

In Parliament—Session 1887.

SECURITIES INSURANCE AND DEPOSIT CORPORATION (LIMITED).

(Power to Issue Warrants or Certificates of Possession of Securities, &c., Transferable by Delivery or Endorsement, or Otherwise Power to Company to Undertake Office of Trustee, Executor, Administrator, Receiver, and Liquidator, and to Act in Other Fiduciary Characters. Powers to Chancery Division of High Court of Justice, and Paymaster-General, &c., and to Others Authorized to Appoint Trustees, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, by or on behalf of the Securities Insurance and Deposit Corporation, Limited, (in this Notice called 'the Company'), for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes or some of the purposes following, that is to say:

To empower the Company to grant and issue Warrants or Certificates evidencing the possession by the Company of negotiable or other Securities, or of deeds, documents, or other property, or things, and entitling the holder of any such warrant or certificate to have the securities, deeds, documents, property, or things mentioned therein, and to make such warrants and certificates transferable by delivery or endorsement, or otherwise.

To enable the Company to accept and undertake the office of trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, and liquidator, and to perform through some officer or officers of the Company the duties of every or any such office, to make provision for the due performance of such duties by the Company and its officers, and (if so thought expedient) as to the security to be given by the Company or its officer or officers for the due performance of such duties, and to confer all necessary powers in relation to all or any of the matters aforesaid upon the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice and the officers thereof, and upon the Paymaster-General of the said Chancery Division.

To empower the Chancery Division aforesaid and any Court of Justice, or any person having authority or power to appoint any person as trustee or receiver or committee, to appoint the Company as such trustee, receiver, or committee.

To enable the Company to act under any power of attorney either alone or jointly with any person or persons or company, and generally to act in any fiduciary character.

To declare, define, and, if need be, extend the rights and remedies of persons having any claim or demand against the Company acting in any such capacity as aforesaid.

To amend or vary the memorandum and articles of association of the Company, so far as may be necessary or thought expedient for giving effect to the objects and provisions of the Bill.

And the Bill will vary or extinguish any rights and privileges inconsistent with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 26th day of November, 1886.

BIRCHAM & CO.,

50 Old Broad Street, E.C., and
46 Parliament Street, S.W.,
Solicitors for the Bill.

REES & FRERE,

13 Great George Street, Westminster,
Parliamentary Agents.

In Parliament—Session 1887.

NATIONAL SAFE DEPOSIT COMPANY LIMITED.

(Power to Company to Undertake Office of Trustee Executor Administrator Receiver and Liquidator and to Act in other Fiduciary Characters; Remuneration of Company; Powers to any Division of High Court of Justice or any other Court of Justice in England Scotland or Ireland and Paymaster-General &c. and to others Authorized to Appoint Trustees &c. and to Creditors or Persons having Claims against the Company or Interested in Property &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the National Safe Deposit Company Limited (in this Notice called 'the Company') for leave to bring in a Bill for the purposes or some of the purposes following that is to say:—

To enable the Company to accept and undertake the Office of Trustee Executor Administrator with the Will annexed or otherwise Receiver and Liquidator and to perform through some Officer or Officers of the Company the duties of every or any such Office, to make provision for the due performance of such duties by the Company and its Officers and (if so thought expedient) as to the security to be given by the Company or its Officer or Officers for the due performance of such duties and to confer all necessary powers relative to all or any of the matters aforesaid upon all or any of the Divisions of the High Court of Justice or any other Court of Justice in England Scotland or Ireland and the Officers thereof and upon the Paymaster-General of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice.

To empower all or any of the Divisions of the High Court of Justice and any other Court of Justice as aforesaid or any person having authority or power to appoint any person as Trustee or Receiver or Committee to appoint the Company as such Trustee Receiver or Committee either alone or jointly with any person or persons or Company.

To enable the Company to act under any Power of Attorney either alone or jointly with any person or persons or Company, and generally to act in any fiduciary character.

To provide for the remuneration of the Company for any services rendered by them in the performances of any of the duties above mentioned or in any fiduciary character and to enable Trustees Executors Administrators next of kin or other persons under any disability in that behalf to agree with the Company as to the amount of such remuneration and the funds or monies out of which it shall be paid.

To define the cases in which, or the circumstances under which any legal business in relation to wills or testamentary writings or to Trusts may or shall be conducted by the Solicitor of or a Solicitor to be appointed by the Company and to empower the High Court of Justice or any other Court of Justice in England Scotland or Ireland or any Division or Judge thereof to remove Solicitors appointed for the conduct of any such matters by any will or testamentary writing or Deed.