridge, or harbour trustees, or other bodies or persons, to enter into and carry into effect such arrangements and agreements as may be necessary or expedient for making, maintaining, working, or using the intended Railways, and for the construction and maintenance of any sewers, drains, or other works which may be interfered with or rendered necessary in carrying into effect the objects and purposes of the Act :

To exempt the Company, if considered expedient so to do, from any obligation to carry on the intended Railways, any particular description of traffic which may be specified in the Act, or to limit the hours during which any such traffic may be carried, and to prohibit or restrict any other company, corporation, body, or person, from using the intended Railways for such traffic :

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any way interfere with or prevent the execution of the purposes of the Act, or any of them, and to confer all powers, rights and privileges which may be necessary for carrying the same into effect :

To incorporate with the Act (except so far as they may be expressly varied thereby), all, or some of the powers and provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845 ;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863 ;" "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869 ;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845 ;" "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts Amendment Act, 1860 ;" "The Railways Clauses Consolidation (Scotland) Act, 1845 ;" and "The Railways Clauses Act, 1863," and Acts amending any of the said Acts :

To alter, amend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Act, the several Acts following, or some of them ; that is to say, "The Caledonian Railway Act, 1845," and the several other Acts relating to the Caledonian Railway Company, and to the undertakings belonging to, amalgamated with, or leased, or worked, or authorised to be worked by or vested in that Company ; "The Glasgow City and District Railway Act, 1882," "The Glasgow Police Acts, 1866, 1872, 1873, 1875, and 1877," and "The General Police and Improvement (Scotland) Act, 1862," "Order Confirmation (Glasgow) Act, 1877," and any other Acts relating to the Police and Improvement of Glasgow, "The Glasgow Street Tramways Act, 1870," and the several other Acts relating to the Tramways belonging to the Corporation of Glasgow, or authorised to be constructed by them, or their lessees, and also all Acts recited in, or incorporated with, or amending any of the several Acts above mentioned or referred to.

Plans and sections describing the lines, situations, and levels of the intended Railways, and the lands, houses, and other property which will or may be taken for the purposes thereof, with a Book of Reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of such lands, houses, and other property, and an Ordnance Map with the line of the intended Railways delineated thereon, and a copy of this Notice as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November, 1886, be deposited for public inspection in the office at Glasgow of the principal Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Lanark, and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each of the above-mentioned Parishes, and to the Royal Burgh of Glasgow, with a copy of this Notice, will, on or before the said 30th day of November, 1886, be deposited for public inspection with the Session-Clerk of each of such Parishes at his residence, and with the Town Clerk of the Royal Burgh of Glasgow at his office in Glasgow.

Printed copies of the Bill for the Act will, on or before the 21st day of December, 1886, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

NATIONAL PROVIDENT INSTITUTION.

(Altering, Amending, and Enlarging Powers of the Institution; Powers to Sue and be Sued; Provisions as to Criminal Proceedings; Preparation, Verification, and Enrolment of Memorials of Names and Addresses of Directors and other Officers; Delegation of Powers; Provision as to Vesting Property, &c., in Trustees; Rules and Regulations; Duties of Officers; Sale, Exchange, Demise, Management, &c., of Lands and other Property; Investment of Funds; Accountability of, and Summary Remedies against, Officers, &c.; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the National Provident Institution (hereinafter called 'the Institution') for leave to bring in a Bill and to pass an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To confer on the Institution power to sue and be sued in their own name or in the name of public officers to be appointed by or under the provisions of the Bill, and to confer on the Institution all such new and further powers, rights, and privileges, as may be necessary or expedient for facilitating legal and other proceedings by and against them, and in respect of the property and effects of the Institution.

2. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of actions and proceedings of whatsoever nature or character by or against the Institution, whether at law or in equity, bankruptcy, or lunacy, or under any insolvency or sequestration or otherwise howsoever as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere, and in the case of proceedings against the Institution as well by members of the Institution as by other persons, and to declare that such provisions shall have a retrospective as well as a present and future operation and effect.

3. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of any criminal proceedings by or on behalf of the Institution, and as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere, and as well against a member of the Institution as against any other person, and to declare that such provisions shall have a retrospective as well as a present and future operation and effect.

4. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained for enabling the Institution to delegate to their secretary, or to some other person or persons, rights, powers, and authorities touching the interests of the Institution, and for enabling such secretary or other person or persons to represent the Institution, and act for and in the name of the Institution.

5. To provide for the enrolment from time to time in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England, in the Books of Council and Session in Scotland, and in the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland respectively, or in such other courts, offices, or other places as shall or may be defined by the Bill, of memorials or other documents stating the names of the directors, trustees, and secretary, or other officers of the Institution, and to provide for vesting in the trustees or other persons from time to time named in such memorials or other documents, all the real and personal property and securities, goods, chattels, and effects at any time, and from time to time held upon trust for the Institution, without any deed, conveyance, transfer, or other assurance, and to make such other provisions in relation to such enrolment and vesting as may be found necessary or expedient.

6. To confer upon the Institution, or upon the directors thereof, for the time being, or upon other officers or persons, powers and authorities in relation to the rules and regulations of the Institution.

