PUBLIC HEALTH.

THE DAIRIES, COW-SHEDS, AND MILK-SHOPS AMENDING ORDER, 1887.

To all the Local Authorities in Scotland, in terms of 'The Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.'

WHEREAS by Section 34 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878 (hereinafter referred to as 'the principal Act'), it was enacted that Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (hereinafter referred to as 'The Privy Council'), might from time to time make such general or special Orders as they should think fit, subject and according to the provisions of the Act, for the purposes specified in that section.

And whereas on the 15th day of June 1885, the Privy Council, in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the principal Act, made a General Order known as 'The Dairies, Cow-Sheds, and Milk-Shops Order of 1885' (hereinafter referred to as 'the Order of 1885'); and such Order extends to the whole of Scotland.

And whereas by Article 14 of the Order of 1885, it is provided that a copy of every Regulation therein referred to shall be sent to the Privy Council, and that if at any time the Privy Council are satisfied on inquiry with respect to any Regulation that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, and direct the revocation thereof, the same shall not come into operation, or shall thereupon cease to operate, as the case may be.

And whereas by Section 9 of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1886 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act of 1886'), it is enacted as follows:—

9. (1.) The powers vested in the Privy Council of making general or special orders under section thirty-four of the principal Act, for the purposes in that section mentioned, are hereby transferred to and shall henceforth be exercisable by the Local Government Board; every such order shall have effect as if enacted in this section, and shall be published in such manner as the Local Government Board may direct, and the said Board may from time to time alter or revoke any such order.

(5.) The like penalties for offences against orders or regulations made for the purposes of section thirty-four of the principal Act as amended by this section may be imposed by the Local Government Board or Local Authority making the same, and such offences may be prosecuted and penalties recovered in a summary manner, and subject to the like provisions, as if such orders or regulations were bye-laws of a Local Authority under the Public Health Act, 1875, and as if the Local Authority mentioned in that Act included a Local Authority in the metropolis as defined in this section.

(6.) (a.) The Dairies, Cow-Sheds, and Milk-Shops Order of 1885, and any regulations thereunder, or having effect in pursuance thereof, made by any Local Authority under the principal Act, other than the Local Authority of a county, shall be deemed to have been made respectively by the Local Government Board and by a Local Authority under this section.

(7.) In the application of this section to Scotland, the expression 'Local Government Board' shall mean the Board of Supervision for relief of the Poor and for Public Health; the expression
'Local Authority' shall mean the Local Authority under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867;
the expressions 'Public Health Act, 1875,' and 'section one hundred and two of the said Act' shall mean respectively the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, and section seventeen of the said Act; the expression 'Bye-laws of a Local Authority' shall mean rules and regulations made by a Local Authority under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867; and generally the Board of Supervision and the Local Authority under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, shall have all the powers of the Privy Council, and the Local Authority under section thirty-four of the Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, with regard to the regulation of Dairies, Cow-Sheds, and Milk-Shops: Provided always, that no general or special order made by the Board of Supervision under this section shall be binding until it has been confirmed by the Secretary for Scotland, subject to such conditions, if any, as the Secretary for Scotland shall think fit.

And whereas it is expedient that the Order of 1885 should be altered as hereinafter mentioned, and that penalties should be imposed for offences against such Order.

Now therefore, We, the Board of Supervision for the relief of the Poor, and for Public Health in Scotland, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us by the Act of 1886, hereby Order as follows:—

ARTICLE 1.—This Order may be cited as 'The Dairies, Cow-Sheds, and Milk-Shops Amending Order of 1887.'

ARTICLE 2.—Article 14 of the Order of 1885 shall be altered by the substitution therein of the words 'Board of Supervision' for the words
'Privy Council' occurring therein.

ARTICLE 3.—If any person is guilty of an offence against the Order of 1885, he shall for every such offence be liable to a penalty of Five Pounds.

Provided, nevertheless, that the Sheriff or other Magistrate before whom any complaint may be made, or any proceedings may be taken in respect of any such offence, may, if he think fit, adjudge the payment as a penalty of any sum less than the full amount of the penalty imposed by this Order.

ARTICLE 4.—In this Order the expression
'Local Authority' means the Local Authority
under the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867.

Certified and signed by me this twenty-seventh day of January, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty-Seven.

JOHN SKELTON, Secretary.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 27th January 1887.

I hereby confirm the foregoing Order,

ARTHUR JAMES BALFOUR,
Her Majesty's Secretary for Scotland.

Dover House, Whitehall,

And whereas it is expedient to renew the said Order for the space of seven weeks:

And whereas by 'The Secretary for Scotland Act, 1885,' it is provided that all powers and duties vested in or imposed on the Privy Council by Part III. of the said Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1867, shall be transferred to, vested in, and imposed on the Secretary for Scotland.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said Secretary for Scotland

Act, the Secretary for Scotland does order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council, dated the 25th day of June 1885, shall be renewed and shall continue in force for the space of seven weeks after the publication of this Order in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-first day of December 1885, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of three calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the twenty-third day of February 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.

And whereas by an Order of the Secretary for Scotland, dated the sixteenth day of August 1886, the said Order in Council is renewed and continued in force for the space of six calendar months after publication in the Edinburgh Gazette.
