

lishing school bursaries, to be called the Wood School Bursaries, each of the yearly value of not less than £5 nor more than £10. These bursaries shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parish of Newburn, who have passed the fifth standard of the present Scotch Code, or such standard as may from time to time be fixed by the Scotch Education Department, pursuant to the Education (Scotland) Acts, as that entitling children to total exemption from the obligation to attend school, and whose parents or guardians are in such circumstances as to require aid for giving them higher education; these bursaries shall be tenable for two years at public or State-aided schools in which efficient instruction is given in the higher branches.

28. Bursaries for Higher or Technical Education.—The governors shall apply the remainder of the free annual income in establishing bursaries for higher education, to be called the Wood Bursaries, each of the yearly value of not less than £15 nor more than £20. These bursaries shall be awarded by competitive examination among pupils attending public or State-aided schools in the parishes of Newburn, Scoonie, Largo, Kennoway, Elie, and Largowood, whose parents or guardians require aid in giving them higher education, under such regulations and conditions as to age or otherwise as the governors may determine; they shall be tenable for such period not exceeding three years as the governors may determine, at such schools for higher education or technical instruction as they may approve.

29. Forfeiture of Bursaries.—If, in the judgment of the governors, the holder of any bursary shall be guilty of serious misconduct, or fail to make reasonable progress, they may withdraw such bursary, and their determination in such case shall be final.

30. Annual Distribution of Bursaries.—The governors shall establish the bursaries herein provided for in such manner as to secure that they shall be awarded in as nearly as possible equal numbers in each year.

31. Sum for Repairs or Improvements.—The governors shall have power to set aside such annual sum not exceeding £20 to meet the cost of such repairs or improvements as may not fall naturally or conveniently within the annual expenditure of each year.

32–36. Future Administration; Power to apply to Court of Session for Alteration; Power to make Bye-Laws and receive Additional Donations. Scheme to be Printed.