7. To alter, extend, and enlarge the powers of the Institution, and of the directors thereof, in respect of the laying out and investing the capital, moneys, funds, and property of the Institution, and to repeal or modify all or any restrictions upon the investment of such capital, moneys, funds, and property now existing according to the present constitution of the Institution, and to enable the Institution and the directors thereof, amongst other things, in addition to the powers they now possess, to lay out and invest the moneys and funds of the Institution in the purchase of, or in loans or advances upon, the security of the stocks, shares, bonds, mortgages, debentures, and other securities of public companies; or the mortgages, debentures, and other securities of any municipal or local authorities, trusts or bodies in the United Kingdom, India, or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom, the Government stocks, bonds, or other securities of India, or of any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom, or of any other country; policies of assurance of other companies, Government and other annuities, permanent and terminable, contingent and deferred, reversionary and contingent estates, and interests charged upon or arising from any security or property, and to lend and advance the funds of the Institution upon the security of lands of any tenure in Australia, New Zealand, or Canada, or on debenture or deposit to any Company within Great Britain or Ireland, the Empire of India, or the British Colonies authorised to take money on debenture or deposit, and to acquire and hold lands in the United Kingdom, the Colonies, and elsewhere, for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Institution, and to make all deposits and investments necessary by the laws, customs or practice of any colony or other country or state where the Institution may carry on or desire to carry on business; and also to lay out, invest and lend the capital, moneys, property and funds of the Institution in such other manner as the Bill may define, or Parliament may sanction, and to make all provisions for carrying those several objects into effect.

8. To confirm, make valid and render binding and effectual, to all intents and for all purposes, as well against as in favour of the Institution, its directors, officers, agents and servants, and any Corporation, Company, body or person interested in or affected thereby, every sale, lease, mortgage, exchange and other disposition of, and dealing with lands and other property, real or personal, and every assurance, deed, contract, agreement and other act and thing relating thereto, now or at any time before the passing of the Bill, made, entered into, executed or done.

9. To make and enact provisions in respect of all or some of the following among other objects and purposes, that is to say:—

- (a.) The sale, exchange, management, farming, demising, letting or otherwise disposing of lands already acquired and held, or hereafter to be from time to time acquired and held by or on behalf of the Institution.
- (b.) The making of such special or other conditions of sale, or other conditions or stipulations in relation to such lands as the Institution or the Directors thereof may think fit.
- (c.) The amounts to be advanced on mortgage and the value of the security to be taken for the repayment of such advances.
- (d.) The investigation of the title to lands and hereditaments, and the acceptance of or rejection of the title disclosed upon any such investigation.
- (e.) Indemnifying the directors.

- (f.) The employment and payment of solicitors, surveyors and other persons, and the delegation to them of such powers and authorities as may be expressed in the Bill, including the receipt and payment of money.
- (g.) The receipts or other discharges to be required and taken for sums of money payable in respect of policies, proof of death, and evidence of title, &c.
- (h.) The granting, execution, and revocation by the directors of powers of attorney and other documents of a like nature.

10. To make more effectual provision with respect to the accountability of officers, servants, and agents of the Institution, and for summary or other remedies against any such officer, servant, or agent failing to account to the Institution, or to deliver up papers, writings, property, effects, matters or things of or belonging to the Institution, and for that purpose to incorporate with the Bill, or to apply to the Institution, and its officers, servants, and agents, all or some of the provisions (with or without modifications) of 'The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.'

11. To alter, amend, and extend, and, so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the Bill, to cancel, annul, or repeal all Acts of Parliament, deeds, laws, regulations, rules, and other documents binding upon or affecting the Institution, and to confer all powers, and to vary and extinguish any rights or privileges which it may be expedient to confer, vary, or extinguish for the purposes aforesaid.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December, 1886, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1886.

EDINBURGH SOCIETY OF ACCOUNTANTS.

(Establishment and Administration of Fund for Providing Annuities, Endowments, and other Benefits to Members of the Society of Accountants in Edinburgh, and to their Widows and Children or other Representatives; Appropriation thereto of Funds of the Society; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter called "the Bill") for all or some of the following purposes, viz.:—

To provide for the establishment, administration, investment, regulation, application, and periodical investigation of a Fund (hereinafter called the "the Fund") for providing Annuities, Endowments, and other benefits to such of the existing Members of the Society of Accountants in Edinburgh (hereinafter called "the Society") as shall contribute to the Fund, and to all future Members of the Society, and to the Widows and Children or other representatives of such existing and future Members.

To confirm a resolution passed by the Society at their Annual General Meeting held on the third day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, whereby they resolved that such a Fund should be established, and that for the purpose of commencing it, the sum of £5000 should be applied thereto out of their General Funds.

To authorise the Society to contribute from time to time to the Fund such additional sums of money as they may deem fit.

To authorise the levying of contributions to the Fund, under such conditions as shall be provided by the Bill, from all existing Members of the Society who shall within a definite period from the passing of the Bill declare their intention to contribute to the Fund, and from all persons who shall after the passing of the Bill become Members of the Society; and also to provide for paying over to the Fund a portion of the fees payable by such future Members on entering the Society.

To authorise, under such conditions as shall be defined by the Bill, the commutation or forfeiture of interests in the Fund, and of the contributions thereto.

To provide that, subject to such conditions as shall be defined by the Bill, the annuities, endowments, and other benefits from the Fund to Members of the Society, and to their widows, children, and other representatives, shall not be attachable for the debts of such Members, widows, children, or representatives.

To authorise the making and enforcement of bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the administration of the Fund, and the direction of the affairs connected therewith.

To provide that the Life Assurance Companies Act, 1870, and the other Acts relating to Life Assurance Companies, shall not apply to nor affect the Fund, nor the contributors thereto; and to amend the said Acts in so far as the same may be necessary for that purpose.

To enable the Society to be registered (if they think fit) as a Friendly Society under the Friendly Societies Act, 1875, notwithstanding the provisions of that Act limiting the Annuities and gross sums payable by such Societies, or any other provisions of the several Acts relating to Friendly Societies; and to amend those Acts as respects the Society and the Fund.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which might interfere with any of the purposes aforesaid; and to confer all powers, rights, and privileges necessary or expedient for effecting those purposes, or in relation thereto.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the twenty-first day of December next, be deposited for public inspection in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 17th day of November 1886.
